February 2015 Shevat / Adar 5775
Six Months In

After six months or so here at Kol Rinah, I want to step back and reflect on the shul and how things are going.

Let me begin by saying that my family and I have felt so warmly welcomed from the first moment we arrived in St. Louis. We are so glad to be here, and so comfortable and pretty well acclimated. I find that I’m using my GPS less and less!

My first three months here, I was so lucky to have the opportunity to learn from Rabbi Fasman and to get to know the synagogue and how we do things before becoming “the” rabbi. Rabbi Fasman has been and continues to be nothing but supportive and generous, and I am so grateful to him for believing in me, and helping me and the shul in every way he can.

I did not fully appreciate the complexity of the congregation before I arrived. We are, as I’ve taken to say, a brand new shul with two hundred years of history. That history is a tremendous blessing, yet it also contains challenges. While some people have fully embraced our new identity as Kol Rinah, having come from BSKI or Shaare Zedek is still a very important piece of many congregants’ Jewish identities, and I love that! I love Jews that love their shuls and are connected to their congregations.

What may seem to some as a too-slow process of putting the past behind us to me is a very natural and expected process that people go through at different speeds.

Our facility situation is a frustration to many, myself included. The chairs are uncomfortable, it’s either too hot or too cold, and we’re not in the fresh, new, neutral space that I and we so crave and have long anticipated. Until the real estate situation shakes out though (and it may be longer than any of us want), we have to focus on what’s happening inside the walls and outside the walls, and not on the walls themselves, as our President Mitch Shenker has reminded us.

Our financial situation, while not ideal, is stable, and we at least know how we’re doing thanks to the great work of Lisa Gellman, our Treasurer, and David Weber, our Synagogue Administrator. And thanks to David as well, so many aspects of our operation are running smoothly.

Minyan, Friday night services and Shabbat morning services are humming, and the various arms and groups and committees are working hard too. There’s a good buzz at Kol Rinah!

Over the coming months, I have a few priorities. The first is trying to meet every single member of Kol Rinah before Rosh Hashanah. I’ve met so many people already, and will continue to try make connections with you. If you’re reading this and have not met me yet, please give Nancy a call in the office (314.727.1747) and schedule a time to chat for half an hour, whether in the office or over a cup of coffee.

A second priority for the next year is making sure that we have a group dedicated to social action and social justice that is active here at Kol Rinah. While we have many separate things happening, we need a central address and group dedicated to

Sisterhood
Micki Kingsley

At the Saturday Kiddush on February 7, Sisterhood will have a Tu Bishevat table with figs, dates, apricots, prunes, raisins, nuts, and more, to celebrate the new year of the trees.

In January, Sisterhood celebrated Women’s League Shabbat and I thank Joyce Olshan, Wendy Love Anderson, Nancy Berg and Harriet Shanas who led services, and all the other ladies who participated.

As I say every year, Sisterhood needs your input, your support, and your dues. If you have received a dues reminder letter, it is because we did not receive back your completed form, with dues. The first mailing to you may have found its way to the “big pile” on the kitchen table that you mean to get to… or “inadvertently” to the wastebasket. I also would like to thank the ladies who got this year “free”, who sent a donation along with their completed information form.

We appreciate Jerry and Marion Cohen choosing to celebrate their combined 176 years of birthdays” on January 24th with a beautiful Sisterhood Kiddush. Their family was in from across the country to be here for Jerry’s 90th birthday, and Marion’s (you-do-the-math) birthday. Jerry has been the supporting column of the morning minyan for many years, and Marion, as most of you know, is a past President of our Sisterhood. She is also a great source of inspiration and good advice to me. We thank Jerry and Marion for sharing this simcha with us and wish them good health and happiness.

Thank you so much for supporting Mitzvah Day 2015. Our congregation came together to show our St. Louis community how much we care and the results were spectacular. We made a true impact, and I cannot wait to see what Mitzvah Day 2016 looks like. We’re only getting better! If you would like to be more involved in planning Mitzvah Day please contact me (Tasha)!

Winter Shabbaton was a blast. We joined together with more than one hundred Jewish teens to celebrate Shabbat in Kansas City. Our USYers spent a weekend learning with their Jewish peers and having great adventures. Our chapter made us proud, and they’re already excited for our Spring Kallah.

Kadima has an upcoming convention March 13-15. If you have a 7th or 8th grader who wants to kick off their USY career early, register them! We always have the best time showing Kadimaniks the ropes to Jewish youth group.

Convention is held at a beautiful retreat center with one of the coolest things to ever exist: a glow-in-the-dark Quidditch court. Don’t miss out! Keep your eye on your email for registration details.

