Thank You!

We thank everyone who sent tributes for our anniversary and for Marvin's birthday. We appreciate everyone's good wishes.

Marvin & Dorrie Lerner

Dear Kol Rinah Friends and Family,
Your outpouring of sympathy at my father's passing are so dearly appreciated. Thank you all for your visits to the funeral home - whether for visitation or the funeral - and the many, many tributes, cards, notes, emails and phone calls expressing your sympathy. They meant a lot to me.

I will continue to live my life as my father did - brave, caring, sympathetic, generous, mentor and friend. Sincerely,

Nancy Greene

Verein Presents a Series: Jews in Science #12

Louis Brandeis - first Jew on the Supreme Court: Prior to his appointment to the Court in 1916, Brandeis was known as the "People's Lawyer," advocating on behalf of the public interest, thus honoring his Jewish roots. Throughout his career he applied scientific principles to law and policy. In 1907 he introduced a new form of legal writing when he filed what has come to be known as the Brandeis Brief, a document which used social research and data, and not just legal arguments. Brandeis popularized the term "scientific management" in arguing why railroads should be denied rate increases even though they faced rising labor costs. For more information contact: richardjrgavatin@gmail.com

Learners' Service (4th Sunday each month)

Starting Jan. 30 we will offer a hybrid program live and on Zoom, overlapping with and expanding our Sunday morning minyan (at 8am) in the Kol Rinah sanctuary. Each month, we will abbreviate parts of the morning service and spend a half an hour discussing and learning about specific prayers, blessings, and other service elements. JCRC Winter Outreach

The unhoused in St. Louis are faced with bitterly cold winter weather. To keep our neighbors warm, the Jewish Community Relations Council is organizing our 4th annual Winter Outreach. In partnership with St. Louis Jewish organizations and State Representative Kimberly Ann Collins, we will be collecting donations of new and gently used blankets, pillows, coats, hats, scarves, gloves, boots, and clothes as well as new underwear, socks, towels, washcloths and toiletries. You can drop off donations at Kol Rinah between December 7th and February 15th.
