Congregation Shomrei Emunah

Founded in 1971 under the leadership of Rabbi Benjamin Bak zt"l, Shomrei Emunah is an Orthodox synagogue that has grown from an initial membership of 13 families to more than 500 member families today. Rabbi Dr. Tzvi Weinreb, succeeded Rabbi Bak and served the congregation for 13 years. Rabbi Dovid Gottlieb served as Rabbi from 2003 - 2009.

In 2010, Rabbi Binyamin Marwick was appointed Rabbi of the congregation. His passion, commitment to the community, and scholarly background are hallmarks of the congregation as a whole.

Shomrei Emunah is a full service synagogue and a vibrant Jewish center in the Greenspring/Cheswolde area. It maintains a complete schedule of religious services, a comprehensive adult education program, a full youth program incorporating internationally acclaimed presentations for teens, as well as an active Israel Task Force. Shomrei Emunah is proud to call Eli our Sister City. Eli is located at the center of Israel, a forty minute drive from Gush Dan and thirty minutes away from Jerusalem.

As a diverse and inclusive synagogue with a heterogeneous blend of background and ideologies across the Orthodox spectrum, the congregation feels a strong commitment to outreach programming for the larger Baltimore Jewish community.

This, and more, is executed to perfection by our dedicated Gabboim. Our Gabboim work tirelessly on behalf of the shul—and they do their job so well that, to a casual observer, it looks like everything happens by itself.

Tonight, we are honoring three Gabboim and their spouses, who have worked with dedication, for decades, supporting and maintaining order in the shul. Being a Gabbai in a shul with seven daily shacharis minyanim, four Shabbos minyanim, and multiple mincha/maariv and maariv minyanim—is a full time job. Alan and Tova, David and Renee, Myron and Miriam dedicate themselves with love and care, and real thoughtfulness—and for that we are all deeply grateful. It is our privilege to honor them with the Shul Service Award.

In addition to minyanim, a shul's social dimension is extremely important. Chazal refer to a shul as a beis knesses—literally a place of gathering—because the relationships and camaraderie are so essential. The “8:45 Minyan” or “Dveykus Minyan” Kiddush which brings everyone together after davening for singing, divrei Torah and cholent—is a wonderful component of our shul. Since the early days of this minyan, Ari Moskovitz has been the dedicated volunteer who makes the cholent and organizes the kiddush. Many lasting friendships have been inspired by Ari's tasty cholent. It is our privilege to honor Ari and Hinda with the Young Leadership Award.

The great Sage Hillel said, “If I am just for myself what am I?”

One unique aspect of our shul is that we spend a lot of our resources focused on others, in our own community and in Israel. Israel is our Homeland, and we must do whatever we can to maintain that connection. Our Israel committee has brought us amazing speakers from Israel, and has connected us to wonderful organizations like JobKatif, the One Israel Fund, and Talmud Torah Hadar Yosef in our sister community of Eli. Through the dedication of Mike and Layne, and Binyomin and Leeba, we stay connected in a very real way to the people and the Land of Israel. It is our privilege to honor them tonight with the “Bonei Zion” Award.

Tonight, we thank all the honorees for their devotion and commitment, and everything they have done—and continue to do—to make Shomrei such a warm, welcoming and inspiring Makom Torah, Tefilla and chessed. We also encourage everyone else here to think about the impact you can have on those around you...to consider what you can do to enhance our Mikdash Me’at.

In addition, I want to thank our President, Eli Robbins, and his dedicated executive Board and the entire Board of Directors, for all their hard work on behalf of the shul. They truly put their hearts and souls into the shul. And thank you also to the Event Chairs—Yael and Elliot Schwarzenberger and Chaim and Rikki Ambinder—and the journal chairs, Boruch and Chanie Bernstein, for their tremendous efforts in planning the beautiful event we are now enjoying.

וכל מי שעוסקים בצרכי צבור באמונה
הקדוש ברוך הוא ישלם שכרם

Thank you for your dedication and hard work, and we daven for your continued good health, happiness and success!

Finally, thank you to all who have come here tonight to pay tribute to these exceptional couples and to show your support for our wonderful Shul!

May we, as a Shul, go together mechayil el chayil, from strength to strength!

Enjoy the evening.

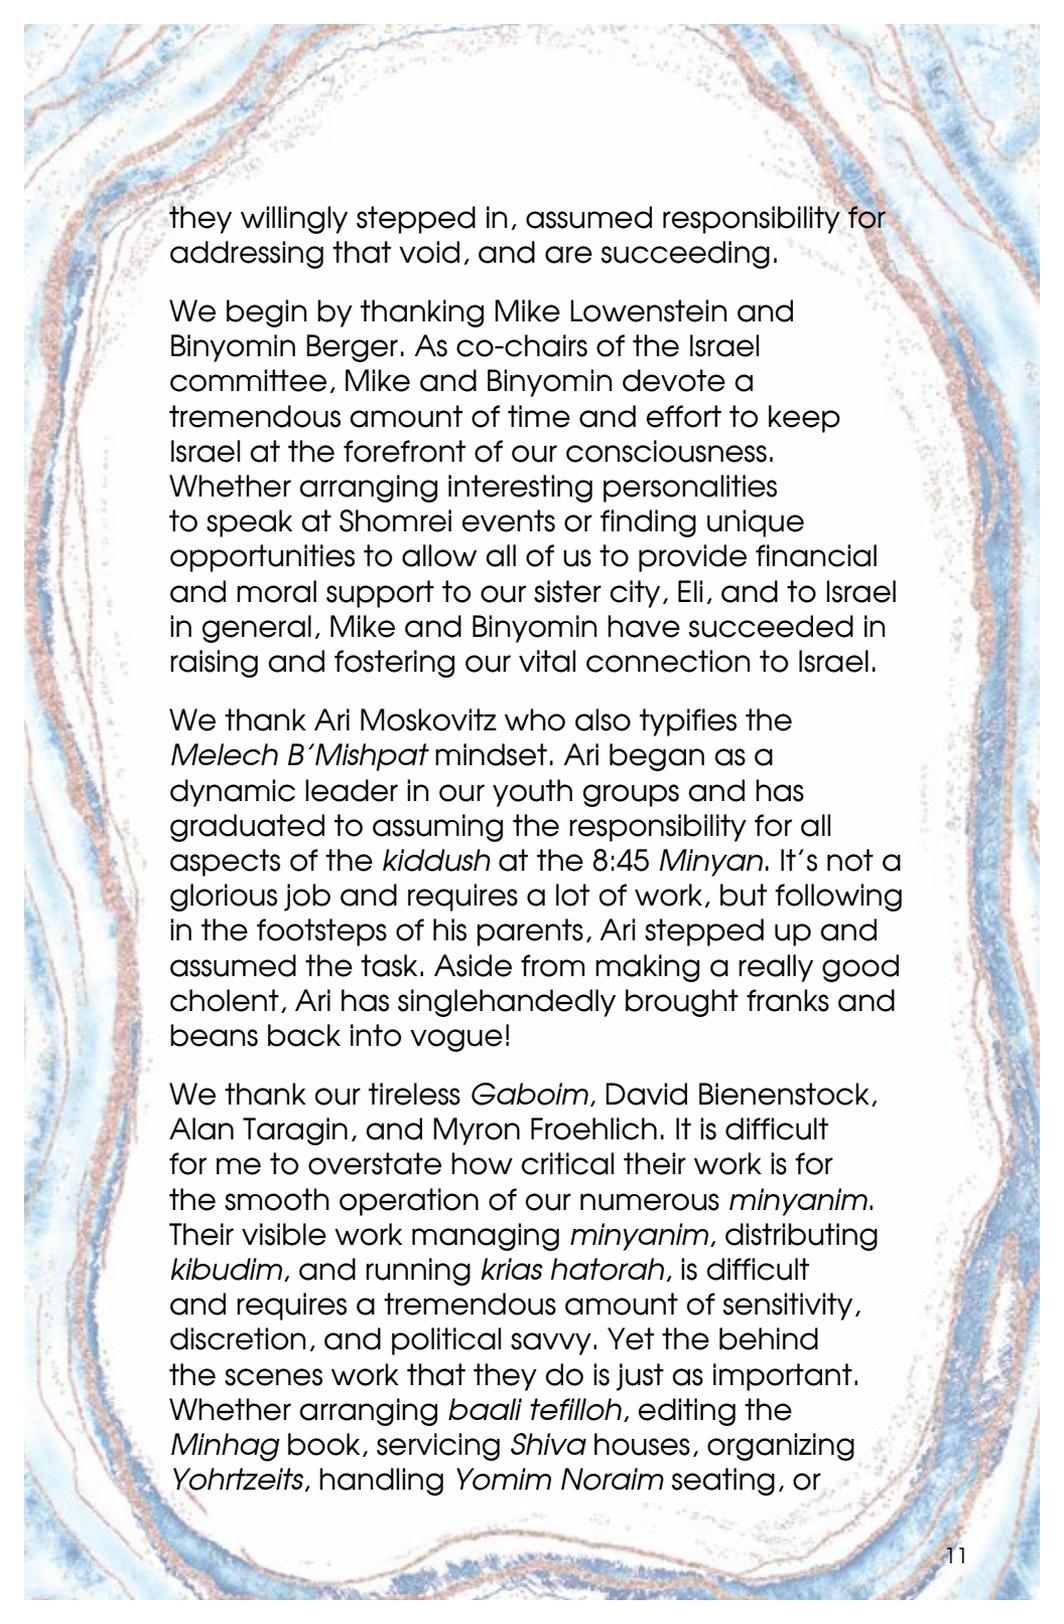

Letter from the President

Dear Shomrei Family,

How fitting is it that our annual Evening of Appreciation is being held on the Motzai Shabbos that is bookended by Parshios Mishpatim and Terumah? In commenting on the first pasuk of Parshas Mishpatim, the Medrash quotes the pasuk in Mishlei: "Melech B'Mishpat Yaamid Aretz, V'Ish Terumos Yeharsehna." A king establishes the land through justice, but the man of Terumos will destroy it. Who is the man of Terumos? The Metzudas Tzion explains that the man of Terumos is the person who separates himself like Terumah, which is separated from the rest of the crop. Terumah is holy. How does the man of Terumos destroy the land?

