Kol Rinah Welcomes Toby Loewenstein

Toby is excited to be working as our Young Families Program Coordinator and Youth Advisor at Kol Rinah!

Toby is originally from Northern Virginia and moved to St. Louis in 2013 to do Teach For America. She immediately became involved in the young adult Jewish community and became a Next Dor fellow and then board member.

The St. Louis Jewish community became a large reason for her desire to stay in St. Louis beyond her two year commitment for Teach For America. She taught in a preschool special education inclusion classroom for three years and kindergarten classroom for two years while getting her Masters in Elementary Education and Certification in Early Childhood Education at UMSTL. Now she is taking some classes online for Speech Language Pathology while working part time at Kol Rinah. She is excited to get to know our community!

American Witnesses: Eyewitness Film Footage at Liberation
The Museum’s new American Witnesses exhibition presents selections from unofficial films taken by American soldiers who documented the effects of persecution and Nazi atrocities in liberated areas of Europe with their personal movie cameras. Lindsay will discuss how such amateur films complicate, contradict, and add nuance to the official film canon which has defined how the events of the Holocaust have been visualized in the postwar years.
