If Tu B'shevat is past, can Purim be far behind?

Sisterhood catered two kiddushes in February. The first, on February 14th, for the Rabbi Artson Scholar-in-Residence weekend, was co-sponsored by the Leo & Sara Wolf Education Fund and by the Faye Keyser Memorial Seudah Fund. The kiddush on February 21st was sponsored by Bill Solomon, in honor of the Belsky Family. We appreciate their support and encourage others to follow their generous examples.

We are looking for volunteers to help on Saturday mornings with shul kiddushes. If you can help, please call Betty Siegel (she volunteers in the Gift Shop on Tuesday mornings) or call the office at 727.1747
and we can put you in touch with Betty.
Thank you.

Hope you have signed up for Trivia Night, Saturday night, March 7!

Come one, come all! Sign up for a table or join a table. Support the Sisterhood-Men's Club Trivia Night. There are also openings for table and round sponsors. I'm sure you've seen all the publicity. There's still time to reserve your table or your place
at a table.

To sign up, or for more information, please call the office at 727.1747, or Burton Boxerman at 994.9133. Bring your friends,

your food, and your good cheer, and enjoy Burton's questions.

On Sunday morning, March 22nd,
as you've probably seen in the flyers,
Sisterhood will hold its annual Torah Fund Brunch Program in support of the Jewish Theological Seminary and Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies. After a lovely brunch, we will share in a musical program, spear-headed by our own Karen Simmons. Brunch will be at 11am, followed by the program. Come and enjoy hearing and learning some old songs with new tunes, and some new niggunim. No experience necessary.

And don't forget to send in your donation for the JTS Torah Fund campaign. Please make checks payable to Kol Rinah
Sisterhood, and in the memo line, write:
Torah Fund. We cannot accept checks payable to Torah Fund. You should have received a letter, with an enclosed return envelope addressed to Irene Belsky.

This is the campaign that supports not only badly needed repairs and new structures for the JTS institutions, but also scholarships for rabbis, cantors, teachers and leaders in the Conservative Movement. Let's all do our part to ensure the future of Conservative Judaism.

Youth Programs

Tasha Kaminsky

tasha@kolrinahstl.org

February was packed with great programs and fun. Our USYers worked hard on all our Once Upon A Purim festivities. Purim Chairs Maddie Lapp and Pardes Lyons-Warren were especially dedicated to making this Purim a magical one. Thanks to everyone's efforts, our carnival was a beautiful success. All the funds raised from the carnival will go directly to youth programming, insuring that teens have scholarship funds to attend conventions year round and continue to connect to their Judaism alongside their peers. Thank you for all of your support!

March is going to be a great month to be in Kadima. After an awesome rock climbing event we are getting ready to head off to Kadima Kinnus! All 7th and 8th graders are welcome to attend a weekend retreat in Boone, Iowa. Spend Shabbat with future USY leaders at a gorgeous retreat center. The retreat center is awesome and has a full putt putt golf course, a glow in the dark Quidditch court, and much more. Kadima Kinnus is March 13-15. Generous scholarships are available for Kol Rinah members.

USY will continue to go full force in preparation for their upcoming Spring Kallah (April 17-19). If you have a USYer who is interested in taking on a leadership position, this is the time to dig in. Elections will be held at the end of April, and there's plenty of support and opportunities available to anyone who is interested. Get a leg up and throw your hat into the ring early. If you want to run for USY office contact Tasha to learn more about all the ways you can lead and to fill out an application.

Check out all the fun pictures from our youth programs on Facebook at facebook.com/kolrinahUSY. Our Youth Commission is always looking for new and dedicated members who are ready to share ideas. Even if you aren't ready to join the commission we still would love to hear from you. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, or if you would like to help strengthen our youth department, please contact Tasha. tasha@kolrinahstl.org.

Adult Education

Richard Gavatin

richard@ims-stlouis.com

The Adult Education committee has just come down from the high of hosting the Scholar-in-Residence weekend with Rabbi Bradley Artson. Our high expectations were met and exceeded. Thanks to all who helped make this weekend a success.

As you probably can imagine, a weekend like this is not just happening because people snap their fingers and wish it. It takes a lot of work and many volunteer hours. We are grateful to all who spent their free time for Kol Rinah to make it all come together.

It also takes money. As much as we would like to think that it is all "volunteer" and "charity" and "good deeds", there is also cold hard cash needed. So, as we are sure you want to see future SIRs (Scholar-in – Residence) programs at Kol Rinah, think of The Adult Education Fund the next time you have a birthday, Yahrzeit, Bar/Bat Mitzvah, or any other occasion. Contact the office and tell them you want to support the Adult Education Committee.

We have many programs planned and even though the dates are not set yet, you know they will be spectacular events. Among others, we are working on enticing Rabbi Emeritus Mark Shook to speak to us about his book from last year, called "The Ezra Scrolls". I read it and it was like a modern mystery page-turner and we recommend it to all. We are confident you will appreciate what promises to be a very interesting weekend.