Parshas Mishpatim deals with laws, practical issues faced by real people in everyday life, the down and sometimes dirty aspects of society. Terumah, on the other hand, is separated from the Chulin, the mundane, and is elevated in its holiness. Only Kohanim can eat Terumah, and only under certain specific conditions. Rabbi Frand suggests that the Medrash is telling us that the key to establishing and maintaining the land, a thing of significance and importance, is to become involved with it, Mishpat. To do what needs to be done, even if the need is not apparent and the task is neither glorious nor even recognized. When one separates one's self, becomes an Ish Terumos, and adopts the attitude of "others will take care of it, this is not for me..." destruction is bound to ensue.

A theme common to all the honorees tonight is that each of them exemplifies the "will-do" attitude represented by the Melech B'Mishpat. They all saw a void to be filled and did not sit idly by and wait for someone else to take care of it. Rather, they willingly stepped in, assumed responsibility for addressing that void, and are succeeding.

We begin by thanking Mike Lowenstein and Binyomin Berger. As co-chairs of the Israel committee, Mike and Binyomin devote a tremendous amount of time and effort to keep Israel at the forefront of our consciousness. Whether arranging interesting personalities to speak at Shomrei events or finding unique opportunities to allow all of us to provide financial and moral support to our sister city, Eli, and to Israel in general, Mike and Binyomin have succeeded in raising and fostering our vital connection to Israel.

We thank Ari Moskovitz who also typifies the Melech B'Mishpat mindset. Ari began as a dynamic leader in our youth groups and has graduated to assuming the responsibility for all aspects of the kiddush at the 8:45 Minyan. It's not a glorious job and requires a lot of work, but following in the footsteps of his parents, Ari stepped up and assumed the task. Aside from making a really good cholent, Ari has singlehandedly brought franks and beans back into vogue!

We thank our tireless Gaboim, David Bienenstock, Alan Taragin, and Myron Froehlich. It is difficult for me to overstate how critical their work is for the smooth operation of our numerous minyanim. Their visible work managing minyanim, distributing kibudim, and running krias hatorah, is difficult and requires a tremendous amount of sensitivity, discretion, and political savvy. Yet the behind the scenes work that they do is just as important. Whether arranging baali tefillah, editing the Minhag book, servicing Shiva houses, organizing Yohrtzeits, handling Yomim Noraim seating, or recording pledges and aliyos, a gabbei's job never seems to end. And yet, David, Alan, and Myron perform their duties, day after day, week after week, year after year, cheerfully, with a level of dedication and commitment that is enviable.

Finally, tonight we honor the wives: Layne Lowenstein, Leeba Berger, Hinda Moskovitz, Renee Bienenstock, Tova Taragin, and Miriam Froehlich. We thank them for serving as partners in their husbands' work, for supporting their husbands, for giving up valuable "us" time so that they can do their important work, and for the ideas and perspectives they provide to their husbands which enable them to excel.

The beautiful evening that you are enjoying tonight would not be possible without the unbelievable efforts invested by the dedicated and tireless individuals who comprise the event committee. Although I joined the Shomrei board nine years ago, I was never really involved in preparing for our annual Evening of Appreciation, and did not really understand or appreciate all the hard work that goes into making our Evening of Appreciation a success. Thankfully, our committee is comprised of individuals who have been down this road before and knew what to do. Our event chairs, Chaim and Rikki Ambinder and Elliot and Yael Schwarzenberger, have been amazing. As former honorees and committee members, they have seen both sides of the Evening of Appreciation machine, and their experiences, ideas, knowledge, and organizational skills have been indispensable. I must also recognize the dedication and efforts of Kenny Friedman, Itzi Barr, Inbal Elman, Shira Glickman, Avi Zuckerbrod, Ezri Klein, Donna Wach, Ken Gelula, Samantha Ambinder, Michael and Ziporah Neuman, Sandy Guttenberg, and Shoshi Stein who have all worked relentlessly on the myriad of items that combine to making tonight's event a success. Thank you all so much for taking the bull by the horns pulling off our Evening of Appreciation. I most certainly could not have done this without your help!

Thank you to Boruch and Chanie Bernstein who were drafted to be this year's Journal chairs. This impressive and well-written Journal could not have happened without you. It certainly is a benefit to have a lawyer proof-read all the text and send out e-mails and reminders that deadlines are fast approaching! Thank you for answering the call and for doing such an amazing job!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Rabbi Marwick for his steady guidance and advice throughout the planning for this event as well as throughout the year. His clear perspective based firmly in Halacha has been indispensable to me as President. We are fortunate that Rabbi Marwick is our leader, and I know that you join me in thanking him and wishing him continued success in all his endeavors.

Finally, I would like to thank all of you for joining us as we pay tribute to tonight's honorees and for making Shomrei's Evening of Appreciation a smashing success.