Purim is coming and Kol Rinah’s youth department needs your help! We are devoted to ensuring a Jewish future. We keep Judaism relevant and present in the lives of school aged children and teach the leadership skills they will use when they run congregations of their own. Please consider supporting our youth by contributing to our carnival this year. There are a variety of ways you can help out:

- We offer the option to sponsor a booth at the carnival for $36. You can also donate an item or package to our silent auction. Items like event tickets or gift baskets are always appreciated and appropriate.
- Finally, you can make the valuable donation of your time and help run a station at the carnival.

All proceeds go directly to the youth of our congregation and afford teens incredible Jewish opportunities.

Check out all the fun pictures from our youth programs on Facebook at facebook.com/kolrinahUSY. Our Youth Commission is always looking for new and dedicated members who are ready to share ideas. Even if you aren’t ready to join the commission we still would love to hear from you. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, or if you would like to help strengthen our youth department, please contact Tasha. tasha@kolrinahstl.org.

Whether a child, a teenager or an adult, the “why” we engage in any kind of learning activity is an important question to explore. I offer my updated letter from our 2014-15 KRRS Parent Handbook as a partial answer to the following question:

“WHY offer supplemental Jewish Education?”

In Pirke Avot, “The Ethics of the Fathers”, chapter one in the second mishna, Simeon the Righteous says that the world rests on three things: On Torah, on avodah (“service”, worship), and g'meelut chasadim—acts of loving kindness. At Kol Rinah, we look at education through this Jewish lens because it gives us a “Jewish list” for the goals that help us to set the curriculum at all age levels.

The study of Torah encompasses our history as a people, as well as the commandments upon which our religion is based. It provides the continued study of our Hebrew language and the opportunity to read and reread the parshiot, finding new meaning each time.

Avodah is not only the practice of worship, but also the understanding of how and why we worship, as a community at synagogue, as a family at home and as an individual. It is a path to finding spirituality when we pray to God. It is also the practice of giving back to the community.

And what could be more important to learn and practice than g'meelut chasadim – doing for others? Through the commitment of our time and our resources, we show that it is a priority to care for others.

Though a “short list”, these three things create a strong foundation for the teaching of Judaism in the Religious School, as well as in your homes. Along with socializing and sharing Judaism as a community, this list helps to answer the WHY we offer religious school!

Come join in helping to create the ruach, the tefilah, and the learning of Judaic and Hebrew. Then you will understand the WHY of KRRS.

B’Shalom,

Morah Paula

Men's Club Membership Letter from January 15, 2015

Greetings to you from the officers and Board of Directors of the Kol Rinah Men’s Club. What a great year 2014 was for our Men’s Club. We have continued our journey on a new and energetic path forward to engaging men socially, intellectually and spiritually, serving our shul, our community and our members.

The merger of our two shuls, joining our two Men’s Clubs into a single, more exciting organization, is complete and a real boost for our Kol Rinah Men’s Club!

We invite you to join in our engaging programs and fun-filled events, such as our “Guys’ Night Out” - Hearing Men’s Voices Feb. 16th, or any of the HMV programs - you’ll be glad you did.

As a member of the Men’s Club, you are invited to participate and join us for the monthly Men's Club Board meeting, which is every second Sunday at 10 am following minyan.

Now is the time to pay your 2015 Men’s Club membership dues. Please consider donating more than the $36 to help with new and better activities and to support our youth and their participation in Jewish summer/educational programs and trips in the coming year. Perhaps we can have a Minyan (10 guys) donate $100 - be a Men’s Club Minyanaire. Stimulate your intellect and spirituality – join us in our effort to build a stronger Men’s Club for Kol Rinah.

In brotherhood,

Bob Olshan, President

I get a lot of good ideas around 4:00 AM! What can I say, I'm not a good sleeper - too much on my mind. Anyway, this morning I remembered that I had a BSKI legacy Mitzvah Day t-shirt from 2001. I found it and cut out the Kol Rinah logo and stapled it, yes, I said, stapled it, to the t-shirt. I also fashioned a headband that said, "Kol Rinah Mitzvah Day 2015" and stapled that to a hat. It was suggested that next year a t-shirt be designed for Kol Rinah Mitzvah Day, and sold as a fund-raiser! Thanks, Gary Kodner! (He remembered designing the one I was wearing.)

Anyway, the Membership Committee made a great showing at Mitzvah Day. Thank you so much to so many of you for your attendance and your participation in all the wonderful and worthwhile projects! Our table was set up near the Sara Myers Community Room where the Sesame Street movie was shown. Thanks go to Margaret Bergman, Phyllis Hyken, and Randi Mozenter for giving out the raffle tickets and placing the cans of food in the Food Pantry barrels. Thanks also to ECC for their generous donation of food items!

