RABBI'S DESK

What a Shabbos with Rabbi Tatz! Over the course of the week, the Rav spoke to over 3000 people! He spoke in Clanton Park Synagogue, Thornhill, tons of schools and even in peoples' homes. The highlight of course was having him here at the Centre for Shabbos. Even his talk after Kiddush and before Mincha pulled in huge crowds.

So many people were interested and happy to connect and listen to what he had to say. The timing could not have been better. I think we all needed to connect to him and his ideas. His knowledge and delivery are so unique; it makes me want to have him come every week, but alas I would be out of a job.

A great week was only made better with more Tehillim groups at our house, great learning in the Kollel and great chesed in the community. A big thanks to our anonymous family for organizing a huge haul of stuff headed towards Israel, as well as dedicating the Lesson-a-Day books now available for us to learn in the merit of our young men and women in the IDF.

Looking forward to the Washington trip. Am Yisroel Chai!

Rabbi Elie

A Lesson A Day

Speech is one of the biggest defining features between man and animal. The Jewish people have been given over a very great power – the power to bless. Using our speech correctly is crucial.

Our sages teach us the learning the laws of guarding one's mouth from speaking forbidden speech (Shmiras Halashon) can save one from many great tragedies and can inspire divine help in our lives.

Join our initiative to learn one lesson each day on the Laws of Speech, and direct the merit of this Torah study to help protect our young men and women of the IDF as they battle against evil to save our brethren in Israel.

Signing up is free and you can pick up your book from Rabbi Elie. In addition, you can join the Lesson A Day WhatsApp chat where Rabbi Elie will put out daily inspiring thought.