Eli Robbins

Letter from the Chairs

Dear Shomrei Family and Friends,

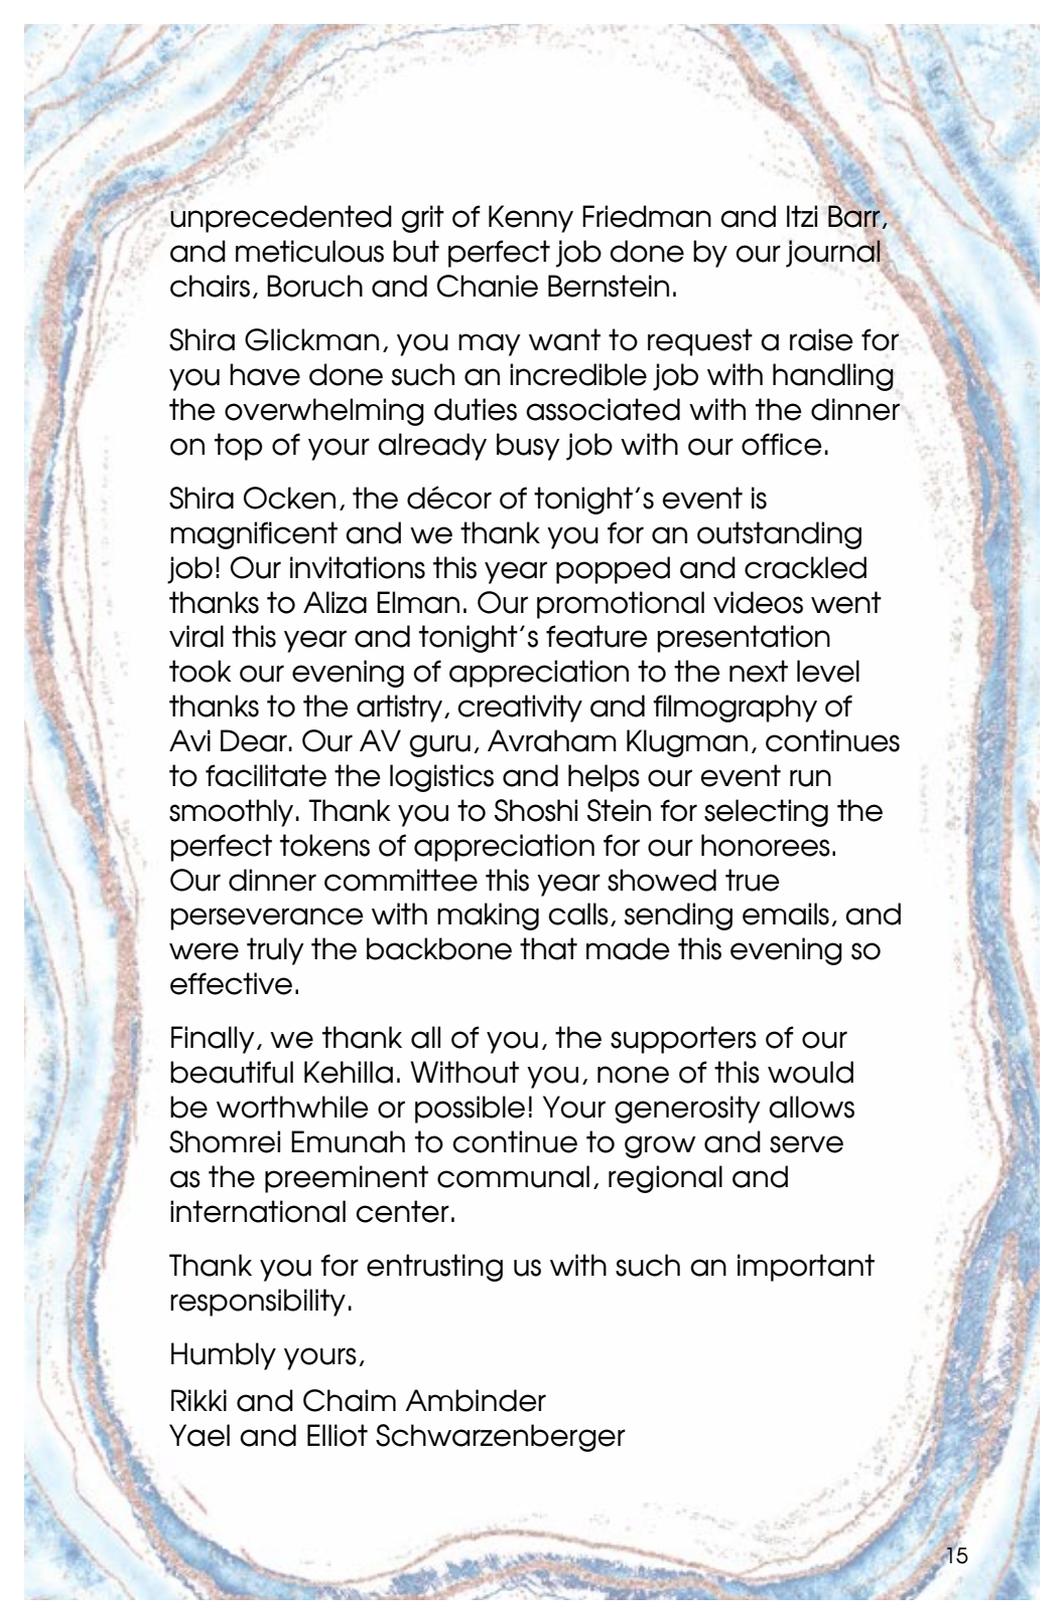

We are so happy you can join us at our annual Evening of Appreciation. Tonight we gather to honor some of our finest and most deserving members. Each has given tirelessly to our Kehilla and sets an example for each of us to follow.

To our Bonei Tzion Award Honorees, Binyomin and Leeba Berger and Mike and Layne Lowenstein. In your combined seven decades of Shomrei life and service you have taken the lead on so many essential tasks on behalf of our community. Your leadership and dedication within the Israel Committee continues to exceed expectations and forges the critical bond that we have with the state of Israel and our people.

To our Young Leadership Award honorees, Ari and Hinda Moskovitz. In just a few short years you have made yourselves so indispensable to the 8:45 Minyan and the Shomrei community at large. We are so honored to serve the shul side by side with your family and look forward to continued camaraderie. Ari's specialty herring, and Chulent with beans gives traditional Baltimore turkey salad a run for its money!

Finally, our shul could not function, prosper or thrive without the blood, sweat, and kishkes that our Shul Service Award honorees bequeath to our privileged Kehilla on a daily basis. David and Renee Bienenstock, Alan and Tova Taragin, and Myron and Miriam Froehlich, we are so fortunate to chair this year's evening of appreciation which highlights your tremendous role in our Shul.

It truly takes a village to make this evening such a phenomenal success. The secret sauce is a perfect blend of Rabbi Marwick's fabulous guidance, our new president, Eli Robbins' unswerving support, the unprecedented grit of Kenny Friedman and Itzi Barr, and meticulous but perfect job done by our journal chairs, Boruch and Chanie Bernstein.

Shira Glickman, you may want to request a raise for you have done such an incredible job with handling the overwhelming duties associated with the dinner on top of your already busy job with our office.

Shira Ocken, the décor of tonight's event is magnificent and we thank you for an outstanding job! Our invitations this year popped and crackled thanks to Aliza Elman. Our promotional videos went viral this year and tonight's feature presentation took our evening of appreciation to the next level thanks to the artistry, creativity and filmography of Avi Dear. Our AV guru, Avraham Klugman, continues to facilitate the logistics and helps our event run smoothly. Thank you to Shoshi Stein for selecting the perfect tokens of appreciation for our honorees. Our dinner committee this year showed true perseverance with making calls, sending emails, and were truly the backbone that made this evening so effective.

Finally, we thank all of you, the supporters of our beautiful Kehilla. Without you, none of this would be worthwhile or possible! Your generosity allows Shomrei Emunah to continue to grow and serve as the preeminent communal, regional and international center.

Thank you for entrusting us with such an important responsibility.

Humbly yours,

Rikki and Chaim Ambinder
Yael and Elliot Schwarzenberger

Dear Layne and Mike and Leeba and Binyomin:

Just as Hashem has blessed us with your incomparable friendship and devotion, may He bestow upon you and your families boundless blessings, commensurate with the love you have showered upon your exemplary community, as well as for the marginalized communities in Israel.

No two families could be more deserving of this special honor. The Baltimore community has chosen wisely.

Your passionate support, love, commitment and generosity will never be forgotten.

Israeli society has been immeasurably enhanced, because of you and the Shomrei Emunah community, whom we warmly embrace as our friends and family.

