REMEMBERING

In keeping with the practice observed by many Conservative congregations, the Woodbury Jewish Center has prepared this Book of Remembrance which contains the text of the Yizkor Memorial Service and the names of those departed submitted by their loved ones.

This booklet will be distributed to our worshipers for use during the Yizkor Service for Yom Kippur as well as for the Memorial Services conducted at other times during the year.

This booklet is provided in the hope that you will find it both useful and meaningful, not only as an instrument of prayer, but also as a vehicle through which we honor those who have departed in body, but live on in our hearts and minds.

יִי מֶה־אָדָם וְתִדְעֶהוּ, בֶּן־אָנוּשׁ וְתַחֲשִׁבֶהוּ.
אָדָם לְהַבִּיל דָּמָה, יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בְּבֹקֶר יֵצֵא וְחֶלֶף, לָעֶרֶב יִמּוּלֵל וַיָּבֶשׁ.
תָּשִׁב אָנוּשׁ עַד־דָּכָא, וְתֹאמַר שׁוּבוּ בְנֵי־אָדָם.
שׁוּבָה יִי, עַד־מָתִי, וְהִנָּחֵם עַל־עֲבֹדִיךָ.

There is a time for everything,
for all things under the sun:
A time to be born and a time to die,
a time to laugh and a time to cry;

*a time to dance and a time to mourn,
a time to seek and a time to lose,
a time to forget and a time to remember.*

This day in sacred convocation
we remember those who gave us life.

We remember those who enriched our lives with love and beauty, kindness and compassion, thoughtfulness and understanding.

We renew our bonds to those who have gone the way of all the earth, to those whose memory moves us this day.

*As we reflect upon them, we seek consolation,
and the strength and the insight born of faith.*

As a parent shows love to a child
Adonai embraces all who are faithful.

*God knows how we are fashioned,
remembers that we are dust.*

Our days are as grass;
we flourish as a flower in the field.
The wind passes over it and it is gone,
and no one can recognize where it grew.

*But Adonai's compassion for those who are steadfast, God's tenderness to children's children,
remain, age after age, unchanging.*

Three score and ten our years may number,
four score years if granted the vigor.
Laden with trouble and travail,
life quickly passes; it flies away.

*What are mortals, eternal God,
That You should be mindful of them?*

What are mortals, that You should take note of them,
That You have made them little less than angels?

*The sounds of infants attest to Your power;
the magnificence of life reflects Your glory.
The heavens display Your splendor.
What majesty is Yours throughout the world!*

Teach us to use all of our days,
That we may attain a heart of wisdom.

*Bless us with Your love in the morning,
That we may joyously sing all our days.*

O Lord, as we recall all our departed and the blessings they הַנְּשָׁמָה לָךְ וְהַגּוֹי פְּעֻלָּתְךָ, חִוְסָה עַל עַמְּךָ

The soul is Yours, and the body is Your handiwork, have mercy on the fruit of Your labors bequeathed unto us, we pray to You to keep their souls united with ours in the bond of life. May our faith, like theirs, be strong, our devotion to the Torah unfaltering, our love for Zion constant, and our concern for Israel and humanity unceasing. For as we identify ourselves with the life, hopes and traditions of an eternal people, we ourselves take on the aspect of eternity. May we so live that when our years draw to a close, we too, shall be remembered for good and for blessing. Amen

Each congregant silently reads the appropriate passages from among those which follow. Personal meditations may also be added.

A Prayer for Those Not Saying Yizkor for Parents

The following prayer may be recited by worshippers who are blessed by having their parents still living while others are reciting Yizkor:

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, I at this solemn moment raise my eyes unto You, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart thank You for Your mercies in having preserved the lives of my beloved father and mother.

May it be Your will, Adonai my God and God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their affection and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe unto them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it comes too late.

Shield my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to You and to all whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart, my Creator in Heaven.

Amen.

קִדְשֵׁת הַשֵּׁם, וּבַעֲזָרַת אֱלֹהֵי מַעֲרָכוֹת יִשְׂרָאֵל הֵבִיאוּ לְתַקּוּמַת
הָאֲמָה וְהַמְדִּינָה וְלִגְאֻלַּת הָאָרֶץ וְעִיר הָאֱלֹהִים. מִנְּשָׁרִים קָלוּ

שֶׁבָּנוּ עַד עוֹלָם. אָמֵן.

May God remember the souls of His heroic children: The fighters of the Israel Defense Forces, who fell in the wars of Israel, in defensive, retaliative, and security actions and during the fulfillment of their duty, including the souls of the underground fighters and brigades who fought in the national struggle - all those who sacrificed their lives for the sanctification of God's Name.

And with the help of God, the Lord of Israel's campaigns, they brought about the revival of the nation and the state and the redemption of the land and the city of God.

They were quicker than eagles and stronger than lions as they volunteered to assist the nation, and they saturated our holy land with their pure blood.

