

Kol Rinah

A New Congregation

The Voice

“Kol Rinah embodies the new spirit of Conservative Judaism in the Midwest. It radiates the joy of worship, learning and Jewish music both in and out – into our souls and out to the families, friends and community. Come pray, learn, sing and celebrate with us.” Let's all join our voices together to bring joy to our new congregation!

USY EMTZA Regional Hosted at Kol Rinah

January 31 - February 2, Kol Rinah hosted EMTZA USY's Winter Shabbaton. The theme of convention was Night at the Jewseum: The EMTZA Collection. Over 100 teens from Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska, Missouri, and Iowa came together to study, pray, and bond for a weekend at Kol Rinah. This convention was planned by our congregation's very own teens: Sophie Aroesty, Alex Zvibleman & Sam Rubin. We developed programming around the concept of the Jewish past, present and future, and USYers created their own visions of what Conservative Judaism will look like when their children are in USY. Our chapter came together to show the rest of EMTZA region what hospitality and community means to Kol Rinah. Congregants generously opened their homes to our visiting teens, and as a community we offered an invaluable gift to the youth in our region: a USY convention.

A Message from Rabbi Fasman

Rabbi Mark Fasman

Rabbi@kolrinahstl.org

In this month's Torah readings, we focus on the construction of the Mishkan - the portable sanctuary that accompanied the Israelites throughout their years of wandering in the wilderness and which served as the enclosure for the Ark of the Covenant that eventually rested in the Temple of Solomon.

It is striking that there are so many words devoted to the blueprints for, and construction of, a structure which was built just once. Of the 1,216 verses in the Book of Exodus, 450 verses are details of the building of the Mishkan and its various vessels (including the Ark of the Covenant), the fabrication of the priests' clothing, and the preparation of the incense.

The Book of Exodus tells the story of the creation of the Jewish people. We left Egypt – both physically and spiritually. And we became a nation. We established a calendar with sacred times, such as Pesach (Ex. 12) and Shabbat (Ex. 31). We established a legal system governing the rules of behavior within our society (Ex. 20-24). And we created the central sacred institution around which our nation would be organized and through which it would be sanctified (Ex. 25-40).

First we read about the Mishkan [Ex. 25:8]: ועשו לי מקדש ושכנתי בתוכם [Ve-asu li mikdash, ve-shachanti be-tokham] – "They shall make for Me a sacred place, and I shall dwell among them." A few chapters later [Ex. 33:11] we read of the other sacred structure, the ohel mo'ed, (Tent of Meeting), the place where Moses would meet with God.

We don't read anything about other structures that were central to the creation of this new nation. And this should teach us something important about the creation of our new congregation. Kol Rinah is a place in which we gather in order to feel close to God. God is approachable anywhere, by anyone, individually. But at the core of a religious community is a place that is created by the community as a sacred space. It is where a community gathers together to offer prayers.

As we build our new congregation, we find that the question of "where" is of great importance to many of our legacy members. Unlike the Israelites in the wilderness, we already have two sacred spaces. We have decided to leave both in order to create a new home. But in the meantime, let us never forget that wherever we gather as a congregation, it must be a sacred place. If it is not a place in which we can encounter the divine, then we are nothing more than a social club.

There are those who say that the Conservative Movement is dying. Daniel Gordis writes ("Conservative Judaism: a Requiem," Jewish Review of Books, Winter, 2014): "For those people for whom Orthodoxy was not an option, it was Conservative Judaism that offered a vision of Jewish communities colored by reverence for classical Jewish learning and Jewish tradition, albeit with a somewhat looser adherence to its particulars. Sans Conservative Judaism, the vision of a traditional, literate non-Orthodox Judaism will be gone. And that is a terrible loss, for Orthodoxy no less than for American Jewish life at large."

For Rabbi Gordis, "What really doomed the movement is that Conservative Judaism ignored the deep existential human questions that religion is meant to address." Instead, we have focused on questions such as "are we halakhic," "how are we halakhic," and "should we be halakhic." Gordis continues: "Who really cared? Very few people, it turns out." Instead of halakhah, he concludes, "Life is about asking important questions (think the Talmud), and yes, much of contemporary American culture is self-defeating. And meaningful life is about demands and duties. 'That is why we are here,' Conservative leaders could have said. 'We need bonds of solidarity, duties of citizenship, and yes, the call of God. Otherwise, we are trivial.'"

