SHABBAT MEVARACHIM - שבת מברכים

SHALOM AND WELCOME

... to Jerusalem's premier egalitarian Masorti (Conservative) synagogue. Beit Knesset Moreshet Yisrael is made up of English speaking olim and native Israelis. Locals and tourists attend our shul on weekdays, shabbatot, and chagim. Our worldwide Friends Of Moreshet network gives the opportunity for Jews in all countries to have membership in a captivating Israeli Beit Knesset.

Conservative Judaism is intended to be the nexus between Jewish tradition and the modern world...
Beit Knesset Moreshet Yisrael is that meeting place.

PARSHAT CHAYEI SARAH - פרשת חיי שרה

There is a human emotional and psychological need to mark significant events, especially when they relate to time. Birth, marriage, death each have concomitant ritual and pageantry, but each also have a corresponding annual marker – birthday, anniversary and yahrtzeit, respectively. Our tradition also has the annual time markers of Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur and Passover that are universally observed. Of course, Shabbat is the consummate manifestation of the Jewish marking of time. Such solemnization of time serves as an embrace to steady a world that is too fast, too loud, too frenetic. However, there are markings of time – rites of passage – that occur only once in a lifetime. When a Jewish child reaches the age of mitzvot responsibility, there is a cosmic change in that child's being. Most often, the celebrant can intellectually comprehend this change, but cannot fathom or recognize the material-matter change that happens to his/her being. Such a recognition really only gets instilled when it occurs in the context of community. In this way, the community serves as the necessary agent/angel of Gd in bringing a Jewish child under the canopy of Torah. Rabbi Adam Frank
