Message From the Rabbi

Dear Schomre Israel Family,

They tried to destroy us; they couldn't. We won; they lost; let's eat. A wag once said that he could summarize all of the Jewish holidays with that ditty. And it seems true, especially so with the two upcoming holidays of Purim and Pesach.

Haman tried to destroy us; he failed, was destroyed, and we have the mitzvah to make a banquet and imbibe. Pharaoh enslaved our people, murdered the children, and was himself ultimately vanquished - how to commemorate? We have a command to create an even greater celebration of food and wine at a Passover Seder - a full course gourmet meal fit for a king! Apparently, the ditty is not far off the mark.

The Biblical name for the Fast of Atonement is not Yom Kippur as we commonly say, but Kippurim, which is interpreted as K'Purim, "like" Purim. Somehow, Yom Kippur is similar to Purim, yet not equal to it. That certainly doesn't seem correct! Purim is a day of often ribald celebration, while Yom Kippur is a day of fasting and serious introspection. Our sages explain: it is easy to come to introspection and self evaluation through fasting and deprivation. But what happens on the regular day, when we are permitted to work and conduct our normal daily business? How do we relate to the world and our place therein on the other 364 days of the year? Is our eating and drinking purposeful and holy? Are we goal driven and holy when we are part of and not removed from our daily life? Abstaining from earthly pleasures is meaningful for a day, but being part of life and living it in a holy Jewish manner is the goal. If we observe Purim properly then we have succeeded. We act as Jews while having the pleasure of G-d's world. If only Yom K'Purim would be like this! G-d's goal is for us to serve Him in happiness and joy.

Yes, most Jewish holidays incorporate food to engrave this message in our psyche - Passover - most prominently. The cups of wine drunk while leaning teach the aspect of freedom that G-d granted us. The matza has the dual component of slavery and speedy exodus. Of course the maror reminds us of the bitterness of exile, and in Temple times the roasted lamb taught the lesson of rejection of idolatry. Keeping all that in mind during the festive meal is, I admit, not easy, but use the Hag-gadah as the guide for this most meaningful ceremony.

We won; better - G-d saved us. So let us eat, drink, enjoy, and thank the Creator for the blessing He gave us to be His holy people and to make our daily life one of holiness.

Best wishes for the wonderful celebrations of Purim and Pesach.

PURIM INFORMATION

1. Purpose: Purim is celebrated in commemoration of the deliverance of the Jews in Persia from the hands of Haman, the King's officer, who plotted their death. The events narrated in the Book of Esther took place in the middle of the fifth century B.C.E.
2. Date: The 14th of Adar. The 15th of Adar is known as Shushan Purim since in the capital, Shushan, the Jews had to defend themselves against their enemies on the 14th and celebrated the Festival a day later.
3. Name: It is called Purim from the word 'Pur' which means "lot" and refers to the evil machinations of Haman who cast lots to determine on which day he should arrange for the slaughter of the Jews of Persia.
4. Observance:

(a) In the Synagogue: On the eve of Purim and on Purim morning the Book of Esther is chanted to a special melody. At the mention of Haman, the children stamp their feet or turn their "graggers" (noisemakers) in derision of the name of the arch enemy. Three-cornered Purim pastries (Hamentashen) are served.

(b) In the Home: Being a joyful Festival, Purim is the occasion for parties and celebrations. A festive meal, Seudah, is the occasion for a happy family gathering. Charity is distributed and there is an interchange of gifts, particularly food gifts, between friends and neighbors. It might be noted that the character of Purim is really unique and quite unlike other festivals in the spirit of its observance. There is a deliberate absence of the solemn and highly spiritual character which dominates in other festivals. Purim rather is observed in a mood of sanctioned frivolity. From days of old, masques and parades and even bonfires have been elements in the day's festival program. Purim was kept as a carnival day. In modern times something of its spirit is found in the Purim parades and carnivals in Israel.

PREPARATIONS FOR PASSOVER

I. What and Why is Chametz?

When the Israelites emerged from Egyptian slavery, they left in great haste. Consequently, they could not bake their bread in the usual manner. There was not sufficient time for the dough to rise and for the bread to become leavened. The product of such leavening process is called Chametz. It consists of grain or flour mixed with water and allowed to stand for a brief period without being baked completely.

