Shabbat Chol Hamoed Sukkot שבת חול המועד סוכות

During all the days of Chag Sukkot and the Yom Tov of Shemini Atzeret and, poignantly, during the hakafot of Simchat Torah we will sing out to Gd ה' הצליחה נא Ana Hashem Ha'tzlicha Nah – Please, oh please, Hashem, grant success! We are asking Gd to cause success to occur, but what is Gd's understanding of success? Teaches Rabbi Yechezkel of Kozmir: Gd is the parent and Bnai Yisrael are the offspring, and what is a parent's greatest success? Nachas from the kinderlach. That is, Gd's definition of success is that we make Gd proud which...is in our own hands. Rabbi Adam Frank

MAZAL TOV TO THEM BOTH

TODAH RABAH to many very special people...

Once again, we begin our New Year with many people to thank. As in previous years, we began a New Year uplifted by the beautiful holiday services we shared at Moreshet Yisrael. We owe special thanks to a large group of people who worked hard to ensure that our services and activities ran smoothly.

To our rabbi, Rabbi Adam Frank, who leads us in warm and meaningful services for Shabbat and Chagim. Leading up to the High Holy Days, we thank all those who blew the shofar during the month of Elul: Rene Feinstein, Barbara Goldstein, Leorah Parker & Rabbi Adam Frank.

Special thanks to Saralee Shrell-Fox and Warner Ferratier for all that you do.

To Anat Rubinstein on the continued success of the choir, which once again we were privileged to enjoy on the first day of Rosh Hashanah and to hear at concerts throughout the year.

To Joan Kedem for her continued good work with the Lone Soldiers Project.

To Rabbi Eddie Romm and Elyse Kruger and Project Oded, provided us with many varied, interesting speakers.

To Margery Feinstein, Editor of our Keshet Bulletin.

To Raya Meltz for all her hard work on the weekly Shabbat Shalom this past year.