The memory of their self-sacrifice and heroic deeds will never disappear from us. May their souls be bound in the Bond of Life with the souls of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and with the souls of the other heroes and martyrs of Israel who are in the Garden of Eden. Amen.

In memory of the six million:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant infinite rest in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and pure, to the souls of our brethren who perished in the Shoah - men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered and suffocated and burned to ashes. May their memory endure, and inspire deeds of charity and goodness in our lives. May their souls thus be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant infinite rest in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and pure, to the souls of all our beloved who have gone to their eternal home. Merciful One, we ask that our loved ones find perfect peace in Your tender embrace, their memory enduring as inspiration for commitment to their ideals and integrity in our lives. MEDITATION FOR OUR CONGREGANTS

In memory of congregants:

We lovingly recall these members of our congregation who no longer dwell upon this earth.

HONORA WASSERMAN

They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those no longer with us, whom we remember this day. May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say Amen.

KINDLING THE Yahrzeit LIGHT:

The yahrzeit candle should burn from sunset to sunset, on the anniversary of the day of death according to the Hebrew calendar. A selection from Psalms or other passages found in this book may be read. There is no special prayer or benediction that must be recited. It is appropriate to meditate briefly - silently or aloud. Some suggested reflections follow:

- I now recall my dear _____ who has gone to his/her eternal home. May his/her soul be bound up in the bond of life, in peace. Amen.
- Zekher tzadik l'vrakhah. The memory of the righteous is a blessing. May my life continue to embrace the life and deeds, the words and thoughts of _____ who has gone to his/her eternal home. May he/she rest in peace. Amen.
- O merciful God, I turn to You in prayer on the yahrzeit of the death of my dear _____. Be with me as I stand in remembrance and in loving recollection. As I light this candle in his/her memory, I put my trust in You.
- Renew my strength, O Lord. I am grateful for the years of the life of _____. Help me to understand how my life has been formed and shaped by what he/she was and by what he/she did. Help me to make part of my life a living monument of holiness to his/her memory. May he/she rest in peace. Amen.

WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

*At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*At the beginning of the year and at its end,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

*When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.*

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them

*When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.*

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

*When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.*

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

PSALM 23

A Psalm of David

תְּהִלִּים כ"ג

מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד

יְיָ רֹעִי לֹא אֶחְסָר.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

בְּנֵאוֹת דֶּשֶׁא יִרְבִּיצֵנִי

He gives me repose in green meadows.

עַל-מֵי מְנוּחוֹת יְנַהֲלֵנִי. נַפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבֵב

He leads me beside the still waters to revive my spirit.

יְנַחֲנִי בַמַּעְגָּלִי-צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

He guides me on the right path, for that is His nature.

גַּם כִּי-אֵלֶךְ בְּגִיא צִלְמוֹת לֹא-אִירָא רָע כִּי-אַתָּה עִמָּדִי,

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are with me.

שִׁבְטְךָ וּמִשְׁעֶנְתְּךָ הֵמָּה יְנַחֲמֵנִי.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שִׁלְחֹן נֹגֵד צָרָרִי,

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes.

דִּשְׁנָתְךָ בְּשֶׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי כּוֹסֵי רְנוּחָה.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

אַךְ טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל-יְמֵי חַיִּי,

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life.

וְשִׁבְתִּי בְּבֵית-יְיָ לְאֻלָּם יָמִים.

And I shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

May God's name be exalted and hallowed throughout the world that God created, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be accepted, during our life and the life of all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May God's great name be praised throughout all time.

Glorified and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed may the Holy One be, praised [far] beyond all song and psalm, beyond all tributes that mortals can utter. And let us say: Amen.

Let there be abundant peace from heaven, with life's goodness for us and for all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May the One who brings peace to the universe bring peace to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

IN LASTING REMEMBRANCE

The synagogue is our religious home and the meeting place in which we focus our spiritual energies in song and prayer. In supporting the sacred function and role of our synagogue, we give life to the memory of those who have preceded us.

It is a longstanding Jewish custom and tradition to give tzedakah to the synagogue in honor of our departed loved ones. By honoring them in this way we serve the living, and in doing so, perpetuate the memory of the departed.

There are many opportunities available at Woodbury Jewish Center to do so. Some of these include:

Support of the Kol Nidre Appeal
Donation of Prayer Books and Chumashim
Memorial Plaques and Yahrzeit Donations
Tree of Life

Of the many mitzvot incumbent upon us, the advancement of the teaching of Torah and the raising of another generation of Jews committed to our faith are of primary importance. Support of our synagogue in the name of our departed helps insure that “the memory of the righteous shall be for a blessing.”

We urge you to give generously in this spirit. For further information or to discuss a special wish you may have, please contact the synagogue office at 516-496-9100 x120.
