Baruch Dayan HaEmes

Congregation Tiferes Yisroel is saddened to learn of the passing of Sheldon Patinkin, brother of Rebbetzin Ida Goldberger and uncle of Rabbi Menachem Goldberger.

May Rabbi Goldberger and the Goldberger and Patinkin families be comforted among all the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

Coming Up

- October 11: Kiddush sponsored by Ken and Chana Birnbaum in honor of Yoni and Oshi.
- October 25: Shalosh Seudos/Sheva Brachos for Tehilla Rottman and Avi Safren, sponsored by Jerry and Elka Rottman.

This week's Lev Echad is sponsored by:

Rabbi and Rebbetzin Goldberger, Shlomo, Ahuva, Keely, Jillian, Hudie, Miriam, Elie, Esther, Mordy, Yaakov and all of his great-great nieces and nephews, in memory of our dear Uncle Sheldon Patinkin. May his neshama have an aliyah. We will love and miss him forever.

Tiferes Yisroel MinhagimSPECIAL FOODS

- From R”H through Shemini Atzeres, Rabbi Goldberger’s minhag is to use honey at the table on the chalah, rather than salt. Salt may be on the table. During this time, no sour or sharp foods are eaten, e.g., no horeseradish through Shemini Atzeres.
- On S”T we resume the use of salt on chalah, and sour or sharp foods can be eaten again.

EREV YOM KIPPUR

- It is a mitzva to eat and drink erev Y”K. Rabbi Goldberger’s minhag is to have a fleishig seudah in the morning before chatzos. The pizmon from the erev Y”K selichos, “Machar Yihyeh Haos Hazeh,” is said at this seudah.
- The seuda hamafsekes is after mincha. Kreplach are eaten at this seudah.
- Mikveh is a chiyuv for men.
- It is a long-standing minhag (especially among Chasidim) for women and girls under Bas Mitzvah, to go to the mikveh erev Y”K (girls over Bas Mitzvah should not go to the mikveh until after they are married). This immersion is for spiritual purity and does not remove the status of nidda. (The women’s mikveh in Baltimore is open for a short period of time erev Y”K morning for this purpose.)
- During or following the seudah hamafsekes, the father benches the children with the special erev Y”K bracha found in the machzor.
- A Ner Neshama is lit. One per family is sufficient. This is in addition to any yearzeit candles the family may be lighting.

KAPPAROS: CHICKEN OR MONEY

- If using a chicken, it should be waved over each family member’s head in their presence. Give tzedaka of $5/person. If using money, use coins, not paper money, waving the coins over each person’s head. Give the money to tzedaka; $5/person.

YOM KIPPUR GREETING

- After Rosh HaShanah, and through Yom Kippur, we greet each other with “G’mar chasima tova” (May you be conclusively sealed for the good).
- Men wear a kittel and tallis all through Y”K.
- Following havdalah on motzei Y”K, there is a special Hamavdil recited, as printed in the machzor.
- Kiddush L’vanah is recited after maariv on motzei Y”K.
- There is an inyan to begin a little bit of work on the Sukkah on motzei Y”K

SUKKOS

- It is a mitzvah to eat and sleep in the Sukkah.
- Our minhag is not to wear tefillin during Chol Hamoed. It is our minhag to wear Shabbos/Yom Tov clothing during Chol Hamoed.
- Binding the lulav: Most kehillos hold the lulav with three haddasim to the right of the spine, and two aravos to its left, according to the Shulchan Aruch. Rabbi Goldberger binds his lulav differently, according to the minhag of the Arizal.

• The lulav is waved according to nusach sfard, following the minhag of the Arizal:

- While facing east — right, left, forward, up, down, back. Wave in each direction three times, each time returning the lulav to your heart and standing facing forward. Turn completely around for the back waving, and never point the lulav down for down waving; kneel instead.
- Waving during Hallel: four times total — once during the first Hodu laHashem, twice during Ana Hashem, and once during the last Hodu laHashem.
- Hodu waving: one direction for each word. Do not wave the lulav when reciting the word Hashem; e.g., right, while saying Hodu, then stand still for Hashem, then continue for each word in each respective direction.
- Ana waving: two directions for each word. Do not wave the lulav when reciting the word Hashem; e.g., right and left while saying Ana, then stand still for Hashem, forward and up while saying Hoshiah, down and back while saying Na.

HOSHANAH RABBAH

- Some have the minhag to stay up and learn Torah H”R night. There is also a minhag to read Mishneh Torah (the entire book of Devarim) from a sefer Torah on H”R night.
- The rings are removed from the lulav before Hallel.
- We hold the lulav and esrog for the first seven hoshanah hakafos, and the tachanunim that follow, until taaneh emunim. At taaneh emunim, we put down the lulav and esrog and pick up the bundle of five hoshanahs (aravos).
- Upon completion of the tachanunim, the hoshanahs are beaten on the floor exactly five times.
- There is a fleishig morning seuda where kreplach are eaten. Rabbi Goldberger’s minhag is to recite the first paragraph of Aleinu forward and backward seven times: e.g., word by word forward, then word by word backward, repeated seven times.

