A Yizkor Blessing

RABBI BRADLEY SHAVIT ARTSON

ברוך אשר ברא אתכם בדין והמית אתכם בדין ועתיד להעמיד אתכם בדין

Blessed is the One who created you in judgment, who brought death to you in judgment, and who will raise you up in judgment.

Pesikta Rabbati, Piska 12:1

G-d's love shines in the wise judgment to create us - finite and precious - aware at each moment and especially at this sacred moment, that our time is limited, that we will each join our mothers and fathers who have gone the way of all the earth, that we are eternally dying and learning thereby to live.

G-d's firm judgment imposes upon us the awareness of dying which spurs us to live our lives in desperate appreciation, numbering and living each day to the full, illumined and inspired by the memories of our dear ones who have already offered up their lives to the eternal renewal of life itself, and of the cosmos.

Their memory and love raises us up in this world, as better people, as more caring and more courageous than we would have been without their deeds of love. We are embraced and fortified by their continuing impact in our hearts and our actions.

We gather, strong in memory and faith, affirming that G-d will raise up our lives in this world, and one day will raise us up to them, all of us embraced by a love eternal, persistent, and redeeming.

And let us say, "Amen."

Caring for our Bereaved

Marshall Folk

There are many ways for members to become involved in supporting our Beth Sholom family. For me, one very special honor is that I participate as a member of the Beth Sholom Shiva Leader Team. I have had the privilege of being a shiva leader for the past 20 years and consider it one of the more important activities in which I have been involved as a long-standing and active member.

I remember back many years ago, before I knew how to lead prayer services, I needed someone to lead services when my mother passed away. It was a very sensitive and emotional time for me. I felt supported and cared for when members of my community stepped up and provided this deeply important service.

Beth Sholom is blessed with so many member families that it is not possible for the rabbi and the cantor to lead every shiva of such a large congregation. This is where our Beth Sholom shiva leaders perform their mitzvahs. A shiva leader is typically a regular minyan attendee who is well versed in leading the weekday morning, afternoon, and evening services. When a shiva is taking place, usually in our members' homes, a person who knows how to daven and to lead a group of people in prayer is needed twice every day lasting the entire shiva.

The team of 17 volunteer shiva leaders performs great mitzvahs, not only for the family in mourning, but also for ourselves. It is extremely meaningful and a great honor for me to lead services for a bereaved family at their house of shiva, each and every time that I have been requested to help.

I encourage mourners to continue saying Kaddish after the end of shiva, for the full duration needed. I invite them to meet me at synagogue so can continue supporting them in prayer, so they have someone to stand with and to be with. For this they always thank me as they now have a connection when they first come to the synagogue to say kaddish.

Many mourners have become regular attendees at our daily services so that they too can support others saying Kaddish. It is a wonderfully supportive group, with great camaraderie (the morning breakfast is pretty great too)!

While hope you wil never have the need for a shiva leader, you should know this volunteer team is here for you.

What is Yahrzeit?

Yahrzeit is the anniversary of the death of a dear one. It is observed each year on the Hebrew anniversary of the day of death.

The following observances are the traditional way to mark a Yahrzeit. A special 24-hour Yahrzeit candle should be kindled in the home on the eve of the anniversary of death and allowed to burn throughout the next day. Every effort should be made to say Kaddish in the synagogue on the evening and day of the Yahrzeit. Jewish tradition also encourages the performance of mitzvot on the day, such as studying a portion of the Torah; leading the davening at a service; and giving a donation in memory of the departed to a religious, educational, or philanthropic cause. This way we fulfill the traditional hope: “The memory of the righteous should serve as a blessing.”

What is Yizkor?

Yizkor is without a doubt, one of Judaism’s most emotional rituals. In this moment we recall the memories of all the people we loved, those who gave us life and nurtured us, those with whom we shared time and love, and all of those who were family.

The word Yizkor is derived from the Hebrew word zachor, which means simply “to remember.” On this day we remember all those who gave our lives the meaning and depth that make our lives what they are.

The history of Yizkor is fascinating. Many authorities are of the opinion that Yizkor began in earnest in the Middle Ages. As the Christian states of Europe expanded and grew, they looked to conquer Jerusalem and have it under Christian control. This became the foundation and reason behind the Crusades, which led many armies through Europe to wage battle for control of Israel and Jerusalem. Sadly, as the Crusaders made their way out of Europe to Israel they ran through many Jewish towns and villages. Countless numbers of Jews were raped, maimed, and murdered at the hands of these armies.

