KR On The Move!

We are excited about the partners that we've found in Patterhn-Ives, and truly believe they can bring a unique vision to our project within the budget that we've set.

Sometime after June 11 our office will move upstairs to the former Youth Lounge. We will need to be flexible during this transition period when the Journey will begin using parts of the building. Areas that will be under renovation include: the current office, the library and the Sanctuary. We may also have limited use of KRRS classrooms.

If no location is listed for an event, please call the office to find out where it will be.

You can keep up to date by visiting the On The Move section of our website KolRinahStL.org.

Kol Rinah is creating a central repository of Kol Rinah Board and Committee meeting minutes and notes as well as an archive from both legacy congregations. If you have minutes or notes from any year, please email them (as either text or scans) to Meir Zimand, meir@kolrinahstl.org. Our goal is to eventually have an as-complete-as-possible, record of our shul on hard drive as well as an online access for Committee members to review.

We are also hoping to create a photo cache for Kol Rinah and from our legacy congregations (best/largest quality digital possible please of current or good scan of historic prints). We are looking for photos that show faces and activity. You can also email these to Meir, meir@kolrinahstl.org.

Our newsletter is designed by Tovah Enger with the invaluable help of her dedicated volunteer proofing team: Nancy Greene, Micki Kingsley, Cindy Payant, Sherri Sadon. Thank you.

Dr. Leah Hakimian

Leah Hakimian is a chronicler of romance and matrimony who researches the question of how Jewish couples meet and marry. Dr. Hakimian, a web columnist for The Jewish Week, a leading American Jewish newspaper based in New York City, has interviewed over 130 couples and has documented their love stories for her column. The stories are also posted in her blog, Godsend, published in The Jerusalem Post. She began writing her column in 2006 for the St. Louis Jewish Light. Before moving to Israel in 1998, she was a founder of Connections of St. Louis, a Jewish Federation service to help Jewish singles find mates. She takes credit for 15 matches, and is a passionate advocate for the role of community in helping singles meet. In her first career as a Jewish educator in St. Louis, Dr. Hakimian served as the principal of the Solomon Schechter Day School and Associate Executive Director of the Central Agency for Jewish Education. Leah's family is closely identified with Brith Sholom Kneseth Israel (BSKI) and Shaare Zedek. She is the daughter of Jacob and Sarah Elbaum. Mr. Elbaum taught Bar/Bat Mitzvah students and served as Hebrew School Principal at BSKI from 1926-1983. At the same time, he served as the secretary of the congregation. Mrs. Elbaum was an active volunteer in the BSKI Sisterhood. Leah is also the widow of Yusef Hakimian, former President of BSKI. Leah's sister, Nancy Makovsky, taught at Shaare Zedek Sunday School when her husband, Don, was the principal. Leah has a Ph.D. in education from St. Louis University and a B.A. from Washington University. She splits her time between Jerusalem and Great Neck, New York. She is blessed with four daughters and ten grandchildren. For more information: Debbie Igielnik digielnik@gmail.com