SHEMINI ATZERES

- Following maariv on Sh”A night, we have seven short hakafos, while dancing with the Torah. The Rabbi dances the beginning of the first hakafa alone.
- It is our minhag to eat in the Sukkah, but you should not sleep in the Sukkah.
- Do not say the bracha leyshev basukkah.
- Farewell to the Sukkah after minchah. The Rabbi leads niganim in the shul sukkah every year at this time.

SIMCHAS TORAH

- No longer use the Sukkah.
- Hakafos at maariv and shacharis, with the Torahs. The Rabbi dances the beginning of the first hakafa alone, both maariv and shacharis.
- At our shul, the hakafos usually continue well into the afternoon, followed by musaf and mincha. This is followed by a joyous S”T meal, either at home or collectively in shul.
- S”T is the yearzeit of our Rabbi’s Rebbe, Moreinu Harav Shloime Twerski, zecher tzadik livracha, who passed away in 5742 on this day. Zechuso yagaen alenu v’al kol Yisroel.

Focus on Chesed

Keep a Daily Notebook, Make a Daily Entry

As we move into the last phase of this year's Focus on Chesed, you can focus on chesed by setting aside a notebook and entering one act of chesed you did each day. This can be a chesed for someone inside or outside your family.

Yaakov Goldman has designed and produced a pocket chesed notebook (free of charge) for us to make a chesed entry each day. He is also working on the "Ten Greatest Chesed Stories" with Rabbi Pesach Krohn to be available soon. The first two journals to the family are free, after that they are $1 each. They are also free via email.

Join the Chessed Challenge Volunteer Team or bring it to your organization. Contact: builtinchessed@gmail.com (410) 903-4653.

Camp Yom Tov Volunteers

Thank you to all the people who helped make Camp Yom Tov a success —

Jonathan Raun, Adriana Steinberg, Ari and Caryn Blum, Lenny and Glenna Ross, Alisa Mandel, Yaakov and Ester Gur, Aviva Paul, Tova Schuerholz, Tova Jussim, Siona Schuerholz, Rose Sawilowsky, Sivi Feinstein, Shayna Slatkin, Yaron Peterson, Dovid Blum, Levi Perlman, Shlomo Zeitlin, Gabriel Raun, Naama Raun and the parent volunteers.

Yizkor

by Rabbi Zalman Abraham
(from askmoses.com)

In Yizkor, the souls of the departed are remembered in prayer to G-d and in monetary pledges to charity. It is founded upon the principle that a mitzvah of the living affects the souls of the deceased when performed in their memory.

The Midrash (Sifri: Shoftim) states that even departed souls require redemption. Redemption is brought about by means of charity as in the verse (Isaiah 1:27) "Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and those who return to her with tzedakah."

In Temple times, the souls of the righteous that were gathered in the spiritual Temple in heaven (which is not bound by material confines) would descend to the earthly Temple, blessing it with infinite properties. Nowadays, when we no longer have a physical Temple to visit, we remember souls of the departed so that their merit should bless us too and stand us in good stead (Ta'amei Haminhagim p. 245).

When you give charity on behalf of your loved ones, consider giving to Tiferes Yisroel. We suggest a donation of $36. It's just a suggestion. Give more. Give less. The important thing is that you give.

And may the soul of your loved one be bound in the bond of life, together with the souls of Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov; Sarah, Rivka, Rachel and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in Gan Eden.

Lev Echad

There will be no new Lev Echad next week and possibly none the week after that. There is no deadline for the next Lev Echad because we don't know when that will be. So just email your submissions whenever. And if it makes it, it makes it.

The Lev Echad would like to thank its staff for all the hard work they've put in over the past year — Ann Stiller, Glenna Ross, Lenny Ross, Lev Avraham Rosenstock, Rena Levi and Suzanne Kayne. And a special thank you to Yehudis Taffel.

PUSHKA CAMPAIGN

Sign up by emailing shlomhuva@aol.com. The pushka challenge is to put whatever amount of money one is able into a pushka every day or as often as possible. The recommended amount is only 36 cents a day.

When your pushka is full, please empty it into a ziplock bag marked with your name, and drop it into our locked mailbox at 3310 W. Strathmore Avenue. If it is difficult for you to drop it off, please contact Shlomo and Ahuva Goldberger at 410-358-4456 to arrange a pickup. If you need a shul pushka, you may take one from the shul window sill, and they will be replenished as needed.

Giving tzedakah in the name of the departed has the power to elevate their soul. When you give charity on behalf of your loved one, consider giving to Tiferes Yisroel. And may the soul of your loved one be bound in the bond of life, together with the souls of Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov; Sarah, Rivka, Rachel and Leah; and together with the other righteous men and women in Gan Eden.