Yizkor Traditions

The custom of reciting Yizkor during the four major Jewish Holy Days has a number of interesting connections. The first reason might be that the Holy Days were the few times of the year when nearly every Jew attended synagogue services at the same time. This collective union certainly gave thought to all those who were not there: thus the need to remember them.

The second reason given is that the major Jewish Holy Days also re-emphasize the great need for charity. It has been an ancient Jewish custom to see that every hungry person in town was in a home for mealtime, because no meal could be considered happy if even one person was left hungry. In our own times we dedicate charity and kindness to the memories of those we loved, because when we do, the feeling is that they are still very much alive.

While they are not alive in body, they are certainly alive in spirit and action. This is one of the reasons why the Talmud (Bavli, Ta'anit 5.2) teaches us that Jacob has never been thought of as dead. In our minds Jacob is still very much alive because his children carry on his legacy and spirit. We are those children, and his legacy is the Jewish nation.

Indeed, those scholars asked, "How can Ya'akov still be thought of as alive? Did he not die? Was he not put into a coffin? Was he not buried?" And in reply, the famous Rabbi Yochanan answered, "But we are still alive, aren't we ...?"

So too, remember today that your loved ones are alive. They live not only in your actions but also in your heart and soul. Truly, this is as close as anyone can ever be to you.

Yizkor Message from Rabbi Flanzraich

“I spend time with people who are suffering. The kinds of suffering which are known to us all – illness, setbacks, strife and death. And I have also come to know beyond a compassionate word and a caring heart sometimes a small gesture of humour spoken in the right moment in the right way can bring extraordinary comfort to someone. And this is because in those moments when all seems lost to us; those moments of pain, heartache and loss we want to believe that as the sun which has set will yet again rise. This is not to say that everything will go back to the way it was but it is to say that some kind of return is possible. The person’s visit, a smile, a small laugh opens the window for a crack of light to come to us.

Which if true is doubly true for death - above all else we need to know how to see again because death blinds us. It is for that reason we don’t say Yizkor every day even though we feel its message every day.

That reason is to be found in a person we think we know very well after all he appears at some of the richest moments of our lives. He is at the Pesach seder and we pour a 5th cup of wine for his arrival. At a Brit Milah a chair is reserved specifically for him in order that he can witness another soul being brought into our ancient covenant.

The person is Eliyahu, Elijah the prophet. And the answer is at the end of his life

When his time to leave the earth was approaching he tries to tell his beloved disciple Elisha to let him go.

“Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here, for the Lord has sent me on to Bethel.”

“As the Lord lives and as you live,” said Elisha, “I will not leave you.”

So they went down to Bethel.

Disciples of the prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him,

“Do you know G-d will take your master away from you today?”

He replied, “I know it, too; be silent.”

Then Elijah said to him, “Elisha, stay here, for the Lord has sent me on to Jericho.”

“As the Lord lives and as you live,” said Elisha, “I will not leave you.”

So they went on to Jericho.

The disciples of the prophets who were at Jericho came over to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that G-d will take your master away from you today?"

He replied, "I know it, too; be silent."

Elijah said to him, "Stay here, for the Lord has sent me on to the Jordan."
"As the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you"

Elisha was not prepared to let go of his master who he considered to be not just his teacher, but his spiritual father. Pleadingly, finally Eliyahu says;

if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted to you;

That if he lets go, if Elisha the student stays and watches his passing then not only would he be great, but that his greatness would surpass that of Eliyahu's. Which is exactly what Elisha ends up doing. And he finds greatness for himself. But the painful irony is we don't remember Elisha, or have a cup at the seder or a chair at a Brit. B we do for Eliyahu. And I wonder if it is because he was the one who taught Elisha how to face loss.

I think about this often.

Because these moments are filled with ambivalence. We try to comfort ourselves with knowing what has been left in their wake. A mother, father, spouse, child, friend. I won't lie to myself or to you - to those who have loved there is no ultimate comfort. Maybe at the best comfort is found in a strength to carry on. Elijah's lesson is meaningful to us but also imperfect: a loss suffered once is a loss suffered forever.

Judaism's faith is not only in the story of what we accomplish by our hands but even greater is the inspiration we give to the hands of those who come after us. For this reason we aren't reconciled with the deaths of those we love - our pain inspires us to build, grow, and continue to carry their lives forward. Not resigning ourselves to their passing is the pulse to this kind of life.