Rabbis Gordis concludes: "The moral of the sad story of Conservative Judaism is this: Human beings do not run from demands that might root them in the cosmos. They seek significance, and for traditions that offer it, they will sacrifice a great deal. Orthodoxy offers that, and the results

Welcome to winter in St. Louis! We have made it through the "Polar Vortex" with snow, subzero temperatures, and shoveling off sidewalks and driveways. Thank you to Rabbi Fasman, the staff and members who adapted to the weather conditions and worked from home, contacted minyan regulars when daily services were canceled and helped out in many other ways.

With the passing of the first month of the secular year, here are some notices of what has been happening at Kol Rinah.

We are grateful and appreciate your hours of volunteer time and leadership.

The "snow days" we experienced early in January did interfere with committee meetings active in day to day and future planning for Kol Rinah. To date the Facilities Committee continues to work with Colliers International to sell both the Linden and Hanley properties.

The Facilities Committee has contracted with Levin Brown architecture firm of Baltimore MD., to conduct a program exercise to determine what Kol Rinah's space and usage needs will be as a new community. This is especially important as we search for a new location for the future building site. This study will take several months to conduct and will require numerous meetings with professional and lay leadership, small and large group meetings with members.

Please look for future announcements with dates, times and locations of the meetings.

Just a reminder, every member is invited to contact me or any member of the Board of Directors personally to express concerns, ask questions or volunteer time.

B'Shalom,

Susan Cort

Thanks to all of you who participated in and/or attended Women's League Shabbat on January 18, with a special yasher koach to Phyllis Hyken for chanting the haftarah. Special thanks to the ladies who shopped and prepared the Kiddush - Sue Propper, Cindy Ginsburg, Aleene Zawada, Phyllis Warner, and Jean Marx.

If you were at services, you heard me mention once again in how many ways the Kol Rinah Sisterhood benefits our congregation. Please support our kiddushes to allow us to continue "giving back."

Thanks to Burton and Benita Boxerman for asking Sisterhood to cater a beautiful lunch in December in celebration of Burton's 80th birthday. May they both share many more happy and healthy birthdays. If you would like to celebrate a special birthday, anniversary, or other simcha, or if you might consider co-sponsoring a Kiddush, please contact suemeryl@charter.net.

Thanks to all of you who sent in your sisterhood dues in time. Because of you, we were able to pay our national per capita dues the beginning of January to take advantage of last year's dues. It saved us over $400. You can still send in your membership check and information. And remember, for all new members, if you initiate membership now, your membership for the fiscal year July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015 is free.

If you have any questions, please contact either Janice Shenker, our Membership chair, or me.

Torah Fund Campaign - Please consider a donation to the Torah Fund campaign for the Jewish Theological Seminaries. If you have any questions about this, please contact Arleen Kerman, our Torah Fund Chair, or call me.

TRIVIA NIGHT - Saturday night, March 1, 2014. We are looking for help in making this event the best and most successful ever. If you can help us contact businesses and individuals as sponsors for tables, rounds and easels, we need you. There are all levels of sponsorship.

We will also need volunteers to help set up, keep score, sell raffle tickets between games, staff soft drink tables, etc.

It should not surprise you to learn that our own Burton Boxerman has been deep in books and his computer preparing the most interesting categories and challenging questions.

If you can help, please contact the office at 314.727.1747 and they will pass on your name to those in charge.

In order to make this a success, we must attract attendees and sponsors. Our Trivia night events have always been wonderfully enjoyable, laid-back evenings. And we get a chance to do something positive for our congregation. We need your help.

KRRS IN MOTION

Though our new semester had a cold, snowy delay, we did eventually move on! Our staff was able to welcome Morah Enid Perl as our Cooking Teacher for the rest of the year. Our Pre K through 4th/5th grades got to create goodies for Tu B'Shevat on the first Sunday back, January 12, 2014.

That was also the day that our second program for "MaHaKeshet?" (What's the Connection?) took place at the St. Louis Art Museum. The Keshet class (6,7,8th grades), teachers, families, and students from Rabbi Fasman's study group were given a "Jewish Art Tour" of artifacts, paintings and major art pieces like Breaking of the Vessels by Anselm Kiefer. The students are doing further research and activities, based on this trip, under the direction of Art Specialist, Morah Ellie Scott.

Other January events included: MifgaShabbat; Mitzvah Day/Community Service (with the whole congregation) and Snow Tubing; a Shabbaton for our 6th/7th graders in conjunction with the B'nai Amoona students; and the "Build-a-Pair" Tefillin

Project, led by members from the Men's Club, for the 6th graders and families.

