

CONGREGATION TO CELEBRATE 70TH BIRTHDAY OF RABBI HASKEL LOOKSTEIN February 22-24

If the reality is half as good as the hype then the weekend of February 22-24 should turn out to be one of the most memorable ones in the history of KJ. The festivities planned for the occasion of Rabbi Haskel Lookstein's seventieth birthday are sure to provide Rabbi Lookstein with abundant joy and whole-hearted satisfaction, as well as give the KJ community an appropriate opportunity to celebrate the life and accomplishments of our rabbi.

In actuality, the weekend began a few months ago, when the idea was hatched to commission the writing of a Sefer Torah in Rabbi Lookstein's honor. What better way to honor our rabbi than to present to him that which he has spent his entire life trying to model and teach. Almost all of the Torah will be written by a sofer in Israel, with the remaining few hundred letters to be completed by the KJ community and Rabbi Lookstein himself. Thanks to the hard work of our gabbai, Jay Lunzer, and the overwhelming generosity of the community, the various parts of the Torah have been subscribed to faster than we can offer them. We began by offering books, portions, verses and special sections, and because of the demand, had to further break down the sections into commandments and other paragraphs. The zeal with which people have wanted to participate in the mitzvah of writing a Sefer Torah has set a wonderful example to the children of this community and to other communities as well. We invite you to actually write a letter in the Torah. Rabbi Lasdun, our sofer in New York, will be in the synagogue on Sunday, February 17th from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, and on Monday through Wednesday from 4:00 PM to 8:00 PM, to assist you in writing a letter.

There will be several other opportunities for the community to celebrate with Rabbi Lookstein. On Shabbat, the Rabbi will deliver a 70th birthday sermon in which he is sure to recount the highlights of his 70 years of association with this community (44 years as our rabbi), as well as the years at KJ prior to his birth. If his Yom Kippur sermon was entitled "The State of the Jewish People," then maybe this one will be titled "70 Years of the Jewish People." Following services there will be a birthday Kiddush for the entire community with all of the foods that the Rabbi himself cannot eat (although this is an occasion worthy of cheating).

Saturday night will be the KJ Dinner also in Rabbi Lookstein's honor. Janie Schwalbe and Jay Lunzer, along with a dedicated dinner committee, have been planning and preparing for what will be an elegant, entertaining and fun evening for everyone. The tribute book being compiled by Diane Abrams and Lynette Gruenhut with compositions submitted by you will be distributed at the dinner.

Sunday morning will be the climax of the weekend. Beginning at 10:30 AM, we will finish writing the last few letters of the Torah. Rabbi Lookstein himself will write the last letter, the final lamed that has been purchased by the entire community. The Ramaz Middle School Chorus will sing a few selections, and then, led by the Andy Statman Klezmer Orchestra, we will dance with the Torah, along with all of the other Torahs in the ark, out into the street, and then dance them back to the Main Synagogue to be placed in the ark.

Come to all or come to some. The weekend promises to be a great event for the KJ/Ramaz community. Mazal Tov to Rabbi Lookstein and his family and to us. May we be able to celebrate as a community and as a family for many years to come.

L'HITRAHOT IV THANKSGIVING IN YERUSHALAYIM

Nearly 70 members of the extended KJ community spent November 20-25 on the fourth KJ sponsored mission to show our solidarity with our brethren in Israel. The group, led by Rabbi Joshua Lookstein, wasted no time in fulfilling the 614th commandment: "Thou shall patronize kosher establishments." We visited a mall immediately, dining on Big Macs and Happy Meals before checking into the King David Hotel.

The first morning, after sunrise services at the Kotel (where one of our members received his first aliyah), we were greeted and addressed at breakfast by Mayor Ehud Olmert, who gave us his unique perspective of the current political situation. We then traveled to just south of Lebanon, to a secret army base where we were honored to meet soldiers in the Elite command unit who are the front-line defenders on the northern front against terrorist threats. Members of our group were motivated to leave a donation to support this unit.

