RABBI'S DESK

Make your Opportunities

I remember watching a football game over 20 years ago when the quarterback, Drew Bledsoe, ran for a few yards and got clocked by #57 Mo Lewis, the great New York Jets Linebacker. Bledsoe was so shaken he was taken out of the game, and a little-known backup named Tom Brady took over for him. Well, over 20 years later the GOAT (Greatest Of All Time) football player is finally retiring.

There are those that say that without Mo Lewis we would never have heard of Tom Brady. The truth is that we will never know for sure what would have happened. But what we do know is that HaShem loves you and is always working the outside variables to make you achieve your best (just like Tom!).

This is a fact. And while we salute Tom, let's remember that it was Hashem who sent him a guy named Mo, and that made all the difference.

Be Jewish, Live Jewish, Stay Jewish
