Passover Haiku Contest

We are holding a Passover Haiku Contest with the theme of Passover Memories. A Haiku is a Japanese form of poetry with three lines, five syllables in the first line, seven syllables in the second line and five in the third line. Write and submit your original haiku with the Passover memory theme. Click for more details. For more information: Stacey@Kolrinahstl.org

Deadline:
Fri. Apr. 8
noon

Mozart: The Magic Flute (a Zoom presentation)

Join us for a facinating and musical presentation given by Phillis Hyken:

- The life of Mozart, especially during his last year when "The Magic Flute" was composed.
- How the opera came to be written. What does free masonry have to do with it?
- The story of the opera along with musical examples that demonstrate the variety and ingenuity of Mozart. The presentation will include pictures to further illuminate the talk.

RSVP at KolRinahStl.org or 314.727.1747

Tuesday,
Apr. 12
7:30 pm

PASSOVER SCAVENGER HUNT at Kol Rinah

Experience the story of Passover with your family! Join us for a scavenger hunt at Kol Rinah, all about Passover! A series of stations will be set up around Kol Rinah, and families will go through them together. This event is geared toward children 5 and under and their families. Sign up for a timeslot.

Verein Presents a Series: Jews in Science #14

Back by popular demand we will once again enjoy Larry Friedman's brilliant presentation of Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg; and the timing is perfect; Right now - Mid April - the US Senate is holding hearings on the newest Supreme Court Justice Nominee, Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson. Do not miss a chance to hear about the perhaps greatest Jewish Supreme Court Justice, whose Jewish values always helped her guide her important decisions. RSVP at kolrinahstl.org

Learn to Chant Torah (Torah Reading Class)

Learn (or relearn) to read Torah! Cantor Patty Kaplan will teach a small class of adults the symbols and melodies associated with Torah trope and prepare them to chant from a Torah scroll at a public service of their choosing. Whether you're new to reading Torah, or you haven't read in decades and would like a refresher course, you're invited to join this eight-week class. (DATES: February 28, March 7, 14, 21, 28 April 11, 18, 25)

Learners' Service (4th Sunday each month)

Starting Jan. 30 we will offer a hybrid program live and on Zoom, overlapping with and expanding our Sunday morning minyan (at 8am) in the Kol Rinah sanctuary. Each month, we will abbreviate parts of the morning service and spend a half an hour discussing and learning about specific prayers, blessings, and other service elements.