Upon returning to Jerusalem, we were treated to a full Thanksgiving dinner with all the trimmings, where we got to enjoy the company of the many Ramaz alumni spending the year in Israel. Dore Gold addressed the group as well.

Friday, after breakfast with Dan Meridor, member of the Cabinet, was a free day, giving the group an opportunity to shop, explore and shop some more. Then we were off to the most wonderful and exciting place to usher in Shabbos, the Kotel. Upon returning for our Friday night dinner, we were enlightened about the wonderful school that Beverly Gribetz, a former Ramaz administrator and parent, is running.

Following Shabbat morning services at the shul of our choice, we were addressed by Ramaz alumni living in Israel. Saturday night we were treated to a tour of the tunnels under the Kotel.

Sunday, our last day in Israel, began with an address by Uzi Landau, Minister of Internal Security and ended with tours of a winery and a munitions factory.

Many thanks to Sandy Eisenstat for the incredible arrangements and accommodations, and to Rabbi Josh for making our trip so enjoyable.

We look forward to and hope that even more people join in the next KJ mission.

PESACH IN YERUSHALAYIM

Join the KJ family for Pesach in Israel. That trip will take place from March 25 - April 4, 2002.

The trip features:

- Round trip non stop El Al flights
- 9 Nights at the Inbal Hotel Jerusalem
- Festive Seder & Chag Lunch on first day, Dinner & Lunch on Shabbat Chol Hamoed, & Dinner & Lunch on Second Chag
- Full Israeli Buffet Breakfast Daily
- Optional touring program in Safed Sunday night and Monday
- Hotel services
- Baggage handling at Ben Gurion Airport and Hotel
- Round trip airport transfers in Israel for group flights

If you are interested and would like more information please call Chani in the synagogue office at 212-774-5654.

INTERMEDIATE SERVICE EVER STRONGER

We encourage all curious thrill-seekers in the congregation to try our most recent Shabbat morning service option: the Intermediate Service. Growing ever stronger since it was introduced in September, the service is designed for congregants of all levels who want to learn more about the davening and the Torah reading while having the amenities of a full synagogue experience.

The most attractive features of the service are: (1) the parsha discussion led by Rabbi Joshua Cypess during the Torah reading — a wonderful option for those who cannot otherwise attend a class during the week; this way one can participate in a full lesson on the parsha; (2) the explanations of the liturgy and synagogue practice that are taught during the service, (3) the opportunity to ask questions at any time, and (4) the big-hearted friendliness that's the touchstone of the Beginners Service, now made more available to a wider audience.

The leaders of the service, Rabbi Joshua Cypess, Dr. Steve Rudolph, Mr. George Rohr, and Rabbi Avraham Kramer, have designed a user-friendly and high-content environment of prayer and learning for the whole synagogue community.

The next Intermediate Services are February 16, March 16, May 25, and June 22. The service is held in the Falk Auditorium of the Gottesman Center and begin at 9:00 am.

NEW FAMILY FRIENDLY FRIDAY NIGHT EXPERIENCE

In response to popular demand, the "Friday Night Experience" — an evening service and Friday night dinner directed for Beginners — is now redirected and restructured to focus on families with young children. In consideration of the synagogue's role as the premier family synagogue in Manhattan, this new family-focus for the Friday Night experience will allow members of the synagogue to interact with families who are on the path of greater Jewish knowledge and observance.

The service, led by Rabbi Joshua Cypess and Rabbi Avi Kramer, begins at 5:30 pm (6:30 in April) and is designed to teach about Shabbat and the special prayers, like the beauty of the Kabbalat Shabbat poetry. After the service, the families will have a catered Foremost meal that features the fellowship and ruach of the truest Shabbat experience.

Even with the family focus, everyone is invited and encouraged to attend!

The next Friday Night Experiences will be February 15, March 8, and April 19. March 8th is "Shabbat Across America" and should be a very well attended event, so make your reservations with the office soon.

