

Baked Rhubarb with Orange and Blueberries

Adapted from Nigel Slater

14 ounces (about two cups) of rhubarb cut into 2 inch pieces

1 cup blueberries

¼ cup orange juice

1 Tablespoon orange zest

1½ Tablespoon honey

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Put the rhubarb and blueberries into an ovenproof baking dish. Add the orange juice to the pan and divide the zest among the pieces of rhubarb. Drizzle the honey on top of the rhubarb.
2. Bake for a half hour, drizzling juices over rhubarb halfway through the baking.