With Torah blessings,

Yosef Zvi Rimon
Founder & Chairman
La'Ofek (formerly JobKatif) and Sulamot

The Honorees

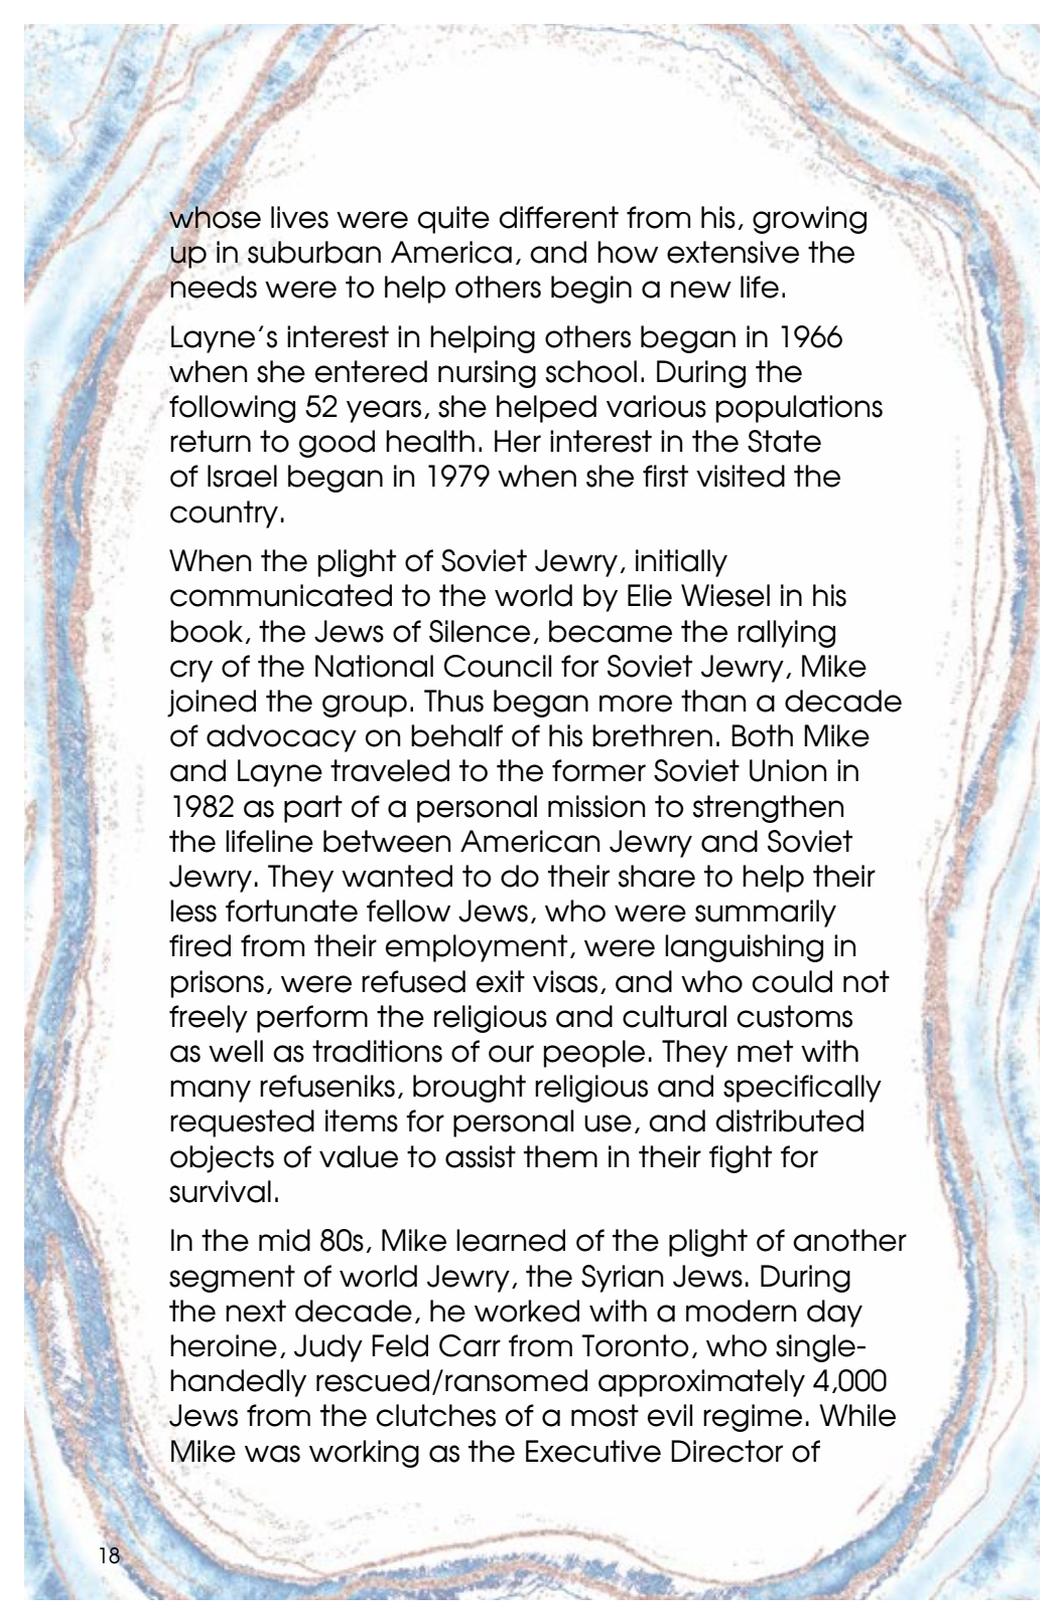

Mike & Layne Lowenstein

BONEI TZION AWARD

Layne and Mike, both native Baltimoreans, moved into the Smith/Greenspring area in December 1971 and immediately joined Shomrei Emunah, seven months after the shul had been established. In fact, it was only two months later, that the shul moved into their basement and remained there until the first building was purchased. Thus began a loving relationship. Layne worked on a number of committees and helped form the Sisterhood, where she served as co-chairman with Ellen Lightman. Mike also got involved and became the shul's third president, returning to that position 22 years later.

Mike's interest in helping others was nurtured in his home as he listened to his parents talk about their interrupted youth in Germany during the 1930s. His first direct encounter with Jews from other lands took place in 1959-60 when he spent a year in Israel. During that post high school year, he volunteered to spend 3 weeks in a Tunisian immigrant village, organizing after school activities for the children. He quickly learned about Jews whose lives were quite different from his, growing up in suburban America, and how extensive the needs were to help others begin a new life.

Layne's interest in helping others began in 1966 when she entered nursing school. During the following 52 years, she helped various populations return to good health. Her interest in the State of Israel began in 1979 when she first visited the country.

When the plight of Soviet Jewry, initially communicated to the world by Elie Wiesel in his book, The Jews of Silence, became the rallying cry of the National Council for Soviet Jewry, Mike joined the group. Thus began more than a decade of advocacy on behalf of his brethren. Both Mike and Layne traveled to the former Soviet Union in 1982 as part of a personal mission to strengthen the lifeline between American Jewry and Soviet Jewry. They wanted to do their share to help their less fortunate fellow Jews, who were summarily fired from their employment, were languishing in prisons, were refused exit visas, and who could not freely perform the religious and cultural customs as well as traditions of our people. They met with many refuseniks, brought religious and specifically requested items for personal use, and distributed objects of value to assist them in their fight for survival.

In the mid 80s, Mike learned of the plight of another segment of world Jewry, the Syrian Jews. During the next decade, he worked with a modern day heroine, Judy Feld Carr from Toronto, who single-handedly rescued/ransomed approximately 4,000 Jews from the clutches of a most evil regime. While Mike was working as the Executive Director of Beth Tfiloh, he was able to raise funds in the United States, which were forwarded to Canada, where they were used primarily as ransom money. As of the mid 90s, fewer than 200 Jews remained in Syria.

In 2000, Layne became involved with raising awareness and raising funds within the Shomrei community when she joined Jordan Wiener in the newly formed Israel Committee. Together, with the significant support of the Shomrei membership, they assisted numerous organizations and individuals throughout Israel.

In 2002, Mike and Layne volunteered in Sar-El (Volunteers for Israel), spending three weeks on an Army base, working alongside the soldiers in whatever capacity they were needed. It was such a meaningful experience that they did it again in 2010 and 2015.

Shortly after Shomrei started a sister community relationship with Eli in the Shomron, Layne and Mike visited the yishuv, formed a strong bond with Eliana Passentin, Deputy Director of Talmud Torah Hadar Yosef, and began raising funds for the Big Brother Program and vests for the volunteer security force.

Following the Disengagement from the Gaza Strip, Layne and Mike became personally involved with the plight of the former residents from Gush Katif and the Northern Shomron. As a result of the disengagement/eviction from their homes in the summer of 2005, 9000 Jews became refugees: breadwinners without a livelihood, parents in dire economic straits (not having received payments for their lost homes and businesses), children's day-to-day routines turned upside down, and everybody in inadequate, temporary living accommodations. Soon after Rav Yosef Zvi Rimon created JobKatif, they found their newest project: raising funds to help in the effort to rebuild their lives, one job at a time. Baltimore responded so generously, that it quickly became a model for other American and Canadian communities.

Mike and Layne feel most fortunate to have been able to contribute their time and skills to Klal Yisrael as members of Shomrei Emunah, whose rabbinic and lay leadership and membership-at-large, have been so very supportive. Through Shomrei's involvement throughout the years, Israelis in need know that they are not alone; that they have not been forgotten; that they know there is a synagogue in Baltimore that cares for them.

Layne and Mike have two accomplished children with very special spouses. Robby & Masha and David & Mandi have given us much joy from our dear grandchildren (Shana, Elie, Tzophie, Kira, Naama, and Mimi) of whom they are most proud.

They feel that a husband and wife, who volunteer together, stay together as they look forward to their jubilee anniversary later this year.