In order to relive the experience of our ancestors, we avoid Chametz throughout the entire Passover festival. We neither eat it nor own it during the holiday. We try to use up whatever products we have before the festival. What we cannot use we store away and sell to a non-Jew through the Rabbi of the Synagogue. A form for this purpose is found in the bulletin.

Before the festival, we conduct a symbolic search of the house (Bedikas Chametz) to ensure that all Chametz has been removed from our premises. On the morrow following the search, we burn what we have found along with any other leftover unsold chametz (Bi-ur Chametz).

During the eight days of the festival, we use only products that are free of Chametz and we eat matzah in order to experience the haste of our forefathers when they went forth from slavery to freedom.

II. Preparing for Passover

In addition to not using Chametz products during the festival, we also avoid the use of dishes and utensils which have been used all year round with Chametz. For that reason it is necessary to have two additional sets of dishes for Passover use. These are stored away in a closet throughout the year and brought out for use only on Passover. At the same time, the year-round dishes and utensils are stored away out of sight, during the Passover festival.

There are certain types of utensils that can be ritually cleansed - or kashered - for Passover use. A brief explanation follows:

1. Silver and Metal Utensils

Silver, small pots and metal utensils without wooden handles may be kashered for Passover use. They must first be cleansed thoroughly and then allowed to stand unused for 24 hours. They are then completely immersed in a kettle or vat of boiling water.

We might add that china, pottery and utensils that have different parts glued together, and items that cannot be cleansed thoroughly (such as a sieve) cannot be kashered for Passover use.

Larger pots or kettles may be kashered by first cleansing them as above and then filling them with water to the very top, allowing the water to boil and then placing a hot iron or stone inside the pot so that the boiling water runs over and down the sides of the pot.

2. Glassware

Glasses and glass plates which have not been used for hot liquids or solids during the year may be kashered for Passover by immersing them in cold water for a period of three days prior to Passover. Glass utensils, such as Pyrex, which are used with meat must be treated as china and cannot be kashered.

3. The Stove and Oven

Every part of the stove and oven must be thoroughly cleaned with a chemical cleanser and then allowed to stand for 24 hours or more without being used. The top range and the oven must then be heated at the highest setting and allowed to stand for a period of one hour at that setting.

In addition, during Passover, a special metal sheet is placed over the top of the range to prevent contact with the Passover utensils.

4. Microwave Oven

Clean thoroughly, and pour boiling water directly from a pot which was on the flame onto all sides, top, bottom and door. Place a utensil filled with water in the oven, and operate the oven at its maximum setting until it is filled with thick steam.

III Passover Foods

Most foods that are used on Passover require Rabbinical supervision. This is especially true of processed foods. It is important to realize that a label which indicates that a product is "Kosher for Passover" does not assure us of the supervision. Wherever possible, one should use products which have nationally-known Kashrut symbols. If not, it is important to check on the reliability of the particular Rabbi who is giving the endorsement. Please feel free to ask in the event of any doubt on this matter.

1. Grain Products

All grain products require strict Rabbinic supervision for Passover use.

2. All Milk and Dairy Products require supervision.

3. Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

All of these may be used (except for legumes - peas, beans, rice and corn which are all treated as Chametz).

4. Dried Fruits

These should carry a Passover endorsement.

5. Frozen Fruits and Vegetables

Frozen vegetables maybe used for Passover only with Passover certification.

6. Cosmetics

Some maintain that all cosmetics can be used for Passover inasmuch as they are not foods. This includes toothpaste. Others have stricter opinions.

THE SALE OF CHAMETZ

A most important Mitzvah before the onset of Pesach is the selling of chametz. It is preferable to perform the sale of chametz in person with the Rabbi. The Rabbi is available at all services for the selling of chametz, or at any other pre-arranged time. Otherwise, please sign the form below for selling chametz and mail it to the Shul or to the Rabbi, so that he receives it no later than Friday, April 7, 2017.