What is your legacy going to be? Easy question to ask but maybe not so easy to answer. We are planning a program that may not provide the "ultimate" answer but at least will give you some thoughts.

Ongoing classes will continue, including learning how to chant a Haftarah with Howard Belsky. Call the office or Howard directly if you want to brush up on your Haftarah skills. Everybody is welcome.

Mary Berger's Jewish Poetry Havurah continues with their regular programming and everyone is welcome. You don't need to be a poet to attend, just have an interest in either Jewish or secular topics.

If you want to be part of the Adult Education committee, we welcome you. So please contact me at my home at 314.432.2499. If you call me, I will let you know the date for the next Committee meeting, which at the time of this writing is not yet set. We only know it will be in March.

Thanks!

Mitzvah day was a very successful day. We were able to package 100 bean soup packets for the Jewish food pantry with the help of many volunteers and decorated 30 caps for Chemo kids with the supervision of Gail Brody. We were also able to give Crown Senior center the cookies that they had asked for. Thank you to the volunteers who baked them.

We sponsored a High Tea for all the women of Kol Rinah with the attendance of 70. We want to thank Marian Katz for the great design of our sandwiches. Thanks to all our helpers from our Women's Social Group.

KRRS MOVING FORWARD!

Continuing with my theme of “why” from the February “Voice”, here is another question:

WHY HAVE A MITZVAH DAY?

- ☆ Why spend time meeting with others to design projects for our community to execute?
- ☆ Why round up all the synagogue committees and departments to lead stations where projects can be carried out?
- ☆ Why make phone calls and send e-mails to agencies to ask if they can use what we were creating?
- ☆ Why ask people and children of all ages to come together for several hours on a Sunday morning to make, bake and donate items, as well as their free time?

My answer: It is our task to “help repair the world” around us in meaningful ways and to teach our children through our actions. As a Kol Rinah Community it took cooperation, planning, making contacts, giving of food, money, materials for projects, care products, school supplies... and most of all, it took giving of ourselves to do something extra along with our very busy lives! Some snapshots from that day below show the energy that happened. (Thank you to Eli Horowitz!)

Interestingly, this year’s Mitzvah Day occurred on January 18th – “chai” – and many in this congregation gave chai, double chai and triple chai! I think now the question is:

How do we perpetuate this process of giving and “repairing the world” throughout the year as a Kol Rinah community? Please share your ideas with any of us who led the planning for this year’s event.

“Todah rabah” to everyone who contributed to that day and especially to my planning team mates – Marilyn Dien, Tasha Kaminsky and Joyce Olshan.

B'Shalom,

Membership Committee Dedicates Rudy Oppenheim Ambassador Program

Many thanks to Micki Kingsley and the Kol Rinah Sisterhood for sharing Sisterhood Shabbat, January 17th, with the Kol Rinah Membership Committee. The morning provided a beautiful venue for dedicating and naming the Kol Rinah Ambassador Program in honor of Rudy Oppenheim of blessed memory.

The goal of the Ambassador program is to maintain and enhance connections with Kol Rinah and its members. The Ambassadors accomplish this goal by contacting households on a regular basis, and on special occasions i.e. birthdays, anniversaries, and other simchas, serving as cheerleaders and positive role models for Kol Rinah, acting as liaisons if congregants are in need of services from the Rabbi or the Chesed committee, and promoting attendance at worship services, special functions, programs, and events.

We were fortunate that Rudy's wife, Frances, and their daughter, Judy Beizer, were able to participate in this special honor and tribute. Rudy truly exemplified the spirit of being an ambassador. He had an outgoing personality, loved meeting new people, was enthusiastic, and dedicated to the shul. He always had a smile on his face and his hand outstretched to shake yours and introduce himself. Mitch Shenker was a perfect spokesman for this occasion with his thoughtful and moving words and stories about Rudy that he shared with Frances, Judy, and the congregation. Another special thank you to Rabbi Arnow for sharing his thoughts on this meaningful day.

Kol Rinah Event Submission Guidelines

1. The process begins with the event planner (you) reviewing Kol Rinah's "All Calendar" on the Kol Rinah (KR) website to make sure there are no conflicts.

2. Follow the easy instructions on this KR web page: <http://www.kolrinahstl.org/event-request/> or find the link "Event Request" under the KR website Calendar heading on the main menu bar.

What will happen next:

3. Our Rabbi and David Weber will receive the form submission and ask any clarifying questions to vet the event. Generally, the rule will be first come first served, but KR may supersede that rule for the vital interests of the synagogue.

4. Once approved, Meir Zimand will put the event on the calendar which begins the publicity effort. Meir will also notify the event contact and any other KR stakeholders so that program coordination can begin.

Thank you in advance for adhering to this process.
