Deuteronomy 11:26–16:17

God places both blessing and curse before the Israelites. They are taught that blessing will come through the observance of God's laws. (11:26–32)

Moses' third discourse includes laws about worship in a central place (12:1–28); injunctions against idolatry (12:29–13:19) and self-mutilation (14:1–2); dietary rules (14:3–21); and laws about tithes (14:22–25), debt remission (15:1–11), the release and treatment of Hebrew slaves (15:12–18), and firstlings (15:19–23).

Moses reviews the correct sacrifices to be offered during the Pilgrim Festivals—Pesach, Sukkot, and Shavuot. (16:1-17)

IMPORTANT UPDATE

In light of revised guidance from CDC, and with the understanding that Brevard County is currently an area of high transmission, Temple Israel of Brevard requires that all individuals entering our facility (i.e., INDOORS) wear a mask. Temple Israel of Brevard recommends that people maintain social distancing outside while unmasked.

Friday, August 6

7 PM Kabbalat Shabbat will be held in our sanctuary and online. You will be able to watch online at www.youtube.com/TempleIsraelofBrevard. If attending in person this week, in accordance with the latest CDC and Department of health guidelines, we ask that ALL people entering the building wear a mask.

Oneg following Services is sponsored by the Temple Israel Sisterhood in honor of Rabbi Pat

Saturday, July 31

Sisterhood

We have started scheduling in-person Onegs so please consider sponsoring one for that special occasion. Contact Sisterhood Treasurer Rose Schoenfeld, 321-622-6454, or roseschoenfeld1941@gmail.com, to sponsor an Oneg for a specific Shabbat service. For a $45 donation Sisterhood will supply the food. If you will be providing the food, a $10 donation is suggested to cover Temple expenses.

We still need volunteers to help with the Gift Shop so please contact Joy at 321-253-8579 or Bobbi Rodriguez at 321-795-7941 if you can help.

This week's Oneg, which is sponsored by Temple Israel Sisterhood in honor of Rabbi Pat Hickman, will be held outside weather permitting.

Sisterhood is planning to sponsor Break the Fast after Yom Kippur services. Also, we hope to have a vendor and arts & craft show at Temple sometime after the holidays. There are some Sisterhood members who are interested in organizing it. More information will be coming about that soon. If you are interested in helping with either event, please contact Bobbi or Joy.

We are still looking for a Corresponding/Recording Secretary, Membership Chairman and a committee to plan the Yom Kippur break the fast meal. If anyone is interested in any of these positions, please call Joy or Bobbi. Sue Glazier has graciously agreed to take on the role of Oneg Chairperson. She has a few members who have signed on to work a Oneg once a month but she still needs more help. Please contact Sue at shoncan@gmail.com if you are able to help out. You will be provided with a complete list of what needs to be done and in person training if so desired.

Please consider joining or renewing your membership for the remainder 2021 for just $18! Mail your check payable to Temple Israel Sisterhood to Rose Schoenfeld at 6717 Sutro Heights Lane, Viera, FL 32940. Our dues support purchasing needed items for the new kitchen, supporting social events, and many other Temple needs.

All Temple members are welcome to attend our Sisterhood Book Club, and to suggest books. We meet monthly via Zoom, usually on the third Thursday at 7 pm. The Great Alone, by Kristin Hannah, has been suggested as the August book. If you are new to the book club, contact Joy Inventasch at harveyianddjoyi@yahoo.com so that we can send you the Zoom link.

Ernt Allbright, a former POW, comes home from the Vietnam war a changed and volatile man. When he loses yet another job, he makes an impulsive decision: he will move his family north, to Alaska, where they will live off the grid in America's last true frontier.

Thirteen-year-old Leni, a girl coming of age in a tumultuous time, caught in the riptide of her parents' passionate, stormy relationship, dares to hope that a new land will lead to a better future for her family. She is desperate for a place to belong. Her mother, Cora, will do anything and go anywhere for the man she loves, even if means following him into the unknown.