FEBRUARY EVENTS

☆ February 2nd – The Keshet class, with their families and teachers, are to take part in the World Wide Wrap led by the Men's Club and Rabbi Fasman.

☆ February 8th – MifgaShabbat (lower level by Religious School); Consecration (rescheduled from the snow day in December!) in the main sanctuary. This celebrates the formal beginning of Jewish Education at Kol Rinah for Anna Asher, Adin Cooke, Lilly Doughty, Eli Emmenegger, David Wainberg-Fernandes, Jane Goldberg, Jacob Kalachek, Grace Kalina and Naomi Zaidman.

☆ February 23rd – Another "MaHaKeshet?" program for the families and students in grades 2nd/3rd and 4th/5th. To make the "connection", they will be sharing their own special Jewish artifacts and creating new ones!

There is no school on Sunday, February 16, 2014, President's Day Weekend.

Be sure to read the KRRS Blast each week.

When there is inclement weather, please check Channel 5 (KSDK) to see if we have closed school. We will close when weather threatens the safety of our families and staff members.

Finally, please check out the KRRS website as work is being done to highlight our staff members and, hopefully, their photos.

Congratulations to Ben Portner on his graduation from The New School for Jazz and Contemporary Music, located in New York City.

Mazel tov to Linda and Rick Kram on the engagement of their daughter.

Welcome back to Sam Foreman who is rejoining the Religious School staff after 4 months of study in Israel.

Please remember that you, our Kol Rinah students and families, are the ones who are helping us to continue developing this religious school. Continue joining us in this endeavor!

Youth Programs

tasha@kolrinahstl.org

January was a huge month for our congregation and its youth! We were the hosts of a major Mitzvah Day. Kol Rinah congregants came together with our youth to perform a variety of mitzvot that benefited our local St. Louis community. We made soup packets for the Jewish Food Pantry. We made friendship bracelets for patients at Children's Hospital. We wrote cards for Israeli soldiers. We made cat toys for the Missouri APA. We packed backpacks for Project Backpack. In the weeks leading up we collected a bounty of school materials to share with local students who might be stranded without the tools they need to succeed in class. Our USY members took on leadership roles, helping our younger Kol Rinah members and students as they worked on their various mitzvah projects.

This past month was also huge for KRSTL USY! Kol Rinah hosted EMTZA region's Winter Shabbaton. We welcomed nearly 100 Jewish teens from Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, and Missouri. Kol Rinah exhibited superior hospitality, opening their homes to our future generation of leaders and providing a beautiful facility for our teens to worship and study in. The theme of our convention was Night at the Jewseum: The EMTZA Collection. Our very own KRSTL teens built amazing programs revolving around the past, present, and future of American Jews. We took time to consider how far we have come as Jews in America, and where we and our families will be going. In addition to our time spent contemplating and learning, we also fit in some exciting opportunities to bond and play including a powderpuff football game and a Mr. EMTZA pageant that raised money for Tikkun Olam. Finally, we closed our convention with a night time excursion at the City Museum!

This coming month we will prepare to send a great group of Kadima members to Kadima Kinnus for a weekend of learning what USY is all about and discussing how to be leaders in our own synagogue. We will also begin our annual Purim Drive! Please consider sponsoring a Purim booth for $36! All the funds we raise through the Purim Carnival go directly to the youth of Kol Rinah. This is the major source of funding for our Youth Department and the impact is enormous. If you would like to help volunteer to make this the greatest Purim Carnival yet, please be in touch with Tasha. There are so many ways you can help that can be convenient to you and incredibly powerful for our youth.

Check out all the fun pictures from our youth programs on Facebook at facebook.com/kolrinahUSY. Our Youth Commission is always looking for new and dedicated members who are ready to share ideas. Even if you aren't ready to join the commission we still would love to hear from you. The Adult Education Plans for 2014 are many and varied!

How about this for a sample:

2014 marks the 100th Anniversary of the outbreak of the First World War, WWI, also known as "The Great War". We are offering three separate programs to mark this milestone and ask the question, "What can we learn from WWI?"

The Jewish Poetry Chavurah started in January, and we look forward to many sessions of this exciting program spearheaded by Mary Berger.

The Haftorah chanting classes with Howard Belsky are also on the way.