HOLIDAY WORKSHOPS

Each workshop offers an overview of the laws and customs related to the historical events that we commemorate each holiday, an analysis of the texts used and honest-to-goodness real explanations of why we do the things we do.

RABBI JOSHUA LOOKSTEIN ELECTED TREASURER OF NY BOARD OF RABBIS

Rabbi Joshua Lookstein was recently elected the Treasurer of the New York Board of Rabbis. This is a very prestigious appointment which represents his ascending the local rabbinic hierarchy in the footsteps of his father and grandfather before him.

KJ's UJA CAMPAIGN KICK-OFF THURSDAY, MARCH 14

The annual Kehilath Jeshurun drive on behalf of UJA-Federation and its campaign 2002 will begin at a cocktail party at the home of Gloria and Richard Kobrin on Thursday evening March 14 at 6:30 PM.

All members of the congregation are encouraged to attend and to pledge their support of UJA-Federation at that time. For further information please call either Robert J. Leifert in the synagogue office, 774-5665 or Bruce Weiser at UJA-Federation headquarters, 836-1844. We ask that you advise one or the other of your intention to attend.

KEHILATH JESHURUN UNVEILS WEBSITE AND JOINS NEW MILLENNIUM

To better serve the community, KJ developed and launched just before Thanksgiving a website that is a big hit among its many computer savvy members. Located on the internet at www.ckj.org, the site is handsomely arranged to present the user with current information about special events, ongoing programs, Shabbat and holiday schedules, classes, and much more. Add it to your list of favorite sites today!

From the attractive home page, users are invited to review our Mission Statement, download our crown jewel brochures (Adult Education, Beginners and Youth), scan the latest monthly calendar of synagogue events or view individual event flyers, confirm Shabbat and service times and catch-up on the latest Shabbat Announcements, print our updated list of Manhattan Kosher establishments, check out our fabulous youth offerings and Beginners Program, read online the latest issue of this bulletin in addition to some very special archived issues, etc. There is even a sampling of links to the incredibly expansive world of other Jewish internet sites.

A companion to our website has been the synagogue's popular e-mail group list, which automatically sends subscribers timely announcements about upcoming events, and, unfortunately, the passing of members of our congregational family. Our member, Jerrold Feingold, has recently devoted considerable time and effort to sprucing-up the look of this terrific medium, and we very much appreciate his commitment. Subscribers appreciate the informative notices, as well as the fact that on average only about four messages are sent every month. Boasting nearly 600 subscribers, the e-mail group list is easy to join; just notify the synagogue office by providing Suzanne@ckj.org with your name and e-mail address, and we'll be happy to add your name to the growing list.

KJ/RAMAZ TO HOST ANNUAL YACHAD SHABBATON FEBRUARY 22-23, 2002

On February 22-23, 2002 Kehilath Jeshurun and Ramaz will be hosting the annual YACHAD shabbaton. YACHAD is responsible for a multitude of programs for developmentally and learning disabled Jewish young adults. These programs allow the YACHAD members to be mainstreamed with young people their own age and give them the opportunity to have a great time. Additionally, it gives their daily caregivers a much needed and well-deserved rest.

Each year the YACHAD shabbaton is a rewarding experience for all of us who participate. It helps us to realize how much these special people have to offer us in our community and the importance of our including them in our activities.

There will be a community wide Seudah Shlishit with the YACHAD members and staff on Shabbat afternoon. Beautiful singing and Divrei Torah from YACHAD members are the highlights of the afternoon. It will be an experience to remember!

If you would like to house a YACHAD member and a staff counselor or would like to help in any other way please contact Ari Segal at 774-5635 as soon as possible.

AM HASEFER BOOK DISCUSSION CLUB WITH THE AUTHOR

ALLAN GERSON, professor at George Washington University and author of The Price of Terror: One Bomb. One Plane. 270 Lives. The History-Making Struggle for Justice After Pan Am 103 will discuss his book on Sunday, February 10, 2001, 8:00 PM at the home of Shlomit and Chaim Edelstein, 1040 Park Ave. (corner 86th Street). Moderator: Dr. Mark Meiowitz.

