Welcome to the Marsha Dane Stern Hebrew School at Conservative Synagogue Adath Israel of Riverdale:

- Hebrew School registration is open to children of CSAIR members and to non-members.
- If your child enters the Hebrew School in grades K-2, you may wait one year before becoming a member of CSAIR. After one year, CSAIR membership is required.
- If your child enters the Hebrew School in grade 3 or above, CSAIR membership is required.
- Synagogue membership is completed through the synagogue office. You are encouraged to set up an appointment with Director, Rabbi Katie Greenberg to discuss membership. Email: info@csair.org
- If families register prior to the conclusion of the current Hebrew School year, a 5% tuition reduction is offered. (By July 31, 2019)
- Registration must be completed BEFORE the first day of Hebrew School. (September 15, 2019)
- 50% of current year's tuition and fees is due upon registration. Or a payment plan must be established at time of registration prior to the first day of Hebrew School.
- The remaining 50% tuition balance is due by December 31, 2019.
- Hebrew School registration includes signing the Hebrew School Agreement for your child(ren).

Please note that any outstanding Hebrew School balance must be paid in-full before the student may register for the current year.

- For families with two or more children, tuition is reduced by 10% for the second/third child.
- School scholarships are available for qualified families. Please contact the Hebrew School or synagogue office for more information.
- B'nai Mitzvah preparation fee must be paid according to the following established schedule: 25% on confirmation of date; 50% 1 year prior; 25% 6 months prior to Bar/Bat mitzvah.

To establish a payment plan or if you have any questions please contact CSAIR Director, Rabbi Katie Greenberg at: 718-543-8400 (ext.1) or at info@csair.org.