Between February and Passover we'll have a "Lunch and Then Learn" program on Shabbat on the Shemoneh Esreh (Amidah). There will be multiple sessions about this prayer, which, if you attend services every day, you would read 1000 times per year...

In the Omer period, between Passover and Shavuot, we will prepare for Shavuot and celebrate Matan Hatorah (the receiving of the Torah) with multiple "Lunch and Then Learn" sessions on the topic "Who Wrote the Torah?"

Also being planned are "Lunch and Then Learn" sessions based on the current important book Jewish Megatrends (edited by Rabbi Sidney Schwartz), organized by Dr. Ralph Graff.

Slated for April, date yet to be determined, Dr. Graff has asked renowned Dr. Sherman Silber to talk about ovarian transplants.

And this is a mere sample of what Your Adult Education Committee has in store for you.

Thank you for your continued support of the work of the Committee. We look forward to your attendance at the above programs. Please encourage others to attend.

Of course, we would also need your donations to the Adult Education Fund to help cover the cost of honoraria, food, and other expenses.

(This fund is separate from the Rabbi's and Scholar-in-Residence funds.)

For more information regarding the Committee and/or the above, please contact us with ideas/comments via email or phone (see above).

KOL RINAH MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE MEETS AND GREETES

Perhaps, you've noticed some Kol Rinah members wearing colorful nametags on Shabbat. These folks are the Kol Rinah Membership Committee, dedicated to welcoming one and all, members and guests! Our committee includes Stephen Arnstein, Carol Battle, Margaret Bergmann, Marsha Birenbaum, Golda Cohen, Florence Cohn, Monroe Ginsburg, Ralph Graff, Phyllis Hyken, Marion Katz, Scott Kaar, Nancy Keyser, Micki Kingsley, Beth Levy, Linda Makler, Vivienne Palmer-Young, Don Pearline, Debbie Rubin, Rachel Shenker, Bill Solomon, and Susan Walker.

Our activities include calling members each week and wishing them a Happy Birthday or a Happy Anniversary, developing a New Member Pamphlet, and recruiting ads and participation in the first Kol Rinah Photo Directory. Committee Co-chairs Linda Makler and Monroe Ginsburg welcome your input and suggestions.

Kol Rinah has new guidelines for having any event through Kol Rinah.

☆ Up to 6 months in advance, at least 6 weeks prior to the event (at least 12 weeks for larger events,) follow the instructions on this Kol Rinah (KR) web page: <http://www.kolrinahstl.org/event-request/>

The link "Event Request" can be found under the KR website Calendar heading on the main menu bar.

Please remember, the process begins with the event planner reviewing Kol Rinah's calendar to make sure there are no conflicts.

What will happen next:

☆ The relevant KR people will receive the form submission, ask any clarifying questions, and (hopefully) vet the event. Generally, the rule will be first come first served, but KR may super-cede that rule for the vital interests of the synagogue.

☆ Once approved, Meir Zimand will put the event on the calendar which begins the publicity effort. Meir will also notify the event contact and many other KR stakeholders so that program coordination can begin.

Thank you in advance for adhering to this process.

are clear. Liberal American Judaism does not, and it is paying the price."

Kol Rinah must be more than a social club. We must be a sacred place. A place where we come to ask important questions, to connect ourselves to God – and thus root ourselves in history and in the cosmos.

If the home we build together is truly a sacred space, not only will we have a reason to survive (even if the Conservative Movement dies), but God will surely dwell among us.

TORAH UPDATE

On December 15, 2013, two of our pasul (non-kosher) torahs were bought by Bruce Corson, whose wife Tina is the daughter of Milton and Jeanne Zorensky, and the niece of Marcia Sterneck, Jeanne's sister. The Zorensky family were long-time members and benefactors of BSKI, one of Kol Rinah's two legacy shuls. The Zorensky's donated a torah to BSKI years ago. Bruce liked the idea of getting a torah or two from Kol Rinah, one of whose two foundations was from BSKI. He felt it would be a symbolic way to perpetuate the Zorensky legacy.

Bruce has sent both of the torahs to a sofer in New York, to evaluate what repairs can be done to make them kosher. He chose these two scrolls from our 17 excess torahs based on their general appearance, but also on their weights. They are among the lighter of those "in stock". He plans to donate them, if his sofer can repair them, to his Chicago shul, the Lake Shore Drive Synagogue - Shomrei Israel. The weight was an important consideration for him because many of his members are old and find heavier torahs hard to lift.
