WOODBURY JEWISH CENTER SHABBAT MORNING AUF RUF INFORMATION FORM

Date of Event (mm/dd/yyyy)

Woodbury Jewish Center

Important: Please complete this form neatly and accurately

	English Name	Jewish Names May be Written in Hebrew or Transliterated to English			K, L or Y*
		Jewish Name	Father's Jewish Name	Mother's Jewish Name
Groom-to-be:
Bride-to-be:

Only Jewish people may be given aliyot. Nonmember Families receive one aliyah for the Groom-to-be and the Bride-to-be.
Member Families are also granted a second (group) aliyah for the parents of the groom-to-be and the bride-to-be. Check here if you wish to accept this honor: ☐
Only living relatives should be listed on this form. The Jewish Names in the section below are only required for Member Families:

Aliyah	English Name	Relation to Bride/Groom	Jewish Names May be Written in Hebrew or Transliterated to English			K, L or Y*
			Jewish Name	Father's Jewish Name	Mother's Jewish Name
(M)		Groom's Father
(F)		Groom's Mother
(M)		Bride's Father
(F)		Bride's Mother

 Optional. Specify Mother's name if you wish both parents named when honoree is called to the Torah

* Kohen, Levi or Yisrael

Other Living Relatives:

English Name	Relation to Bride/Groom

Date of Wedding

	Contact Information
Form completed by Telephone Number(s)
e-mail address

This form must be completed and delivered to the WJC Office no later than 4 weeks prior to the Auf Ruf event
Please contact Paul Chaskes (516-364-2968, pachaskes@gmail.com) if you have questions
Important reminders: Please read each of the reminders below and check the boxes (online version: enter an x) to assent

- ☐ Proper attire must be worn by all who ascend. Men: Jacket. Women: modest attire (not overly brief or revealing), head covering/no purse while at the bima.
- ☐ Guests must observe proper decorum in the synagogue: No talking in the sanctuary, no smoking, photography or cellphone usage on Shabbat.
- ☐ Honorees should be properly prepared: Those with aliyot must know the blessings. Those with readings should review them in advance.
- ☐ Make sure all honorees are seated in the sanctuary in time for their honors. The Torah service begins around 9:30 AM.
- ☐ Packages and gifts should not be brought in or out of the synagogue on Shabbat.