INTERFAITH

DIALOGUE

Saturday, February 9, 2019

Come for One Evening or Both

Join us on Friday evening for a communal Sabbath study, service, meal, and discussion to experience the depth and breath of what Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel has rightly and most profoundly called our "sanctuary in time."

Saturday evening will begin with a celebratory meal which will include song, study, and reflection. The dialogue, after Havdalah, will explore how both Judaism and Christianity understand the nature of sin, forgiveness, and atonement; the function of law, faith, and grace; and the notion of righteousness, salvation, messiah, and God.

Speakers:

Rabbi Joe Charnes
Visiting Rabbi

Rabbi Amy Sapowith
Beth Chaverim Reform Congregation,
Ashburn

Rev. Joseph Vought
Community Lutheran Church, Sterling

Rev. Annabelle Markey
