I would like to reflect on our wonderful wedding day! - Gary Landon

Sunday June 30th, Sara Malka bas Avraham Aveinu (Donna Smith) and Avraham ben Avraham Aveinu (Gary Landon) were wed under the chuppah. There is no way you would have the time to read all I would like to say. To Donna, I really have said a minimum 20 speeches each morning upon waking on the days leading up to the wedding. Every speech was amazing, but said only to myself. With Hashem's grace and mercy I will have the time to show Sara Malka what I feel. This community has been able to watch part of our journey leading up to that day. I hope you feel as good about us as we do about each and every person in the Forest Hill Jewish Community. Each and every one has played a part which adds to the whole of our community and to the strength of it. Some go away for a time and come back when the season is right. It is with joy that we see you. You have had an impact on us and who we would like to be. I still marvel how this has happened. It only happened with goodness. Goodness does not happen on its own. It only happens with action, deeds and effort. It is Sara Malka's goodness that attracted me to her. It is this community's goodness that has attracted us to it. This has only come together with leadership. Rabbi Elie and Rebbetzin Rifky Karfunkel's leadership in particular. Their goodness has attracted Sara Malka and I. Heck, they had me hooked back in 1997, in Oshawa.

Sara Malka and I would like to thank this community for your love and your support. We especially would like to thank Rabbi Elie for being himself and making our day the most beautiful wedding day.

PS. We also have a special thanks for a most amazing trumpet player, Richard Idels.
