Tzeitchem L'Shalom

Twelve years ago we had a tryout for the Director of Education at the Centre. At that time, we were blessed to have been given a nice donation from Warren and Tali Newfield. (As an aside, Warren used to be Alan Friedman's boss, and Rifky and I met Alan and Michelle at their Sheva Bracha that Warren and Tali hosted).

We interviewed three worthy candidates and chose Rabbi Appelrouth. Over the last 12 years, The Applerouths have grown in number and impact. Rabbi Dovid's dedication to the community has always been above and beyond! Examples abound, but to put it in perspective, when I was leading a shiva minyan, Rabbi Dovid could have easily not shown-up, taking the position that if he's not running it, he's not needed.

However, he never took that position. It was always with an attitude of "This is what I need to do". Personally, I have relied on Rabbi Appelrouth to be the Posek (halachic adjudicator) for the Centre as his knowledge warranted it. He has taught, inspired, and role-modelled for over a decade! They will be sorely missed.

To the Applerouths, may the next chapter of your lives be as productive and rewarding as this one, and may Hashem grant you only health, Tomahawk Chops, and success for many years to come.

Your friend and colleague,
Rabbi Elie

CANDLESTICK UPDATE

Today I had a chance to catch-up with Harold Erbe, the donor of the Candlesticks. I mentioned to him how ecstatic we all were to receive such a cherished possession. He mentioned that his father used to be invited by Survivors in Vancouver to talk about the better times. He was particularly close with those that escaped through Shanghai. Harold said that his father was a "mensch" and would have been very happy to hear the Candlesticks were being lit in the New Jaslo Shul. I asked him how he knew the word "mensch," to which he replied that his dad was fluent in Yiddish and dealt with Jews in business in both the Old and New Country. Harold, we can't thank you enough for your gift to our Centre.

Rabbi Elie