The Honorees

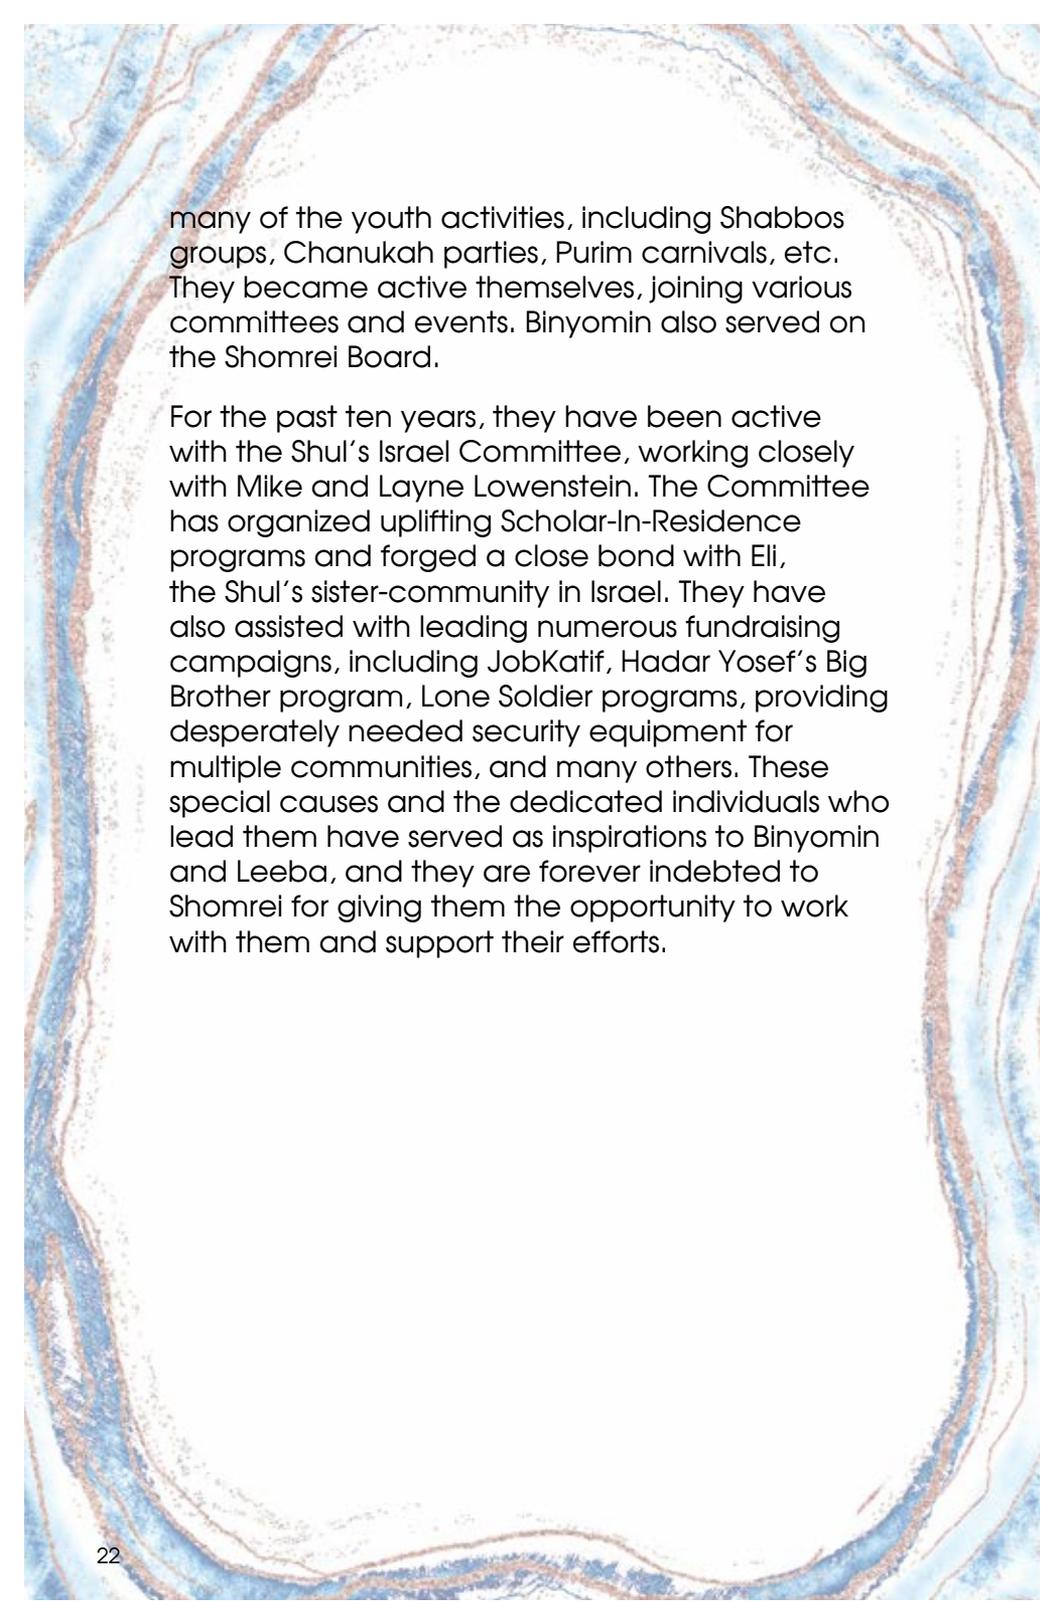

Binyomin & Leeba Berger

BONEI TZION AWARD

Binyomin and Leeba Berger have been proud members of Shomrei Emunah for over 22 years. Binyomin grew up in Cleveland and attended Telshe Yeshiva in Chicago. He's currently a Partner at RSM US LLP, a national accounting firm. Leeba was born in Pittsburgh but grew up in Baltimore. She is a graduate of Bais Yaakov and attended Michlalah in Yerushalayim. Professionally, she is a Speech-Language pathologist. Binyomin and Leeba have four children, Chaya, Sara Chava, Yona, and Naamah. They recently welcomed their son-in-law, Eliezer, to the family.

The Bergers feel at home at Shomrei. Leeba grew up in the Shul and has fond memories of the Shul in its early days. She looked forward to coming to Shul with her family every Shabbos to daven and spend time with friends. When Binyomin and Leeba got married, it was an easy decision to join Shomrei. The inclusive and inviting nature of the Shul is something that they find very appealing. Over the years, their children participated in many of the youth activities, including Shabbos groups, Chanukah parties, Purim carnivals, etc. They became active themselves, joining various committees and events. Binyomin also served on the Shomrei Board.

For the past ten years, they have been active with the Shul's Israel Committee, working closely with Mike and Layne Lowenstein. The Committee has organized uplifting Scholar-In-Residence programs and forged a close bond with Eli, the Shul's sister-community in Israel. They have also assisted with leading numerous fundraising campaigns, including JobKatif, Hadar Yosef's Big Brother program, Lone Soldier programs, providing desperately needed security equipment for multiple communities, and many others. These special causes and the dedicated individuals who lead them have served as inspirations to Binyomin and Leeba, and they are forever indebted to Shomrei for giving them the opportunity to work with them and support their efforts.

The Honorees

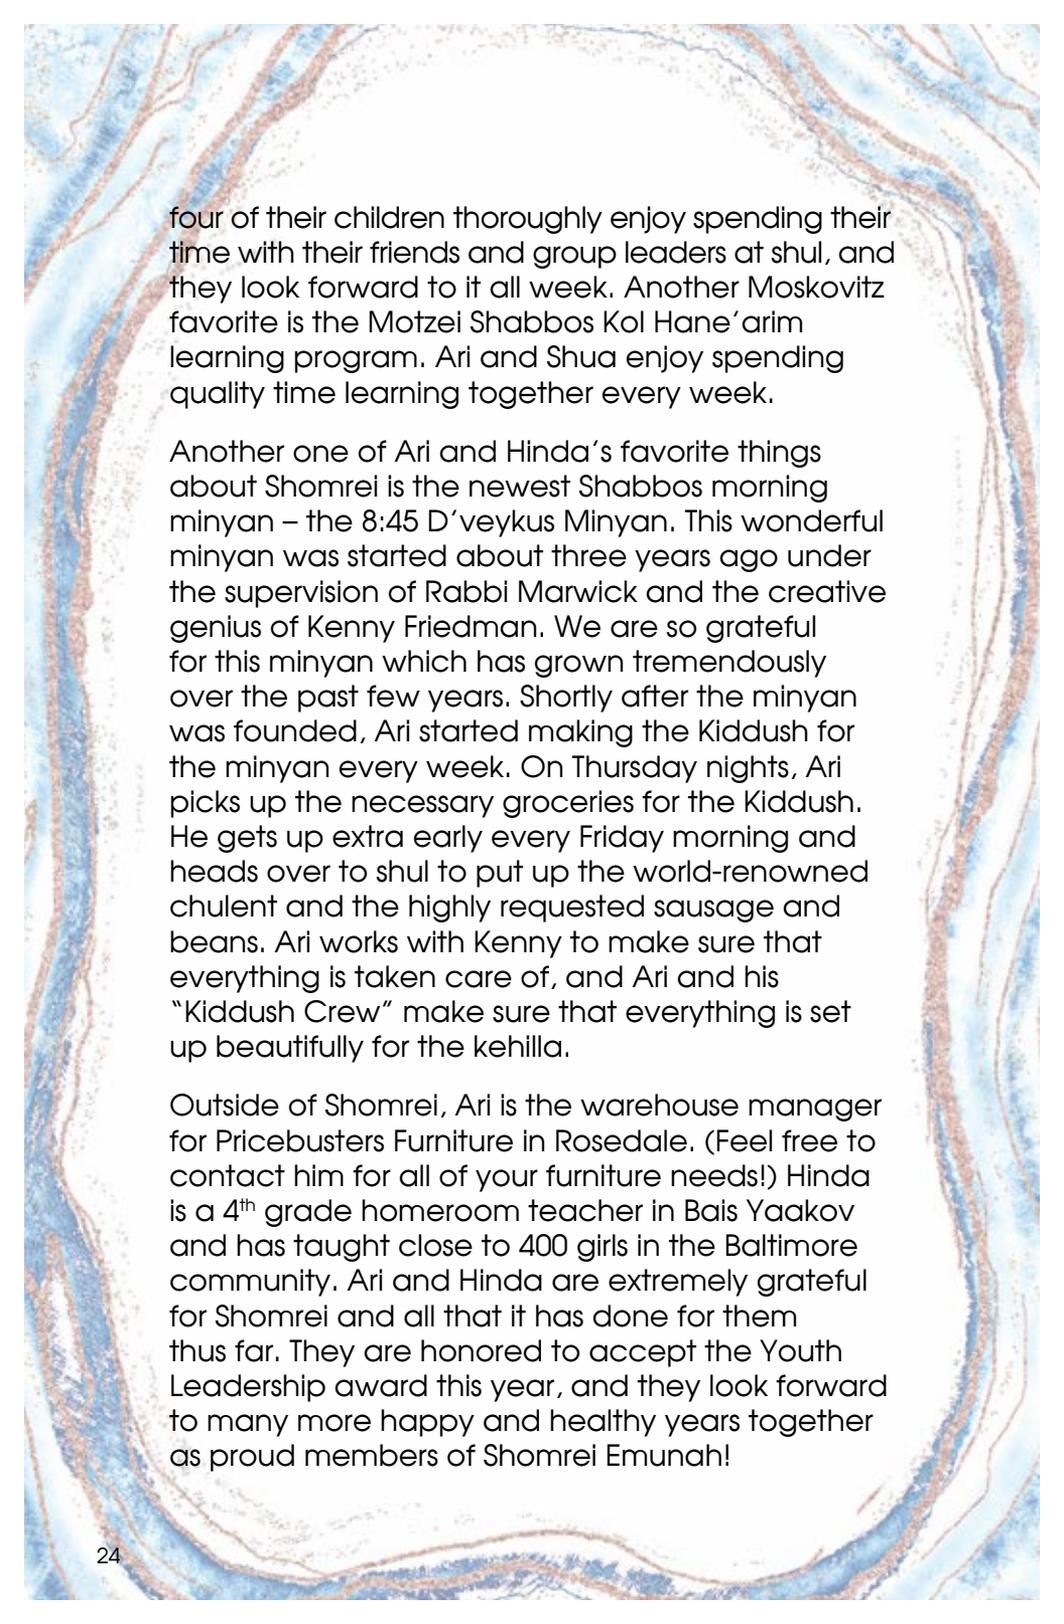

Ari & Hinda Moskowitz

YOUNG LEADERSHIP AWARD

Ari and Hinda got married in 2007 and settled in Baltimore. They decided on living here since Hinda really loved visiting during their few months of dating, and they both knew that it would be a great place to build a home and start a family. While living in Pickwick, they tried a few different shuls to see which one they wanted to join. Ari had always felt a connection to Shomrei since he spent many Shabbosim there during his high school years. A few months into their marriage, Shomrei offered Ari a job running the boys' youth groups on Shabbos mornings, which he ran for about three years. Hinda started davening at Shomrei while Ari was working and really loved the warmth and strong community feel that Shomrei offered. Being new to Baltimore, meeting so many kind people in one place really made her feel at home.