At first, Alaska seems to be the answer to their prayers. In a wild, remote corner of the state, they find a fiercely independent community of strong men and even stronger women. The long, sunlit days and the generosity of the locals make up for the Allbrights' lack of preparation and dwindling resources.

But as winter approaches and darkness descends on Alaska, Ernt's fragile mental state deteriorates and the family begins to fracture. Soon the perils outside pale in comparison to threats from within. In their small cabin, covered in snow, blanketed in eighteen hours of night, Leni and her mother learn the terrible truth: they are on their own. In the wild, there is no one to save them but themselves.

In this unforgettable portrait of human frailty and resilience, Kristin Hannah reveals the indomitable character of the modern American pioneer and the spirit of a vanishing Alaska—a place of incomparable beauty and danger.

The Great Alone is a daring, beautiful, stay-up-all-night story about love and loss, the fight for survival, and the wildness that lives in both man and nature.

An emotional, rousing novel inspired by the incredible true story of two giraffes who made headlines and won the hearts of Depression-era America.

“Few true friends have I known and two were giraffes...”

Woodrow Wilson Nickel, age 105, feels his life ebbing away. But when he learns giraffes are going extinct, he finds himself recalling the unforgettable experience he cannot take to his grave.

It's 1938. The Great Depression lingers. Hitler is threatening Europe, and world-weary Americans long for wonder. They find it in two giraffes who miraculously survive a hurricane while crossing the Atlantic. What follows is a twelve-day road trip in a custom truck to deliver Southern California's first giraffes to the San Diego Zoo. Behind the wheel is the young Dust Bowl rowdy Woodrow. Inspired by true events, the tale weaves real-life figures with fictional ones, including the world's first female zoo director, a crusty old man with a past, a young female photographer with a secret, and assorted reprobates as spotty as the giraffes.

Part adventure, part historical saga, and part coming-of-age love story, West with Giraffes explores what it means to be changed by the grace of animals, the kindness of strangers, the passing of time, and a story told before it's too late.

Shabbat Shalom

Dear Religious School Families,

Hope you are having a wonderful summer! The registration form for religious school is on the Temple Israel website, thank you to our office administrator, Jacob!

You will be pleased to see that tuition rates have dropped substantially this year. And if you are registering more than 2 children, the rest of your kiddos are free!

We are deep in the planning stages of what promises to be a wonderful upcoming 2021-2022 school year, in our beautiful new building. I know it seems far away, but our start date is Sunday, August 15th!

Please take a minute (it really is quick!) to register your child(ren) as soon as possible. We want to make sure we are prepared with enough staff, textbooks, etc., and will need to know how many students we'll have.

Any questions? Please call, text or email Donna at 321-848-1906, or donna@delizioso.com.

TEMPLE TALKERS

TEMPLE TALKERS IS COMING BACK TO TEMPLE ISRAEL

Temple Talkers was a popular monthly activity at Temple Israel, at which members and guests would discuss topics of interest. Scheduled discussions were recommended by participants and included the following:

- current events;
- history;
- different cultures;
- how, when, why and by whom did significant discoveries and/or inventions happen;

Monthly meetings had been held at Temple Israel, and fostered opportunities to see friends, re-establish lapsed friendships, and forge new ones.

Temple Talkers could be a virtual blessing during the pandemic while we are essentially under “house arrest”.

When it is safe to gather in person, Temple Talkers will resume at our beautiful new Temple building.

If you are interested in participating in Temple Talkers, please call or text Mike Marcus at 407-353-6278 or e-mail at mikehmarcus@gmail.com.

Do you like to bowl?

Are you free on Sunday afternoons?

If interested in bowling, contact Debbie Weiskopf at 321-349-3467 (home) or 321-301-7546 (cell) to join a bowling group made of your Temple Israel family, for the Temple Israel family.

All ages welcome.

Under 18 requires parental supervision.

This bowling group and all related activities are organized and the responsibility of those who participate. This advertisement is not an assumption of responsibility by Temple Israel of Brevard.
