RABBI'S DESK

This past Thursday night the Centre was hopping! We were blessed to have our first concert here since COVID (and maybe ever, but who remembers that far back!). It was a great feeling having Chazan David perform with special guest Evan Malach. We listened to great songs from My Yiddishe Momma to V'hee she'amdah, and even The Eagles "Hotel California". The Concert also raised some necessary gelt for Chai Lifeline! Thank you to Debbie Estrin, Director of Development for Chai Lifeline, for your remarks.

Song is a powerful tool; it can be used to promote and inspire promiscuity and divisiveness. It can also be used to tap into the purity of one's inner core. Last night we felt that purity. The next time you turn on the radio, just remember that you are connecting to a great force, so pick Kedusha (holiness) over Tumah (impurity).

Be Jewish, Live Jewish, Stay Jewish
