Vayak'heil - P'kudei Exodus 35:1–40:38

Moses teaches the rules of Shabbat. (35:1-3)

Moses asks the Israelites for a donation of gifts and those who are skilled help build the Mishkan [Tabernacle] under the direction of Bezalel and Oholiab. (35:4-38:20)

A statistical summary of the materials used for the Tabernacle and an account of producing the priestly vestments are recorded. Moses blesses the Israelites for the work they did. (38:21-39:42)

Upon God's instruction, Moses sets up the Mishkan and the priests are anointed and consecrated. (40:1-33)

A description is given of a cloud that covers the Mishkan by day and a fire that burns by night, indicating God's Presence therein. (40:33-38)

Moses goes up the mountain with a blank set of tablets for another 40 days so that God will again inscribe the Ten Commandments. Other laws, including the edict to observe the Pilgrimage Festivals, are also revealed. (34:1-28)

Moses comes down from the mountain with a radiant face. (34:29-35)

The WTI Book Club is excited to welcome author Marcia Rudin at our next Zoom meeting on Thursday, March 18, at 7 pm. Last month we read her novel "Flower Toward the Sun," and had a spirited discussion of the Jewish values illustrated in the book. We enjoyed the book and cared about the characters. Please RSVP to Diana van den Boogaard at dianaboogaard@gmail.com, or Rabbi Hickman at phickman@tiofbrevard.com, so that we can send you the Zoom link.

“Flower toward the Sun” is a wonderful story about two women finding their way when coming to America at the turn of the 20th century. Switched at the train station so that they are sent to the wrong places to meet their intended husbands (one is Jewish from the shtetl and the other is Norwegian), this book explores the hardships of life, religion, and love.”

Make a $40 donation to WTI for a specific Shabbat service. Join the service on Zoom and light the candles. Rabbi Hickman will work out the details with you. and you will be honored for contributing the Oneg. We will have a colorful illustration of the virtual foods you want to share. For each sponsored oneg, a special paragraph is written on the last page of this weekly bulletin.

TEMPLE TALKERS

TEMPLE TALKERS IS COMING BACK TO TEMPLE ISRAEL

Temple Talkers was a popular monthly activity at Temple Israel, at which members and guests would discuss topics of interest. Scheduled discussions were recommended by participants and included the following:

- current events;
- history;
- different cultures;
- how, when, why and by whom did significant discoveries and/or inventions happen;

Monthly meetings had been held at Temple Israel, and fostered opportunities to see friends, re-establish lapsed friendships, and forge new ones.

Temple Talkers could be a virtual blessing during the pandemic while we are essentially under “house arrest”.

When it is safe to gather in person, Temple Talkers will resume at our beautiful new Temple building.

If you are interested in participating in Temple Talkers, please call or text Mike Marcus at 407-353-6278 or e-mail at mikehmarcus@gmail.com.

Sharing and Caring

This year there will be opportunities to participate and/or lead a Shabbat service. If you are interested, please contact the office at tioffice@tiofbrevard.com for information.

If you or someone you know is having to isolate because of a possible COVID-19 exposure or is fighting the disease, please don't hesitate to reach out to the temple at tioffice@tiofbrevard.com.
