Let’s be more Scents-itive

At Kol Rinah we try to celebrate with all our senses - but for some, the sense of smell is too sensitive and causes severe migraines. So Kol Rinah is striving now to be Fragrance Free. We ask all our members to be aware of this and come see your friends, hear our songs, and feel our hearts. And of course, enjoy our sweet tastes! We thank you for participating in this special mitzvah.

KR On The Move!

The continual progress at our Maryland Avenue site is evident through the photos updated biweekly at ON THE MOVE at our Kol Rinah website.

Look for more detailed updates in the On The Move e-Blasts delivered to your email inbox and the On The Move section of our website KolRinahStL.org.

Kol Rinah Community Learning presents
Rabbi Dr. Pamela Barmash
Saturday, April 6, 2019 - 12:30 pm

“Respect for the Deceased and Serving our Country”

Jews have long served in the U.S. military, and for many of them, their military service has been an important part of their identity. Military protocol provides for military rituals at the funerals of service-members and veterans as well as for special military cemeteries.

How should we shape our burial practices and rituals so that we show our respect for the dedication and sacrifice of Jewish service-members and veterans?
