KR On The Move!

We are pleased to announce that the Clayton Planning Commission-Architectural Review Board approved our Site Plan and Architectural Review on October 2. As recommended by the ARB, the Clayton Board of Alderman approved our Conditional Use Permit for the ECC on October 24. Patterhn-Ives continues creating Construction Documents for the Maryland Avenue project.

You can also keep up to date by visiting the On The Move section of our website KolRinahStL.org.

Welcome to Our New Interim Family Programming Coordinator

Please join us in welcoming Tammy Arnow into her new role at Kol Rinah – Interim Family Programming Coordinator. In this role, she will continue the wonderful programs for young families that we have offered in the past, including leading Tot Shabbat services, and will also work on developing new programming for young families. She also hopes to work with young families and the broader Kol Rinah community to explore new avenues for social action engagement. We are very fortunate that she has volunteered to take on this role until the position is filled on a permanent basis, in early to mid-2018. She invites your thoughts and ideas!

In October you helped raise $135.51 for Kol Rinah Operations with Schnucks Scrip. Call Nancy in the office to have a card sent to you.
We thank you!