HIGHEST ACADEMIC HONORS NAMED IN HONOR OF RENEE MARGARETEN BERGER

Renee Margareten Berger is the daughter of the late Mary and Fred Margareten who were longtime members of our congregation. Fred Margareten served as President of the Congregation in the 1930's. Renee herself was in the first graduating class of the Ramaz School which numbered four boys and Renee.

In honor of her 50th wedding anniversary, an award named in honor of Renee will be presented to the graduating senior whose Judaic studies average is the highest in the class. On a previous occasion, in honor of Renee's 70th birthday, her husband Judge Harold Berger named the award for the highest achievement in general studies in her honor.

He has now endowed this new award as well.

The Ramaz School family is proud of the fact that somebody who was brought up in our community and who attended the Ramaz elementary school and was graduated from it (there was no high school in 1943) has been honored by her husband twice by endowing these prestigious academic awards in her honor.

MORE CHESED... LOTS MORE CHESED!

The various divisions of the Chesed committee have been quite productive in their efforts:

DOROT

As Doris Travis, KJ coordinator for Dorot, reports "Dorot has succeeded and is now offering a range of services to East Side seniors and volunteers."

KJ hosted Dorot's East Side gift package delivery during a holiday. In addition KJ sponsored the "Welcoming Shabbat" program, which is part of their University without walls teleconference class.

We at KJ were supporting the program financially via our Simcha Sharing Fund. Unfortunately the Simcha Sharing Fund has been disbanded. This is devastating to a program like this when there is a waiting list of people to receive kosher meals. If you would like to make a special financial gift in support of the program please get in touch with Doris Travis at (212) 755-5376.

SIMCHA SHARING FUND (SSF)

Endorsed by the Board of Trustees more than ten years ago, the SSF has disbursed in excess of $70,000 to Jewish organizations in NYC providing kosher luncheons and food services to people in need. Major recipients of our congregation's generosity are the Metropolitan Coordinating Council of Jewish Poverty, Dorot, The Joint Passover Appeal of The Jewish Board of Family and Children's Services, Project O.R.E. of The Educational Alliance.

This year the SSF was able to collect $8000, which will go to the various organizations on behalf of KJ. Unfortunately, for a variety of reasons the Simcha Sharing Fund is no longer in effect. I would like to thank Doris Travis and Alice Smokler for the humble and much appreciated time and effort they took to organize this fund.

MITZVAH TOY FUND

This is a special division of Chesed because it integrates the KJ and Ramaz families. Eve Attias, the director of this division, cheerfully reports the continued success with the Toy Fund. When a child receives his/her birthday gifts, the child donates at least one of the gifts to the Toy Fund that is then donated to a charity of that month. This is no small task that Eve undertakes. She greatly appreciates assistance by all the Mothers and/or Fathers in the lower and middle schools.

PROJECT EZRA FOOD DRIVE

As usual we had quite a success for the Kol Nidre Food Drive. Under the new direction of Dede Alpert, this past year we extended the length of time for donations, which directly contributed to its success. We thank all KJ members for their contributions and we look forward to the Pesach Food Drive.

CLOTHING DRIVE

This has become something that a lot of members look forward to during the year. Not only does it provide an outlet for our gently used clothing but the satisfaction that it is going to a good cause. The KJ Clothing Drives are benefiting an impoverished orthodox Jewish community in Williamsburg, B'klyn. It is distributed by Yeshivah Arugath Habosem. Our clothing drives have become so immense in quantity that we can share our donations. We welcome suggestions for donations to other communities.

Our success is based on your support. We thank you and look forward to another year of growth along with new members. For all of you wishing to be a part of our programs please contact Sari Rosenberg at 354-2525 x248.

KJ CAREER NETWORK

Under the leadership of our members, Jerry Gruenhut and Eugene Major, the KJ Career Network has been established. With so many more people than usual facing unemployment at this time, the feeling is that the KJ family can be helpful to one another in making opportunities known to those who need jobs and those who are hiring.

