FESTIVAL ART SERIES

Imagine the New Year: Creating Books & Capturing Stories

FESTIVAL ART SERIES with Visiting Artist Joanne Steinhardt

Join Joanne and learn the techniques of creating both folded and sewn books—from miniatures to large—and as we explore creative methods for filling the pages with our intentions, memories, and even recipes for the New Year. The session includes orientation to the materials and techniques plus the things you'll need to continue to fill your unique and memorable pieces with your stories. Come celebrate and learn with us—even if you do not want to do the art join us to tell stories and share! All women are welcome.

Joanne Steinhardt has more than 20 years experience teaching, mentoring, and advising focused on the intersection of art and technology, creative thinking, visual literacy, and collaborative technique. She currently is a full-time working artist focused in sculptural bookbinding with a passion for material. Joanne's work challenges a viewers definition of the book and encourages collaborative storytelling. She holds a Masters of Fine Arts from Maine College of Art, and a Bachelor of Science from the Rochester Institute of Technology School of Photographic Arts and Sciences. She is based in the Metro New York area. JoanneSteinhardt.com
