The Weekly Parsha

Parshas Chukas

By Rabbi A. Leib Scheinbaum

"This is the decree of the Torah, which Hashem commanded, saying..." (19:2)

One of the close chassidim of the Klausenberger Rebbe, zl, recounts that he had the "privilege" to be with the Rebbe in the Warsaw Ghetto prior to their transfer to Auschwitz. It was Shabbos Parashas Chukas, 1944, as the Rebbe sat down to deliver his Torah lecture during Seudah Shlishis. He cited the opening pasuk of our parsha, then continued with the following. "Zos is an acronym for (zayin) (aleph) (taf), Z'chor al tishkach, 'Remember and do not forget.'" If one has the desire to retain his Torah study, to hold it in his memory, he can follow three suggestions as guidelines for not forgetting what he has learned. First, tzivah, "was commanded." The gematria of tzivah is 101, alluding to Chazal's maxim that one should study everything that he learns 101 times. Indeed, they add that one cannot compare what one studies 100 times to that which he reviews 101 times. That one extra time makes a world of difference.

The second suggestion is Hashem. One should conjure up in his mind that he is standing before Hashem. This will enable him to remember his learning better. Third is leimor, "saying." He should articulate that which he is learning. This will also assist in the process of internalizing the Torah knowledge into his memory bank.

The purpose of citing this dvar Torah is to emphasize the saintly Rebbe's ability to think and remain immersed in Torah, despite the pain and deprivation to which he was subjected. It also demonstrates the commitment and devotion of his chassidim who listened and remembered this dvar Torah sixty years later.

"This is the (Torah) teaching regarding a man who would die in a tent" (19:14)

In the Talmud (Berachos 63b), Chazal derive from this pasuk that the words of Torah firmly endure in a person who kills himself for it. This is a reference to those who give up their lives, who devote themselves fully to the study of Torah. Nothing stands in the way of their commitment to Torah study. The venerable

Rosh Hayeshivah of Mir Yerushalayim, Horav Eliezer Yehudah Finkel, zl, sustained a major heart attack two years prior to his passing. A number of days after the event, he was visited by Horav Shlomo Lorinz, shlita. The Rosh Hayeshivah lamented that he had no time to sleep because he had to study seven blatt of Talmud and ten chapters of Rambam. "Perhaps the Rosh Hayeshivah should ask the cardiologist if it is advisable to strain oneself under such conditions," Rav Lorinz suggested. Rav Leizer Yudil (as he was fondly called) replied, "The Rambam clearly states, 'Everyone is obliged to study Torah, even the elderly and the sick.' Why do I have to ask a doctor, if the Rambam, who himself was a physician, has rendered the decision for me?"

This has been the attitude of gedolei Torah, the giants of Torah, towards its study. They have not looked for excuses, nor have they accepted them. They did what they were supposed to do, and this is the reason that they have become gedolim. No shortcuts, no excuses, just Torah study as if their life depends upon it.

The Enigmatic Laws of Parah Adumah

Parshas Chukas begins with the complex and cryptic laws of the Parah Adumah (the Red Heifer), which fall under the category of chukim, those "mitzvos whose purposes or meanings are not necessarily understood by human intelligence" (R' Bachye). The mitzvah of Parah Adumah is considered by Chazal to be the quintessential chok of the Torah. Generally speaking, the mitzvos of the Torah fall into one of three categories: דינין, testimonies; מצוות, civil laws; and חקים, Divine ordinances. Although there are many obvious examples of chukim in the Torah (like kashrus and sota), the Midrash (Bamidbar Rabbah 18:3) lists four about which it is stated specifically in the Torah, "It is a chok." The four are: Yibum – "And you shall guard my chukim" (Vayikra 18:26), Shaatnez – "You shall keep my chukim" (ibid. 19:19), Sa'ir l'Azazel – "an eternal chok" (ibid. 16:29), and Parah Adumah – "This is the chok of the Torah" (Bamidbar 19:2). The Midrash to this chapter focuses primarily on one paradox in the laws of the Parah Adumah: Its ashes make a person who became tamei, tahor; yet those [who are tahor] who engage in its preparation become tamei, and must go through a purification process of their own to return to a state of becoming tahor. It was regarding this aspect of its laws that Shlomo HaMelech exclaimed (Koheles 7:23), "I thought I could become wise, but it [Parah Adumah] is beyond my comprehension." Commenting on this pasuk, the Rokeach notes that the gematria of the phrase, והיא רוחקה, "it is beyond comprehension," is 341, which is equivalent to פרה אדומה.

Shlomo HaMelech, the wisest of all men, who spent a lifetime researching the reasons behind the mitzvos and finding explanations for all the others, professed that this mitzvah was beyond his comprehension. As mentioned above, Parah Adumah is considered the quintessential chok of the Torah, and although the verse in Tanach states: "G-d gave Shlomo very much wisdom and understanding and breadth of knowledge like the sand that is on the seashore" (Melachim N 5:9), these laws were beyond him. According to the Midrash, this verse implies that Shlomo's wisdom was equal to the collective wisdom of the Jewish people, who were "as many as the sand on the seashore." His intellectual capacity was superior to that of any other person, and therefore he knew what was on each one's mind. Consequently, his judgment was true even in cases where the facts were obscure.

We simply cannot fathom the depth of the greatness and wisdom that Shlomo HaMelech possessed. According to the Midrash, his knowledge and understanding of the Torah surpassed that of the entire dor hamidbar, known as the "generation of knowledge"; he knew details of the Torah that even Moshe Rabbeinu did not know (Bamidbar Rabbah). His greatness in Torah is apparent from the three holy seforim he authored with ruach hakodesh – Koheles, Mishlai, and Shir Hashirim, as well as several kapitalah of Sefer Tehillim. The Talmud teaches that he endeared the Torah to the people by illustrating the meaning of each halacha with as many as 3000 parables, and could cite 1005 different reasons for any rabbinic ordinance (Eruvin 21). How profound, then, is the mitzvah of Parah Adumah, if Shlomo HaMelech, the wisest of all men, was unable to grasp it.

In truth, all the mitzvos of the Torah, even those that are seemingly understandable, are considered to be chukim. Because of the Divine nature of each and every mitzvah, their true meaning and significance are far beyond the scope of human comprehension, and therefore, impossible for us to fully understand. As R' Yochanan told his students regarding our failure to understand the laws of Parah Adumah, "It is not the corpse that causes contamination or the ashes of the cow that cause purity. These laws are decrees of G-d, and man has no right to question them." In other words, an essential component of wisdom is the knowledge that man's failure to understand truth does not make it untrue (Artscroll Stone Chumash). It is incumbent upon every Jew to observe the mitzvos of the Torah without question. The very phrase with which we were zoche to receive the Torah, “na’aseh v’nishma,” – “[first] we will do and [then] we will listen,” is the cornerstone of our trust in Hashem and the emes of His Torah. A gutten Shabbos.
