

Congregation Olam Tikvah
Application for Camp Scholarships

Congregation Olam Tikvah has established guidelines for requesting need-based financial assistance for Jewish summer programs. Through generous donations to the Brissman/Miller/Samuels College & Youth Fund, limited financial assistance is available to Olam Tikvah youth whose parents are members in good standing, current with synagogue fees, or who have made prior arrangements regarding payments or waiver of fees. To apply for financial aid, please complete the attached form and return it via email or hard copy to Olam Tikvah, Attn: Rochelle Goldberg by December 29. Notifications will be made by January 15. All requests for financial aid and all decisions will remain completely confidential.

Consideration for assistance for a summer program will be given if 1) it is an overnight program; 2) Shabbat is observed; and 3) kashrut is observed. This includes but is not limited to programs of the Conservative movement as well as Jewish camps that satisfy the above conditions.

We will notify all applicants of financial aid decisions by mail by January 15. All funds will be sent directly to the organizations, not the family applying. Please note that if your child(ren) do not attend camp for any reason, Olam Tikvah will contact the camp for a refund of the scholarship amount.

This form is not connected to teen travel to Israel which is supported through Olam Tikvah's Stahl Family Experience Israel program. For more information, please contact Rochelle Goldberg at rgoldberg@olamtikvah.org.

If you have additional questions about funding, eligibility, or eligible programs, please contact Rochelle Goldberg.

Thank you,