But perhaps it is the words of the poet Edna St. Vincent Millay which says it best of all:

I am not resigned to the shutting away of loving hearts in the hard ground.

So it is, and so it will be, for so it has been, time out of mind:

Into the darkness they go, the wise and the lovely. Crowned

With lilies and with laurel they go; but I am not resigned.

Down, down, down into the darkness of the grave
Gently they go, the beautiful, the tender, the kind;
Quietly they go, the intelligent, the witty, the brave.
I know.
But I do not approve.
And I am not resigned.”

ONE MORE CANDLE

The One More Candle initiative is an opportunity to adopt the name of a child murdered during the Holocaust. Many children have no one to say Kaddish for them. This ensures someone remembers that they lived by saying his or her name out loud every year. Add light to the darkness. Light one more candle.

For more details on how to adopt the name of a perished child, visit www.onemorecandle.org

Members are encouraged to attend our daily minyan services, as it builds community by ensuring there is a minyan for those in our Beth Sholom family who need to say Kaddish.

Beth Sholom Synagogue supports the One More Candle project. The project's aim is to remember each of the 1.5 million children who perished in the Shoah; to remember that these children lived and laughed and were loved. Many have no one to remember they existed. The Beth Sholom community has, to date, adopted the memory of 47 children who perished in the Shoah, one for each day of the Hebrew calendar year (starting with Jan. 1, 1942 - corresponding to 12 Tevet), including both Adar I and II. These children were all 8 or 9 years old when they perished and are listed by their Hebrew date of death.

The Yizkor Service

Eternal G-d, in whose eyes a thousand years are but a yesterday, in whose hands are the souls of the living and the dead, in Your sight every soul is precious.

O L-rd, from whom we come, to whom we belong, and to whom we shall return, strengthen us as we now remember our loved ones who have been reunited with You. Be with us as we consecrate the hour to the memory of our departed.

שְׁוִיִּתִּי י-הוּה לְנֶגְדִי תָמִיד, כִּי מִיָּמִינִי בָל-אֲמוּט:
לְכֹן שָׁמַח לְבִי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדִי, אַף-בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֹּן לְבֶטֶח:

I have set the Eternal before me always,
G-d is at my right hand; I shall not fail.
Therefore my heart rejoices, my whole being exults,
And my body rests secure.
(Psalm 16:8,9)

Eternal G-d, we have come to sanctify our fleeting lives by linking them with Yours, O Life of all Ages. In You, O L-rd, generations past, present, and future are united in one bond of life.

At this sacred hour, we are keenly aware of those individuals through whom we have come to know of Your grace and love. Much of this wisdom, beauty, and affection that have enriched our lives are the garnered fruits of our communion with others.

Many of those to whom we owe so much are alive and with us today. We pray that we may be able to reward their goodness and their devotion to us through acts of love and loyalty.

But others have passed forever from our midst, leaving us a heritage of tender memories which now fill our minds and hearts.

A Reading from Kohelet

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to tear, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time for war, and a time for peace.

What profit has he who works in that in which he labours? ... G-d has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man cannot find out the work that G-d has done from the beginning even to the end. I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labour, is the gift of G-d.

(Ecclesiastes 3:1–13)

A Prayer of Thanksgiving for the Health and Well-being of One's Family

For those remaining in the Sanctuary but not reciting Yizkor

Father in Heaven, I stand amid the congregation of Israel who pour out their hearts before You, and who are remembering their parents and family who have gone to their eternal rest.

As for me, I offer You my most profound gratitude, for, in Your great loving-kindness, there is no grief in my heart or tear on my cheek. For my father, mother, (brother / sister / husband / wife / children) and my family are all with me; none is missing. They ask life of You. You give it to them.

Therefore, my heart rejoices in the knowledge that my near family has been spared anxiety. May the L-rd preserve them from evil. May He watch over their every movement.

May the L-rd prolong their days in happiness that they behold children and grandchildren occupying themselves with religious practice and the study of the Torah.

I have entreated Your favour with my whole heart. Be gracious unto me according to Your promise.

The memory of your life, dear father, rises before me. I recall your devotion and sacrifice for my welfare, the many comforts with which you provided me. Untiring were your endeavours to direct me on the path of virtue and kindness, to enrich my mind and ennoble my heart. You rejoiced in my achievements, guided me in my perplexities, and strengthened me in my trials and disappointments. The passing of years cannot dim the blessed memories you have left behind.

