RABBI'S DESK

Speech.

Our sages teach us that Hashem gave Adam the gift of speech as one of the big distinctions between animal-kind and mankind. Hashem gave Avraham the gift to bestow blessings, or conversely, issue curses.

Our sages teach us the learning the laws of guarding one's mouth from speaking forbidden speech (Shmiras Halashon) can save one from many great tragedies and can inspire divine help in our lives.

Everyone is asking: "What can I do to help Israel?" I want you to join me in learning one lesson each day from the Laws of Speech, and direct the merit of your Torah study to help protect our young men and women of the IDF as they battle against evil to save our brethren in Israel.

Thanks to an amazing family who are sponsoring this program, you can pick up your copy of the book "The Family Lesson a Day" from me at my house. In addition, you can join the Lesson A Day WhatsApp chat where I will put out an inspiring thought each day.

A Lesson A Day

Speech is one of the biggest defining features between man and animal. The Jewish people have been given over a very great power – the power to bless. Using our speech correctly is crucial.

Our sages teach us the learning the laws of guarding one's mouth from speaking forbidden speech (Shmiras Halashon) can save one from many great tragedies and can inspire divine help in our lives.

Join our initiative to learn one lesson each day on the Laws of Speech, and direct the merit of this Torah study to help protect our young men and women of the IDF as they battle against evil to save our brethren in Israel.

Signing up is free and you can pick up your book from Rabbi Elie. In addition, you can join the Lesson A Day WhatsApp chat where Rabbi Elie will put out daily inspiring thought.
