WELCOME SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE RABBI DR. ARI LAMM

Rabbi Dr. Ari Lamm is the Chief Executive of BZ Media, producing great Israel and Jewish content for mainstream Gen Z audiences and beyond. BZ Media partners with the biggest content creators on social media (non-Jewish, as well as Jewish), producing the Webby-nominated series "How To: Never Forget" with Montana Tucker; creating the Rova Media social media channel with influencer Nate Buzz, which has reached over 50 million views in just a few weeks; and much more. Rabbi Lamm is personally deeply passionate about using digital media to bring great Jewish ideas to the wider English-speaking public. He hosts the top-ranked podcast on the Bible and society, Good Faith Effort, and his popular Twitter threads on "Why Read the Bible in Hebrew?" have reached millions, and been covered by major international news outlets. For his leadership in the world of Jewish ideas, The Jerusalem Post recently ranked him #37 on its list of the world's 50 Most Influential Jews. Rabbi Lamm earned his rabbinical ordination from Yeshiva University's Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary, and his PhD in Religion from Princeton University. His writings have appeared in the Wall Street Journal, Newsweek, Tablet Magazine, SAPIR Journal and The Jerusalem Post.