The Network will focus on three things:

(1) JOB SEARCH. Someone who is looking for a new position will be able to advertise the fact and outline their skills and experience in a paragraph. Resumes will be available upon request.

(2) JOB OPENINGS. Someone who is looking to fill a position, or someone who knows of an open position can advertise that fact and solicit submissions from suitably experienced and talented individuals from within the KJ community.

(3) CAREER ASSISTANCE. Participants will be able to pose business related questions to the KJ Career Network community, such as "does anyone have any contacts in the _____ area;" or "does anyone have any experience with _____;" or "can anyone suggest . . ."

If you wish to participate in this meaningful community venture, contact the chairpeople, Jerry Gruenhut (J_Gruenhut@yahoo.com) or Eugene Major (Eugene@dunbarcapital.com).

BIKUR CHOLIM MISSION EXPANDS

For over 25 years, dedicated KJ members have been making Shabbat visits to patients at Memorial-Sloan Kettering Hospital. This Bikur Cholim enriches the lives of patients and brings equal joy to the volunteers, who (under the watchful eyes of Sue Robins and Harry Kleinhaus) have not missed a Shabbat since the program's inception.

Now the Bikur Cholim program is expanding to provide new services within and beyond the KJ community. New initiatives include visits to homebound shul and community members, as well as to congregants who are admitted to Manhattan hospitals. In addition, we hope to have enough volunteers to expand our Shabbat visitation program to Beth Israel North (Doctor's Hospital). A team of new volunteers has joined the Bikur Cholim effort to develop and implement these new initiatives.

The newly expanded program was introduced to the congregation this past December at the first "Bikur Cholim Open-House," staged in conjunction with the KJ Mitzvah Mall. Bikur Cholim leaders were present throughout the day to answer questions about the program and give congregants the information and tools they need to comfortably join our growing family of volunteers.

The "Open-House" resulted in additional volunteers for each of our current Bikur Cholim initiatives: Shabbat visits to Memorial-Sloan Kettering Hospital; visits to KJ members in Manhattan hospitals, and visits to the homes of KJ and community members who are sick or confined. The response was encouraging, as the program's sustenance and growth depends on the participation of member volunteers. More volunteers are needed to continue to meet our commitment to Memorial-Sloan Kettering Hospital and to enable expansion to other area hospitals.

If you are sick at home or admitted to a New York hospital and would like a cheerful visit from a fellow congregant, please call the shul office and let us know. To volunteer for any of our programs and join in the mitzvah of Bikur Cholim, please contact Alisa Glasberg at 212-585-0907 or at ScotBG@Juno.com.

SHLOMO CARLEBACH SHABBAT

Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun

Rabbi Shlomo Carlebach was the leading personality in the revival of Jewish music during the last third of the 20th century. He gave it a vibrant and dynamic sense of spirituality, made it very popular and inspired many others to do the same.

KJ "COLLEGE CONNECTION" SCORES AT CHANUKAH!

85 young adults from the congregational family who attend university received beautiful menorahs and Chanukah gifts, courtesy of our new College Connection program. The positive, warm response from the students was overwhelming. Many delighted that the Congregation remembered them even though they are not active worshippers here at this time.

Many thanks to the program's Chairs, Abe Esses and Harry Kleinhaus, who, along with the help of Shlomit Edelstein and Bob Kurzweil, did an incredible job of locating so many students attending out-of-town institutions. With an eye towards sending each registered student a welcome Purim gift in February, please verify that College Connection has your child's school contact information. Thus, if you are the parent of a KJ student, please send the child's (i) name, (ii) e-mail address, (iii) dormitory mailing address, and (iv) campus package delivery address, if different from (iii), above, to Abe Esses at LJRT@aol.com, or at (212) 679-6010.

KESHER

Kesher is the not-so-new name of the Couples Club, whose name was changed in order to be as inclusive as possible. Kesher means connection, reflecting Kesher's primary function to serve as the connection, the starting point, the bridge, to the congregation. It affords members new and old to meet and mingle in a relaxed social setting thereby helping make members feel welcome and fostering a commitment to, and sense of community with, the KJ family.