O G-d, our Father, grant that the memory of my father's life may inspire me to put to noblest use the best that is in me, loyally to uphold the heritage of Judaism which he transmitted to me, and to be faithful to the ideals which he taught me. May his soul be bound up in the bond of life together with the souls of all the righteous that are in Your keeping. Amen.

As I stand here, dear mother, I feel the closeness of your spirit. You gave me life, guided my first steps, and nursed me through all the illnesses of childhood and youth. From your lips I heard the word of G-d and learned to keep His commandments. Many were your sacrifices through kindly deeds and love so freely given for my well-being. What I have achieved is due to your influence; what I am, I have become through you.

O Heavenly Father, may I ever keep in mind that my highest tribute to bonds formed in G-d's presence, our love and companionship, the hardships and pleasures, trials and triumphs, joys and sorrows that we shared together. The delight of my life, you dispelled my fears, encouraged me when things went wrong, and stood by me when I most needed you. I recall the many hours we spent together in devoted comradeship sharing the love and traditions of our home and family. Deep is my sorrow at your departure. Death has deprived us of many joys together. Your years were too few for those who loved you, but your kindness and understanding will never be forgotten. Love does not perish even in death.

O Heavenly Father, grant that the soul of my dear one be bound up in the bond of life together with the souls of all the righteous that are in Your keeping. Amen.

Though death has separated us, the memories of your life on earth remain ever vivid. I recall those days when you shared in our family joys and I fondly remember your interest in my welfare. May G-d grant that I shall emulate all that was good and lovely, true and righteous in your life.

Remembering your example, may I always endeavour to live blamelessly and uprightly.

O Heavenly Father, grant that the soul of my dear one be bound up in the bond of life together with the souls of all the righteous that are in Your keeping. Amen.

Please remember, O L-rd, the souls of our brave and beloved sons and daughters who have served in the armed forces of the State of Israel—on land, air, and sea. They who have served and died in the many defensive operations, all for the sake of Your name and the lives of Your people and the Land of Israel. They fell, all like the mighty, in the War of Independence, in the Sinai War, the Six Day War, the Yom Kippur War, the War of Attrition, and in the campaign Shalom HaGalil.

At this time we also recall the lives of not only the soldiers, but the citizens of the State of Israel who have fallen victim to terrorism — men, women, and children — and were murdered.

Because we all gather and pray for their souls, remembering their awesome sacrifices, we ask that You remember their great and loving deeds.

May their souls be bound up in the bonds of our nation's life — theirs, along with the many other brave, sacrificed lives who have found true peace in the shadow of Your eternal love. Amen.

Our G-d, exalted and full of compassion, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence amongst the holy and the pure to the souls of our loved ones, and the lost millions of the people of Israel who were killed with violence and hate at the hand of the Nazis.

As we gather here today as a nation to pray and remember the souls of those we have loved and lost, we ask that they should find eternal rest in Your presence. We implore You, our G-d, to shelter them in the shadow of Your eternal love, giving them their true and perfect peace. Amen.

Prayers upon Entering a Cemetery

One who has not seen a Jewish person's grave within the last thirty days recites the following:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר יָצַר אֶתְכֶם בְּדִין, וְזָן
וְכִלְכַּל אֶתְכֶם בְּדִין, וְהֵמִית אֶתְכֶם בְּדִין, וְיִוִּדַע מִסְפָּר כָּלְכֶם בְּדִין, וְהוּא עֲתִיד לְהַחְיֹתְכֶם וּלְקַיֵּם אֶתְכֶם בְּדִין. בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי מְחִיָּה הַמֵּתִים.

Blessed are You, Eternal, our G-d, Ruler of the universe, Who fashioned you with justice, nourished and sustained you with justice, took your lives with justice, knows the sum total of all of you with justice, and will restore and resuscitate you with judgment. Blessed are You, Eternal, Who resuscitates the dead.