Ari and Hinda have four amazing children. Sarah (9), Tamar (7), Shua (5), and Yehuda (2). Shomrei offers so many wonderful programs for their children. One of Ari and Hinda's favorite programs is, of course, the Shabbos morning youth groups. All four of their children thoroughly enjoy spending their time with their friends and group leaders at shul, and they look forward to it all week. Another Moskovitz favorite is the Motzei Shabbos Kol Hane'arim learning program. Ari and Shua enjoy spending quality time learning together every week.

Another one of Ari and Hinda's favorite things about Shomrei is the newest Shabbos morning minyan – the 8:45 D'veykus Minyan. This wonderful minyan was started about three years ago under the supervision of Rabbi Marwick and the creative genius of Kenny Friedman. We are so grateful for this minyan which has grown tremendously over the past few years. Shortly after the minyan was founded, Ari started making the Kiddush for the minyan every week. On Thursday nights, Ari picks up the necessary groceries for the Kiddush. He gets up extra early every Friday morning and heads over to shul to put up the world-renowned chulent and the highly requested sausage and beans. Ari works with Kenny to make sure that everything is taken care of, and Ari and his "Kiddush Crew" make sure that everything is set up beautifully for the kehilla.

Outside of Shomrei, Ari is the warehouse manager for Pricebusters Furniture in Rosedale. (Feel free to contact him for all of your furniture needs!) Hinda is a 4th grade homeroom teacher in Bais Yaakov and has taught close to 400 girls in the Baltimore community. Ari and Hinda are extremely grateful for Shomrei and all that it has done for them thus far. They are honored to accept the Youth Leadership award this year, and they look forward to many more happy and healthy years together as proud members of Shomrei Emunah!

The Honorees

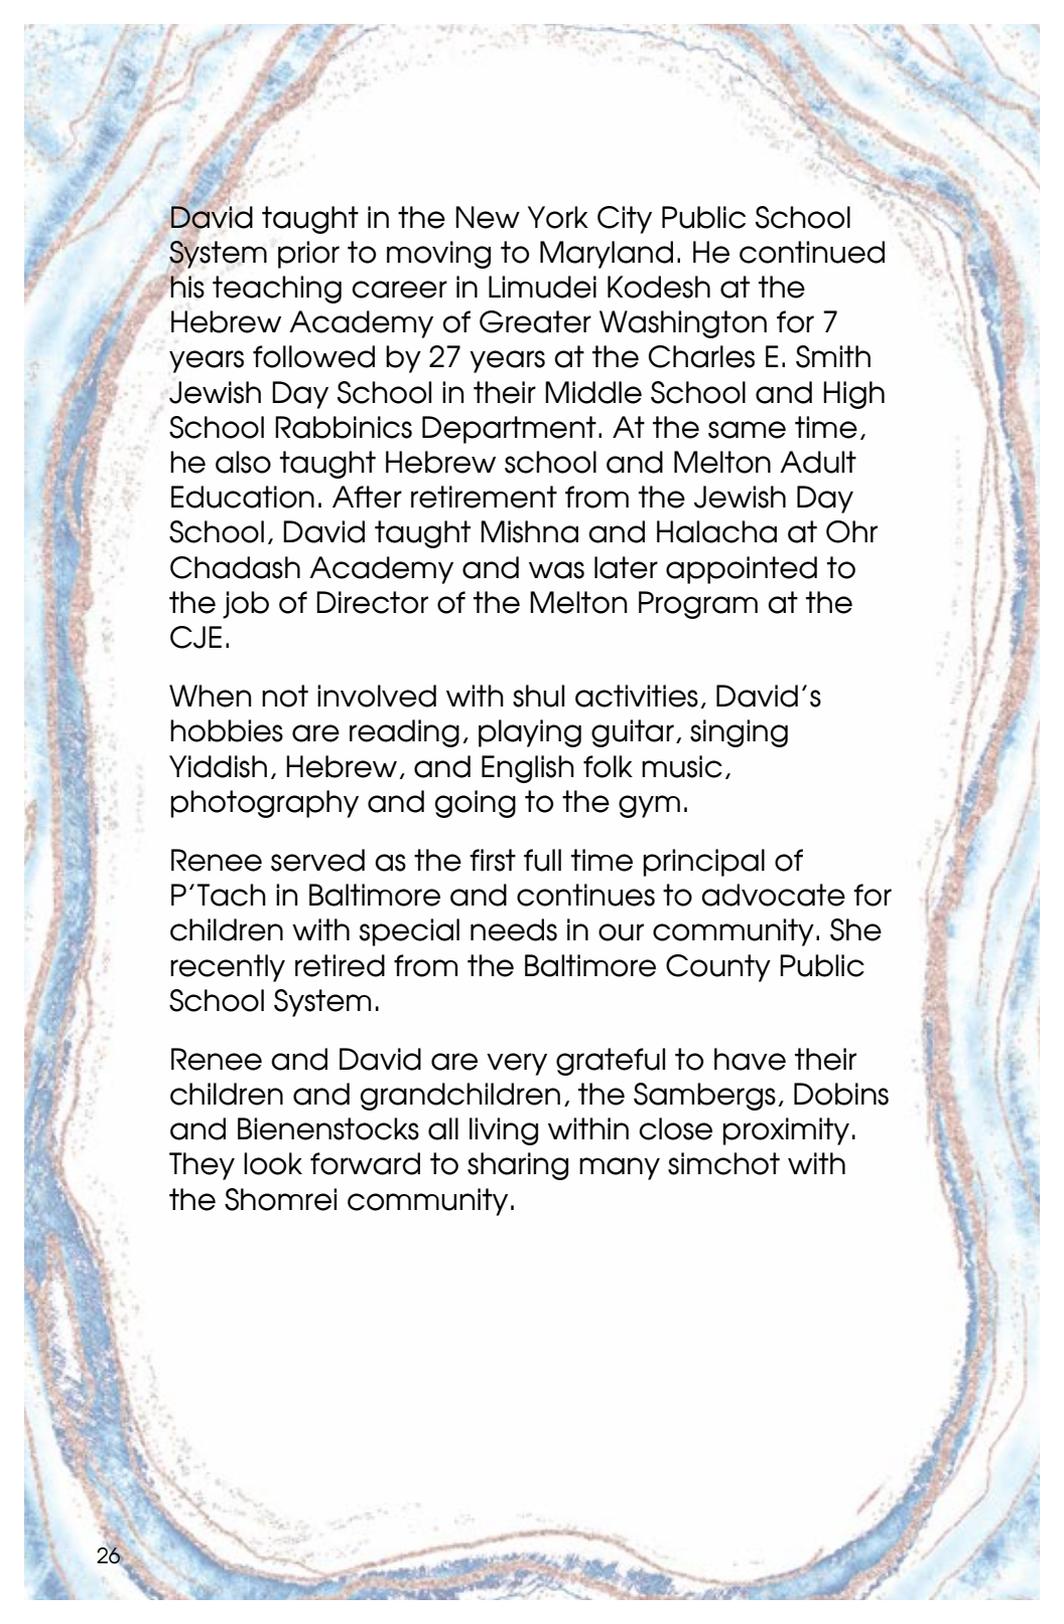

David & Renee Bienenstock

SHUL SERVICE AWARD

Renee and David moved to Baltimore from New York 40 years ago for family and employment opportunities. They settled in Greenspring after living in the Park Heights area for seven years. Their first Shabbos at Shomrei Emunah was a first for the shul as well; their first in their own building. David felt immediately comfortable and knew that he had found a spiritual home for his family.

David grew up in Brooklyn, New York where he attended yeshiva, college and graduate school, and received his BA, MS, and Smicha. David has been very involved in different capacities within the shul. He served as a board member, chairman of the seating committee, a member of the security committee, and has been a Gabbai at the 9 o'clock minyan for the past 28 years.

They have both enjoyed the multiple learning opportunities afforded them at Shomrei, specifically the daily shiurim by Rabbi Horwitz, Rabbi Sklare, and especially the shiurim with our Morah d'Asra, Rabbi Binyamin Marwick.

David taught in the New York City Public School System prior to moving to Maryland. He continued his teaching career in Limudei Kodesh at the Hebrew Academy of Greater Washington for 7 years followed by 27 years at the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School in their Middle School and High School Rabbinics Department. At the same time, he also taught Hebrew school and Melton Adult Education. After retirement from the Jewish Day School, David taught Mishna and Halacha at Ohr Chadash Academy and was later appointed to the job of Director of the Melton Program at the CJE.

When not involved with shul activities, David's hobbies are reading, playing guitar, singing Yiddish, Hebrew, and English folk music, photography and going to the gym.