This year Kesher is taking on a major chesed project in addition to its regular panoply of programs and events. In an effort to ease the strain of parenthood, Kesher provided the first Shabbat dinner for over a dozen parents of new babies in the community. Many of us know first hand the pressure involved with a new baby in the house, and this initiative is aimed to make that first Shabbat home as hassle free as possible. Please call the shul to let us know if you or your KJ friends are celebrating a new birth in the family.

Our three events have been a sold out success. On Shemini Atzeret Kesher held its kick-off kiddush on the roof; our first ever Friday night dinner hosted over 250 adults and children for Shabbat dinner and fun; and the Kesher Melave Malka on January 26th was an exciting night of dancing and singing for all who joined us. Information about future Kesher events will be sent out soon.

JEWISH NATIONAL FUND OF GREATER NEW YORK
IS ISSUING A CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS
FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2002

Green Sunday is a daylong phone-a-thon held to support Jewish National Fund's vital land development and water projects in Israel. This year, Green Sunday will be held on Sunday, February 10, 2002 at Lincoln Square Synagogue, 200 Amsterdam Avenue in Manhattan. The 2002 Green Sunday is dedicated to helping Israel with its most precious resource, water. Israel must now decide how not only to cut consumption despite an increase in population, but also how to share water with her neighbors. The daunting task has fallen to the Jewish National Fund. One hundred percent of the net proceeds from this year's Green Sunday will go toward Israel's water projects. Over 160 volunteers are anticipated in the four calling shifts throughout the day starting at 9:30 AM and ending 6:00 PM. It is a wonderful and rewarding way to spend a few hours on a Sunday. All participants will receive training, refreshments and prizes.

Please contact Susan Yellin at (212) 879-9400, Ext. 501 or Email: syellin@inf.org for more information

RABBI AHARON LICHTENSTEIN TO BE HONORED
AT ETZION FOUNDATION DINNER
MARCH 13, 2002
AT THE GRAND HYATT

We are happy to announce to our community that Rav Aharon Lichtenstein will be the guest of honor at the Annual Etzion Foundation Dinner which will be held this year on Wednesday, March 13, at the Grand Hyatt.

The occasion for honoring Rav Lichtenstein is the beginning of his fourth decade as Rosh Yeshiva at Yeshivat Har Etzion. The impact that Rav Lichtenstein has had upon students from our community and on the world of Torah in general, and modern Orthodoxy in particular, cannot be adequately measured. He is one of the great figures of this generation, following faithfully in the path of his illustrious father-in-law, Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik, of blessed memory.

It is important that members and leaders of this congregation participate in this tribute. He means so much to us and to KJ and Ramaz. We have to demonstrate our recognition of that in the most tangible way possible. Please call Rabbi Haskel Lookstein or Rabbi Joshua Lookstein to let us know if you would like to attend the dinner and, if not, whether you would be prepared to make a contribution in honor of Rav Lichtenstein

YOUR LEGACY

DID YOU KNOW that you can provide a lasting benefit to KJ and achieve estate tax savings by leaving a legacy to KJ under your Will? IRAs and retirement plan benefits may also be left to the Synagogue on a tax-advantaged basis. The Synagogue Office will be happy to assist you or your attorney in developing the proper language for your gift. Please contact Lenny Silverman at 774- 5680.

DOROT EXPANDS TO THE EAST SIDE

After many years of research, including an approach to KJ, a number of years ago, Dorot has succeeded and is now offering a range of services to East Side seniors and volunteers. We are excited to be part of Dorot's expansion. Doris Travis is KJ's coordinator with Dorot.

