Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who sent good wishes and tributes for my 80th birthday. I appreciate every one of them. You are all very special.

Marvin Lerner

December was a month of celebration and sadness for our family. Thank you so much for the donations and tributes in honor of Tammy’s and my anniversary and in memory of my dear grandfather, Robert Arnow, z’l. We are so grateful for this community’s support and kindness.

Rabbi Noah Arnow

KR On The Move!

When We Collide:
Rethinking Jewish Sexual Ethics

Saturday, February 9, 2019
following kiddush or around 12:30

Most people assume that ritual purity has little to do with their lives. However, the picture of day-to-day ritual purity and impurity in Mishnah Zavim may have startlingly progressive implications for a Jewish ethics of sex and public health. Come study some of these texts with Dr. Epstein-Levi!

Rebecca J. Epstein-Levi is a postdoctoral fellow at Washington University in St. Louis, where she works on Jewish ethics of gender and sexuality. In her copious free time, she enjoys sharpening her overly large collection of kitchen knives.