אַתָּה גְּבוּר לְעוֹלָם אֲדֹנִי. מְחִיָּה מֵתִים אַתָּה, רַב לְהוֹשִׁיעַ: מְכֻלְכַּל
חַיִּים בְּחֶסֶד. מְחִיָּה מֵתִים בְּרַחֲמִים רַבִּים. סוֹמֵךְ נּוֹפְלִים, וְרוֹפֵא
חוֹלִים וּמַתִּיר אֲסוּרִים. וּמְקַיֵּם אֱמוּנָתוֹ לִישְׁנֵי עָפָר מִי כְמוֹךָ בַּעַל
גְּבוּרוֹת וּמִי דוֹמָה לָךְ. מֶלֶךְ מֵמִית וּמְחִיָּה וּמַצְמִיחַ יְשׁוּעָה: וְנֶאֱמָן
אַתָּה לְהַחְיֹת מֵתִים:

You are eternally mighty, my Lord, the Resuscitator of the dead are You; abundantly able to save. He sustains the living with kindness, resuscitates the dead with abundant mercy, supports the fallen, heals the sick, releases the confined, and maintains His faith to those asleep in the dust. Who is like You, O Master of mighty deeds, and who is comparable to You, O Ruler, Who causes death and restores life and makes salvation sprout. And You are faithful to resuscitate the dead.

Upon reaching the grave, it is customary to place one's left hand on the monument and recite the following verses (from Isaiah 58:11,12):

וְהָיִיתָ כְּגֵן רוּחַ וּכְמוֹצָא מַיִם אֲשֶׁר לֹא יִכָּזְבוּ מִימּוֹ:

At One's Mother's Grave

Here is buried the body of my mother who sustained and nurtured me, and who endured much pain all her days to raise me, and all my needs were upon her. She led me in the path of Torah and fear of G-d. Alas, she has gone the way of all mortals. The mother of the children has fallen, she has left her children. For me, none like unto her is left, a compassionate leader always prepared to do good for me. Behold now that I am in difficult straits, I have come here. I went to the vale of tears, to the house of my mother, to the chamber of my parent. Behold she is garbed in a shroud, and her spirit has ascended above. Peace be unto her, and peace be unto her soul and spirit. "From amongst all the women in the tent is she blessed," and the glory of G-d should shine upon her. May Your mercy be aroused for me, G-d, my Rock, that You should hear the voice of my supplication.

Please, O Awesome and Holy One, forgive all of my sins and sustain me from Your heavens with produce, bread, and sustenance. Be not deaf to my tears. Redeem me from descending to the pit, and may I not lack my bread. Grant me the privilege to see children and grandchildren engaged in Torah, mitzvot, and fear of G-d. Upon my knees may three and four generations be born, people of valour who fear the L-rd.

At One's Father's Grave

In the darkness of this grave rests the body of my father. All the treasures which were mine from days of yore are sunk here. The holy spirit of my dear father, who walked with integrity and uprightness before You, has soared into the eternal world. You shelter him under Your protective wings. Selah.

I pray, hearken unto the voice of my prayer and turn to good all the dreams that I dreamt for myself and those that my friends dreamt for me. Bestow upon me the priestly blessings. Fulfill all the desires of my heart for good in the merit of all the righteous, pious, and holy men and women who are buried here and who died to sanctify Your name, and in the merit of all righteous and pious people of the world. "May the expressions of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart find favour before You, Eternal, my Rock, and my Redeemer."

וּבָנוּ מִמֶּדֶד חֲרָבוֹת עוֹלָם מוֹסְדֵי דוֹר־וְדוֹר תִּקְוָם,
וְקָרָא לָךְ גִּידֵר פֶּרֶץ מְשֻׁבָּב נְתִיבוֹת לְשָׁבֶת:

The Eternal will guide you always; G-d will slake your thirst in parched places and give strength to your bones. And you shall be like a watered garden, and like a never-failing spring of water.

From you, the ancient ruins will be rebuilt; you will re-establish the structures of the generations. They will call you "the one who repairs the breach and resettles the ways of civilization."

Then one says:

For a female:

תִּשְׁכַּב בְּשָׁלוֹם וְתִישָׁן בְּשָׁלוֹם עַד בֹּא מְנַחֵם
מִשְׁמִיעַ שָׁלוֹם.

For a male:

תִּשְׁכַּב בְּשָׁלוֹם וְתִישָׁן בְּשָׁלוֹם עַד בֹּא מְנַחֵם
מִשְׁמִיעַ שָׁלוֹם.

Lie in peace and rest in peace until the coming of the Consoler Who will announce peace.

When placing one's hand on the monument, one should think of the verse "From you, the ancient ruins will be rebuilt," quoted above (Isa. 58:12), which contains fifteen Hebrew words, like the number of joints in the hand.