A multi-service, not-for-profit agency, Dorot provides friendship, food, recreation and cultural enrichment for older adults. Last Chanukah, KJ was the site for Dorot's gift package delivery. Recently we assisted them by identifying seniors to participate in their program of cemetery visits conducted once a year to enable people who otherwise would be unable to visit the graves of their loved ones. Volunteers are in attendance and care services are provided. KJ sponsored the "Welcome Shabbat" part of Dorot's University Without Walls teleconference classes. Rabbis Joshua Lookstein and Joshua Cypess, together with Ramaz youngsters, created joyful Shabbat programs each Friday last January.

Expanding a full range of services to the East Side is very costly. Currently, Dorot is providing some kosher meals within our community. But this is not enough to support a kosher food program for which there is a waiting list. If you would like to make a special financial gift in support of the program, please get in touch with Doris Travis at (212) 755-5376.

COMMUNAL HONORS

We are delighted to congratulate our members, Lynn and Wolf Scheck, Marilyn and Greg Adler, and Naomi and Dr. Abraham Sinnreich, all of whom were honored at the annual dinner of our sister congregation, Orach Chaim on Sunday, January 13, at the Plaza Hotel.

Congratulations to Jennifer V. Roth, a Senior Vice President at Sotheby's New York, who was recently honored by Re'uth at their Annual Dinner on December 11 at the Pierre. Re'uth cares for the elderly and the chronically ill of all ages in Israel.

PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENT

Congratulations to Charlotte Rechtschaffen who was recently named Director of Public Relations for Yves Saint Laurent.

GOLDIE ROSENBERG DIES

The congregational family was saddened by the loss of the wife of our former Ritual Director of thirty-six years, Israel D. Rosenberg.

Mrs. Rosenberg was a beloved member of this community and she and her husband raised their four children to be exemplary Jews.

We extend our heartfelt condolences to her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

In Memoriam

PHILIP JADEK

For many months last year we prayed for his recovery from illness and we thought our prayers were answered. But suddenly, this fall, he fell victim within a week to viral pneumonia.

Philip Jadek was a member of our congregation for almost fifty years. He was beloved by everyone who knew him here and by all of his friends and fellow congregants in the Young Israel of Hollywood, Florida where he spent much of the year. A survivor of the Holocaust, he was bright, resourceful, pious, wise and generous. He had a quick wit and a very optimistic attitude on life.

He and his wife, Julia, tibadeil l'chaim tovim, brought up their daughter Rochelle here and in Ramaz and took great pride in her wonderful family in Hollywood. They worked together throughout a wonderful married life and they earned the love and respect of two communities.

On his gravestone which covers his burial place in Israel there appear the words, in Hebrew, "Ephraim was very precious to us... We will remember him forever." That is our affirmation as well, as we offer heartfelt condolences to Julia and the family.

ARTHUR STEIN-KOHLER

He was an elegant man whose business was fashion and whose life was filled with beauty and exquisite esthetic taste. Arthur came to this country as a refugee from Germany, after Kristallnacht, at a very young age. He grew up in poverty and achieved great success in the business world. His particular passion was music and he prided himself on having been a Torah reader and amateur cantor at an early age.

He and his wife, Maxine, enjoyed a very wide circle of friends and relished the years of love and happiness that they had together.

Right up to the end, he had flowing white hair on a head that was filled with intellectual ideas and a love of Judaism and the Jewish people.

BELLA WEXNER

The KJ community lost a very precious, Jewish woman who was a grande dame in her family, in her business and in her charitable endeavors. Bella Wexner, together with her late husband, founded The Limited which grew into a giant retail business. She was a leading figure in the Columbus community in general and in the Jewish community there in particular. She was extraordinarily proud of her Jewish heritage and lived it consistently even in a largely gentile society.

Mrs. Wexner used her extraordinary business acumen to plan her charitable endeavors. Most recently, she established the Wexner Kollel Elyon at the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary of Yeshiva University in which the best young graduates are given special training to prepare them for leadership in the rabbinic community. Her good works will live on after her.

We extend our heartfelt condolences to our member, her devoted daughter, Susan Wexner, whose loyalty, respect and reverence for her mother was manifested throughout her life but, particularly, in the most exceptional manner, during the last eleven months of illness. May she be rewarded by God with health and long life.