Jared Skoff, Paul Kodner, and David (our custodian) are now honorary members of our committee for figuring out how to show the Sesame Street movie with sound! Sam Shoyket is also an honorary member for assisting Margaret Bergman in categorizing our food donations within the humongous blue Jewish Food Pantry barrels!

Our committee secured free movie passes from Wehrenberg and St. Louis Cinema theatres for a raffle. Each can of food brought in earned one raffle ticket. The winning tickets were drawn later that morning by Mitch Shenker, our President, and the winners were announced by Randi Mozenter, VP. One winner was so excited that he taped his winning ticket to his arm! Way to go, Aiden Cook!

And a most special thank you to the Chairs of Mitzvah Day - Paula Hertel, Tasha Kaminsky, and Joyce Olshan. Marilyn Dien also deserves a very special accolade as she and her husband Saul, were the guiding lights of Mitzvah Day at the BSKI Legacy congregation and continued to inspire us at Kol Rinah. Each time I "peeked" in, I saw everyone - adults, children, families - all busy with special and meaningful projects. See you next year!

Sincerely,

Scholar-in-Residence Weekend……... and so much more

We hope you all are as excited about the upcoming Scholar-in-Residence weekend as we are. Rabbi Bradley Shavit Artson, of the American Jewish University in Los Angeles, one of the most sought after speakers, will be ours for an entire weekend. Read about all the thrilling events, one after the other.

If you can only attend one event, the Friday Night Dinner and presentation, “My house is a house of prayer for ALL people” is the one to attend!

Also, whether you’ve read Rabbi Artson’s book, “God of Becoming and Relationship” or not, you can attend the (third) book club discussion, led by Rabbi Noah Arnow, on Shabbat Feb 7.

Don’t miss a minute!

We have ongoing classes and programs, like Howard Belsky’s Torah and Haftorah classes, the Jewish Poetry Chavurah with Mary Berger, and of course the ongoing classes with the Rabbis.

We are also hoping to arrange a program with Rabbi Mark Shook. The Rabbi Emeritus of Temple Israel wrote an acclaimed book called “Ezra’s Scrolls”, a thriller taking place both 2500 years ago, after the destruction of the First Temple, and in today’s Israel and in Iraq. It is a very exciting, fast-paced thriller. We are hoping to arrange for Rabbi Shook to speak to us about the book and arrange a wider discussion about the underlying theme of the book: What do we know about who wrote the Bible?

When? We are working on a date and we hope to be able announce it soon.

We are also planning – again no date set yet – a discussion about the book by David Arnow, called “Leadership in the Bible – A Practical Guide for Today”.

If the name sounds familiar, he is a close relative – Father – of our Rabbi, Noah. Check back for more info.

Another upcoming program we are working on is Legacy and Charities. Our own Sherri Frank Weintrop and Don Singer have made presentations on this important topic. Emphasis will be on the philosophy of transmitting values to the next generations. This goes hand in hand with the presentation Don made on January 3rd this year about Creating an Ethical Will.

Support The Committee

We are hoping that you appreciate the many programs the Committee is sponsoring. Unfortunately, some of these programs cost money and there is an Adult Education Committee Fund that we would appreciate if you support.

We are continuing to offer spectacular shows for you and we would appreciate if you show your appreciation by thinking of the Fund for Bar/Bat Mitzvot, Weddings, Birthdays, Yahrzeits and other occasions.

A third priority is to try to create some connections and community for two particular cohorts. One is those in the Kol Rinah orbit who are post-college but pre-kids. The other is families with young to young-ish children. I’m working with Tasha Kaminsky and Jessica Wax on these projects, and we welcome your help!

There are many other things that are also in the works and in my dreams for our shul, but this is just the beginning.

Finally, let me say that I have done some pretty good things over the past few months. I’ve also made a few mistakes I really regret. I’m still learning as someone relatively new to St. Louis and Kol Rinah, as a rabbi, and as a person. Your feedback and advice is always welcome!

I love Kol Rinah—the people, the community, the dream. It’s been a wonderful first six months, and I look forward to many more months and years together!

Kol Rinah Event Submission Guidelines

1. The process begins with the event planner (you) reviewing Kol Rinah’s "All Calendar" on the Kol Rinah (KR) website to make sure there are no conflicts.

2. Follow the easy instructions on this KR web page: http://www.kolrinahstl.org/event-request/ or find the link "Event Request" under the KR website Calendar heading on the main menu bar.

What will happen next:

3. Our Rabbi and David Weber will receive the form submission and ask any clarifying questions to vet the event. Generally, the rule will be first come first served, but KR may supersede that rule for the vital interests of the synagogue.

4. Once approved, Meir Zimand will put the event on the calendar which begins the publicity effort. Meir will also notify the event contact and any other KR stakeholders so that program coordination can begin.

Thank you in advance for adhering to this process.