Renee served as the first full time principal of P'Tach in Baltimore and continues to advocate for children with special needs in our community. She recently retired from the Baltimore County Public School System.

Renee and David are very grateful to have their children and grandchildren, the Sambergs, Dobins and Bienenstocks all living within close proximity. They look forward to sharing many simchot with the Shomrei community.

The Honorees

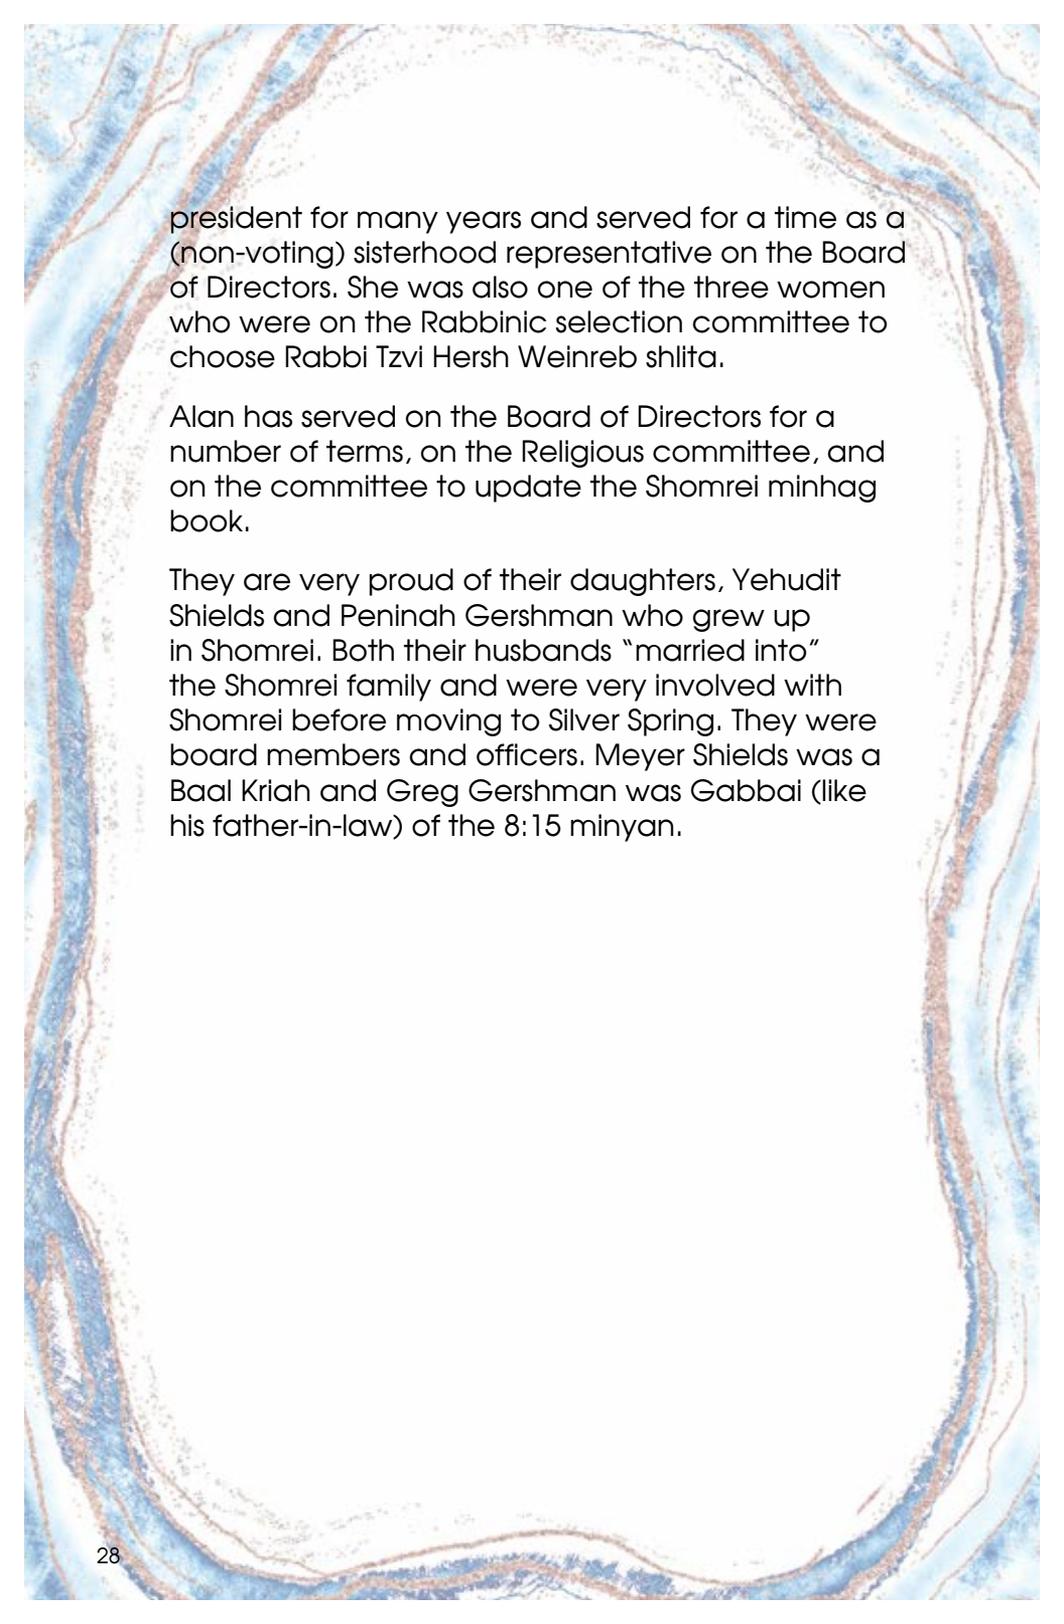

Alan & Tova Taragin
SHUL SERVICE AWARD

Alan and Tova have the distinction of being at the very second Shabbat minyan, which Shomrei Emunah held in 1971 in the apartment of Rabbi Heshy Dachs. They moved out of the neighborhood soon thereafter. They moved back to the Greenspring area and became members of Shomrei in the early 80s. At that time, Shomrei met in the little house on Greenspring Ave. where the parking lot is now. There were only 70 member families at that time.

Tova immediately became active on the committee which plans the summer classes for women, where she is still an active member. Alan became active in the religious life of the shul, becoming gabbai of the Hashkama minyan over 30 years ago. He was one of the founders of the Yamim Noraim auxiliary minyan and has successfully helped run it since the early 90s.

Tova was the original editor of the Shomrei weekly bulletin, which started during Aryeh Guttenberg's presidency. She also served as a co-sisterhood president for many years and served for a time as a (non-voting) sisterhood representative on the Board of Directors. She was also one of the three women who were on the Rabbinic selection committee to choose Rabbi Tzvi Hersh Weinreb shlita.

Alan has served on the Board of Directors for a number of terms, on the Religious committee, and on the committee to update the Shomrei minhag book.

They are very proud of their daughters, Yehudit Shields and Peninah Gershman who grew up in Shomrei. Both their husbands "married into" the Shomrei family and were very involved with Shomrei before moving to Silver Spring. They were board members and officers. Meyer Shields was a Baal Kriah and Greg Gershman was Gabbai (like his father-in-law) of the 8:15 minyan.