DELEGATION OF POWER FOR SALE OF CHAMETZ

KNOW YE that I, the undersigned, fully empower and permit Rabbi Eliezer Langer to act in my place and stead, and in my behalf to sell all CHAMETZ possessed by me (knowingly or unknowingly) defined as claimed by The Torah and Rabbinic Law (e.g. Chametz, doubt of Chametz, and all kinds of Chametz mixtures), as well as Chametz that tends to harden and to adhere to a surface of inside of pans, pots and cooking and usable utensils, and all kinds of live animals that have been eating Chametz or mixtures thereof, and to lease all places wherein the Chametz owned by me may be found, especially in the premises indicated below and elsewhere.

Rabbi Langer has the full right to sell and to lease by transactions, as he deems fit and proper and for such time which he believes necessary in accordance with all terms detailed in the general authorization contract which is in the possession of Rabbi Langer authorizing him to sell Chametz; on behalf of others. “MAOS CHITTIM FUND”

It is a long-standing custom to help the needy make Pesach by donating to the “Maos Chittim Fund.” Maos Chittim literally means money for flour to bake matzos. As we all know, there are great expenses in preparation of Passover - purchasing matzo, wine, fish, meat, various groceries, etc.

If you wish to participate in this great mitzvah please send your check payable to: Congregation Schomre Israel (note “Maos Chittim” in memo area of check), to the Shul office. Rabbi Langer will forward the donations to those in need.

'No Asylum:
The Untold Chapter of Anne Frank's Story'

A great treasure trove of history was lost in the mists of time for 70 years. Recently a volunteer was sorting through boxes of dusty Holocaust manuscripts deep in the archives of YIVO, the Institute for Jewish Research, when she came upon a fragile envelope. She was stunned to find lost documents that detailed the desperate efforts of a loving father to save his family from the clutches of the Nazis. They were the letters of Otto Frank, Anne Frank's father, which reveal his heartbreaking failure to find a safe haven for his daughters, Anne and Margot, and his wife Edith.

In No Asylum, Anne's only surviving family members relate the emotional story of her family's search for sanctuary. As the Nazi noose tightened throughout Europe, Otto's desperation increased. When the doors to other countries closed, he turned to the US as their last hope for refuge. Otto's letters and the US State Dept. responses paint a picture of the world's failure to respond to the plight of the Jewish refugees.

March 01, 2017

Dear Friend:

The Sisterhood of Schomre Israel is preparing its next Full color Hebrew Calendar (2017-2018) effective September 2017.

We have been producing this calendar for almost two decades, and last year we took a giant step in going full color. In doing this we discovered the cost would be a little more than black and white and everybody likes color. We are increasing the cost of the ads, but you will find they are less than other forms of color advertisements. We hope you will participate in this venture and look forward to seeing your color ads.

This calendar provides our Jewish community with information regarding Jewish holidays, Torah readings, candle lighting times and religious and social events that are presented by Congregation Schomre Israel. Our calendar raises needed funds to help support special Schomre functions and many community projects which are sponsored by the Sisterhood. The Sisterhood and Congregation Schomre Israel serve the youth of our congregation, the Jewish Community, patients in local health institutions, in local hospitals, and the many nursing homes in the area.

Our Congregation was organized in the City of Poughkeepsie in 1888. We are 129 years old. We are the only established Modern Orthodox Synagogue in Dutchess County.

We are asking for your support by taking out an ad in our calendar.

Ads can be placed in the following format - Advertisers will receive a copy of the 2017/2018 Calendar:

A Big "Todah Rabbah" - thank you

A hearty thanks to all of those in our congregation who have made donations to the Morse School Project. Our Jewish Social Action Coalition is composed of our synagogue, Temple Beth-El, Vassar Temple, Shir Chadash, and the Harding Club. We have provided food, school supplies and some winter clothing to the students and families of Morse School. We also thank members of the Jewish War Veterans who have dropped off donations when they meet in our building. We continue to encourage your generous donations. There is a box for items in the rear entrance to the Gold Room.

The Jewish Social Action Coalition is happy to announce that it has been awarded some grants to continue its good work. The grants are from the Community Foundation, specifically the Community Resource Fund and the Linda and Steve Saland Legacy Grant. Additionally, the Harding Club has made a grant to the Coalition and the CSA Pri Ha'emek is donating a full vegetable share to the Coalition. The Coalition is a member of the Food Bank of the Hudson Valley. This membership enables us to purchase a number of food items for the Morse School at discounted prices.

Thank you for your support,
Sandy Corwin and Debby Sullum,
Representatives to the Coalition.
