RABBI'S DESK

This week's Parsha uses 3 double expressions to extol us to behave properly to the widow and orphan. Rabbi Menachem Mendel of Kotzk, the Kotzker Rebbe, explains that this is because when you hurt them, you are actually dealing 2 blows. The first is the hurt you cause them, which is similar to everyone else you might hurt. The second however is the extra pain they endure when they feel that they are being taken advantage of because of their situation, and then the pain of their loss comes back as if it just had happened.

We always have to make sure that we go above and beyond when dealing with people that are in tough situations; more is expected from us.

Be Jewish, Live Jewish, Stay Jewish

Rabbi Elie

THANK YOU AND YASHER KOACH

On behalf of FHJC Youth, we would like to thank all the FHJC families who participated in the beautiful Family Chesed Project of making salads for the homeless.

Your contributions were distributed this past week to the homeless by the Ve'ahavta vans. This program was well received and we apologize to all the eager families who we had to turn down due to a wonderful response as we filled the necessary quantities requested by Ve'ahavta.

Thank you again for participating in this much needed Family Chesed Project. We look forward to many more upcoming family "Tikun Olam" projects...trying to make this world better with acts of mitzvot and kindness.

Thank you to the following families....
