Thank You

Thank you to my Kol Rinah family for the wonderful tributes and good wishes that I received on my 90th year birthday. I feel so blessed with my wonderful friends from BSKI & my many new wonderful friends from Shaare Zedek. I know I had a great family before the merger and now I am even more blessed with my new additional family.

Thank you Bill Solomon for the beautiful luncheon in my honor & thank you Rabbi Arnow for your inspiring words. I am proud to be a member of so warm, compassionate and caring Synagogue as Kol Rinah.

Gene Barken

Thank you so much for your contributions to Kol Rinah [Women's Social Group] and your thoughtful greetings for our anniversary. Our friends in St. Louis are never far from our thoughts.

Rabbi Mark & Alice Fasman

Thanks to all who contributed to the Kol Rinah Women's Social Group for our anniversary wishes.

Maurice & Rachel Guller

Why the ark and the 7 branch Menorah with Kohain Gadol? The answer is in the February Parshiot.

Slaying Dragons Lunch & Learn

Saturday, Feb. 27
12:30 pm

Performance art as a means of accessing a conversation about mental illness.

Following services on 2/27, see a Slaying Dragon's performance called
"Voices of Depression"

Customized to suit the demographics
of our congregation.

The performance highlights the impact of mental illness on those who suffer from it and their loved ones.

Following the performance
a panel of professionals will help facilitate a conversation regarding the stigma of mental illness.

Building Singing Communities

♪ SHABBATON ♪

A weekend with

Joey Weisenberg

Kol Rinah invites you to join us for a Singing Communities Shabbaton to explore Jewish melodies and prayer-texts and focusing on communal interaction. Led by Joey Weisenberg, Creative Director of Mechon Hadar's Center for Jewish Communal Music, our Shabbat and weekend together will focus on the intersection of music, spirituality, and prayer.

Joey Weisenberg is the Creative Director of the Mechon Hadar's Center for Jewish Communal Music, which seeks to empower Jewish community-building through music. Joey works to educate and train communities around the world to unlock their musical and spiritual potential, and to make music a lasting and joy-filled force in shul and in Jewish life.
