Office

The office will be open for phone calls and emails, but please do not drop by, as the office will not be open to the public. Meetings will happen via Zoom or on the phone.

ECC

Kol Rinah's Early Childhood Center is also closed. Staff and parents will receive additional information directly from the school.

Classes

We will be scheduling classes for the week, also on Zoom, with topics and times to be announced.

Our staff, clergy and synagogue leadership are working and available. We're just a phone call or an email away. Please let us know any way we can be helpful to you or your family, or others you know of during this difficult time. We are trying to figure out the best ways to sustain ourselves and our community during this time of physical isolation, and we anticipate that we'll learn and evolve in our responses.

Thank You!

My heartfelt thank you to the congregation for the love and care you showed me after my dad passed away. I was touched by the outpouring of support and I'm very grateful to be associated with such a wonderful group of people.

Mike Levine

The outpouring of love from my Kol Rinah Family is overwhelming. I can't tell you how touched I am. "This one won't heal", but being supported by all of you will surely help with love,

Suzie Broddon

My thanks to those who donated to the Women's Social Group for my birthday. It was so thoughtful of you.

Rose Jonas

KR On The Move!

Construction on Kol Rinah's new home at the Maryland Avenue Building continues at a steady pace, with significant progress on the interior finishes and installations being made on a daily basis. The extreme on-going wet weather has caused further delays with the exterior site work, but hopes of a Spring completion remain in our sights.