The Honorees

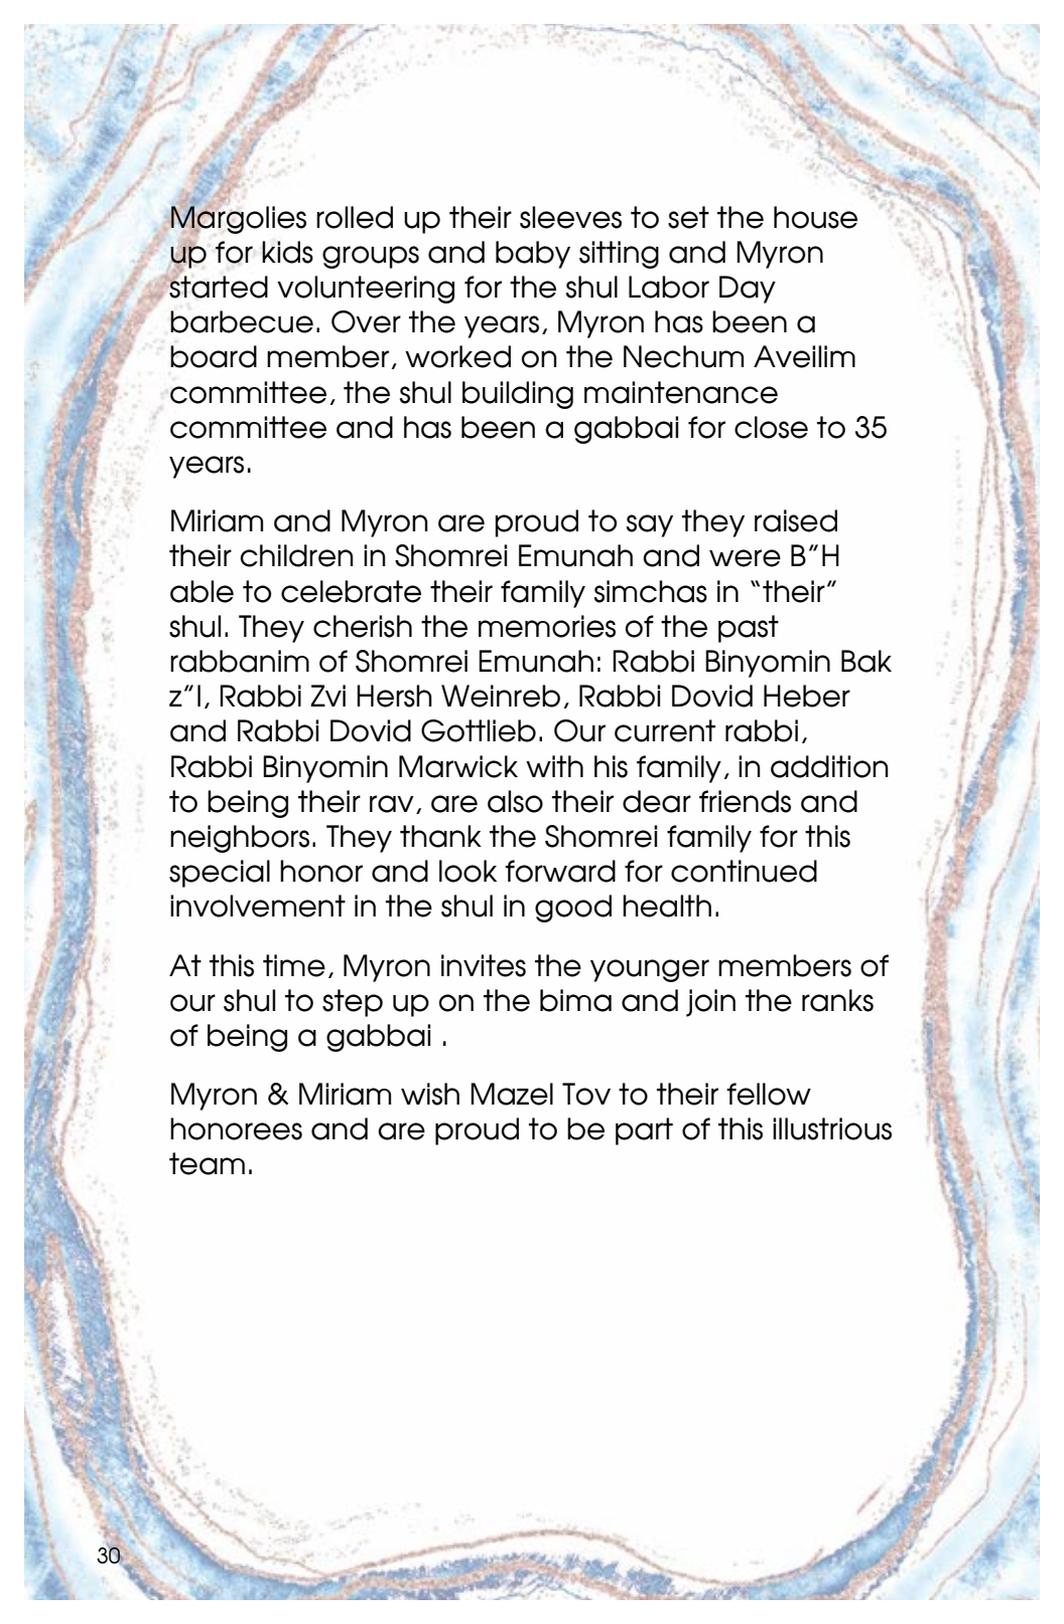

Myron & Miriam Froeblich

SHUL SERVICE AWARD

Myron was born in Baltimore and went to Talmudical Academy and Towson University. He worked in a family music store, Shubert Music, and is currently employed at Herman Wealcatch Insurance. Growing up, Myron's family davened at Shearith Israel synagogue on Glen Avenue where his uncle, Rabbi Shimon Schwab z"l, was the rabbi.

After Miriam and Myron got married in 1979, they joined Shomrei Emunah. Myron's sister and brother-in-law, Shelley and Jerry Kadden, were members, as well as many of their friends including Eli and Ronnie Schlossberg, Marvin and Linda Diamond, Robert and Libby Lehman, Mark and Elsa Lustman, Alan and Tova Taragin, Moshe and Greta Lasson, Hillel and Dena Soclof and Bernie z"l and Selma Yaffe.

They remember fondly the little shul in the white house and were thrilled when the shul, with its growing membership, moved into the Pickwick Jewish Center building. When the "Berger House" next door was purchased, Miriam and Laurie Margolies rolled up their sleeves to set the house up for kids groups and baby sitting and Myron started volunteering for the shul Labor Day barbecue. Over the years, Myron has been a board member, worked on the Nechum Aveilim committee, the shul building maintenance committee and has been a gabbai for close to 35 years.

Miriam and Myron are proud to say they raised their children in Shomrei Emunah and were B"H able to celebrate their family simchas in "their" shul. They cherish the memories of the past rabbanim of Shomrei Emunah: Rabbi Binyomin Bak z"l, Rabbi Zvi Hersh Weinreb, Rabbi Dovid Heber and Rabbi Dovid Gottlieb. Our current rabbi, Rabbi Binyomin Marwick with his family, in addition to being their rav, are also their dear friends and neighbors. They thank the Shomrei family for this special honor and look forward for continued involvement in the shul in good health.

At this time, Myron invites the younger members of our shul to step up on the bima and join the ranks of being a gabbai .

Myron & Miriam wish Mazel Tov to their fellow honorees and are proud to be part of this illustrious team.

Mazal Tov to our parents and grandparents

Alan and Tova Taragin

on this wonderful occasion.

Abba/Zaidy - Nobody has to guess why you are being honored tonight. Your dedication to Shomrei (aka your third child), knows no limits. Not only have you been the gabbai of the hashkama minyan for decades, you are the go to guy for anything and everything that needs to be done in the shul. No job is beneath you. You are the first one there and the last one to leave (except for maybe the Rabbi) and you are a role model of how to dedicate yourself fully to a Jewish cause.

We would be remiss in not mentioning our Ma/Bubby's longstanding involvement with Shomrei as well. Whether it was starting the first Shomrei Sisterhood in the 1980s, being a vital member of Rabbi Weinreb's search committee, coordinating the women's summer classes, and most recently involving Shomrei in your important Israel Advocacy through ACHI, we are so proud of the hard work and commitment you have shown throughout the years.

Abba and Mommy

To our Big Sister and Brother-in-Law,

We wish you a Mazel Tov upon this momentous occasion and for receiving this distinguished honor. It's so special to see our family continue to work on behalf of Shomrei, the shul in which we were all raised with fond memories. As a big sister and brother to us, you have always been there for our families with sound advice, learned experience, and a caring ear. Your home is always open to us and you have always been an inspirational example for us to follow.

Binyomin and Leeba,

Everything that the Bergers do on behalf of the shul and community is always done in an unassuming manner, away from the limelight, which makes their dedication all the more extraordinary. They say very little, but do a lot with no airs, commotion, or fanfare. Their particular work for shul initiatives related to Eretz Yisroel is especially important because it helps bind this Kehilla to Artzeinu HaKadosha. When Moshiach comes and Shomrei is transplanted to Eretz Yisroel, the flight will be so much smoother thanks to the spiritual ties forged by the work of the Bergers and the Lowensteins.

You all exemplify the spirit and character of our shul by rolling up your sleeves to work on behalf of so many in our community. Thank you and may Hashem grant you arichas yamim to continue your important work.

Thank you to Chaim & Rikki and Elliot & Yael for making this wonderful evening a reality. Your attention to each detail was evident. Your continued stepping forth to volunteer is incredible.

Thanks to Boruch & Chanie for handling with aplomb the monumental task of this beautiful journal which you are all holding.

With much appreciation to our wonderful Rav,
Rabbi Binyamin Marwick,
who our family leans on for his incredible intuition, forward-thinking, sensitivity, and strength.

A special thank you to Dr. Itzi Bari, whose love for the shul is only matched by his tireless work on its behalf.

Thank you to Eli, and to the board and executive board, to Shira, and to all those who work endlessly to make our kehillah a home to so many in the community.

Mike and Layne,

You have dedicated your time, love, and expertise to help strengthen the Jewish people. You do this in every aspect of your lives, both professionally and through volunteering. Whether it be taking care of individuals in Israel who need help or jobs, or helping global Jewish organizations, shuls and our school.

Thank you for giving us the privilege to learn from you, work with you, and watch you. You are true role models. May Hashem continue to bentch you both with many years filled with good health, happiness, good mazel, and overflowing bracha.

הודו לה' כי טוב כי לעולם חסדו

We are so grateful to הקב"ה for our wonderful family, devoted friends, amazing Rabbi Marwick and Shomrei Emunah.

Mazel Tov to our fellow honorees.

We are all working for the same team.

Myron and Miriam Froehlich

Dear Layne and Mike,

Our relationship began with 4 hours of slides,
And over 40 years it glides.

You and we may have grayed,
But our love for you never frayed.

Shule and Jewish world you bettered,
Your zeal for others is unfettered.

May your successes continue,
While values to kin you imbue.

And our admiration for you grows,
As our friendship never slows.

Mazel Tov!
