I’m honored and delighted to have the privilege of serving our Temple Beth El community and family as President for the 2019-2020 year, and aspire for a year dedicated to unity and inclusiveness.

I am blessed to have a terrific team, including the devoted members of the Temple Board, our dedicated Temple Executive Director, Shai Habosha, our highly revered Rabbi Allan Tuffs and adored Cantor Manny, as well as our committed Temple staff.

Throughout the coming year, we look forward to providing our synagogue community with a multitude of varied, rewarding, and engaging programs and activities. In addition to our thoughtful and inspiring Shabbat and Jewish High Holy Days services, we offer an exemplary religious school program very capably led by Educational Director Barbara Bell Segal, and a slew of adult education courses and opportunities.

Of course, to provide successful programs and activities, we need and are counting on participation from our Temple family. One of the best ways to do so is by becoming an active member of one of our many committees, such as Membership, Social Action, and Fundraising. We invite you to contribute your skills, talents, creativity and efforts to Temple activities and programs, including both well-established fundraisers (such as the Progressive Dinner and Auction night), as well as new events. We also hope that you will join and partake in the activities and camaraderie of the Sisterhood or Men’s Club.

I so look forward to the journey ahead, and am grateful to work with each of you.

Sincerely,

Dirk Hansen

Do you Swear to Tell the Whole Truth and Nothing but the Truth so Help you God?

That oath used to mean something. It meant putting your integrity and reputation on the line. It meant that your testimony was based, not on what others told you had happened, or what you imagined had happened, or what you would have liked to have happened, but what you actually witnessed.

The words, “So help you God,” were meant for you to understand the consequences of your words. A half truth or a lie could land an innocent person behind bars or even worse. God was brought into the equation to remind you, that even if no one else is around to contradict your faulty or dishonest account, God would know and on some level you would be held accountable. Telling the truth was so important in the biblical tradition the injunction, “Thou shalt not give false testimony” was included in the Ten Commandments.

Recently, I looked into the origin of that old proverb, “Believe nothing you hear and only half of what you see.” It appeared in a short story written by Edgar Allan Poe in the 1840’s. The tale was set in a private hospital for the mentally ill, and these words were spoken by the head of the institution.

“You are young yet, my friend,” replied my host, “but the time will arrive when you will learn to judge for yourself of what is going on in the world, without trusting to the gossip of others. Believe nothing you hear, and only one half that you see.”

Those words are more relevant today than they were when Edgar Allen Poe penned them nearly 180 years ago. Much of what many take as truth these days is nothing more than gossip, opinion, or propaganda. Worse yet, much of what we read in the papers or on the internet are outright lies or conspiracy theories hatched in the minds of deranged people on the political fringes of society. Lies and conspiracy theories hurt individuals and wreak havoc on our most important institutions.

The damage caused by Jussie Smollet falsely reporting he was the victim of a racist homophobic hate crime is enormous. The City of Chicago diverted significant human and financial resources away from solving actual crimes to investigate a crime that never happened. What’s going to happen the next time someone reports a hate crime? We can’t calculate the damage to the credibility of real victims of these sorts of crimes in the future because of Smollet’s lies.

In a courtroom last month, Info Wars host, Alex Jones, was forced to confront the suffering he inflicted upon the parents of Sandy Hook, when he spread the idea that Sandy Hook was a “flag operation,”-nobody died, the children were paid actors, sponsored by gun control advocates. Can you image the psychological anguish parents of those slain children endured as a result of Jones’ irresponsible statements on his radio show and website.

Jones made similar claims about the tragedy at Marjorie Stone Douglas and has said 9/11 was inside job by the US government. He also reported that a pizza restaurant belonging to a Hilliary Clinton supporter was a front for trafficking young children. As a result, one of his listeners took an AR 15 rifle into that restaurant and confronted the owner.

Getting at the truth is not an easy proposition. Edgar Allen Poe warned, “Don’t believe anything you hear.” I would put it this way-don’t believe it and don’t not believe it. Be skeptical. Question the sources and the motives of the purveyors of a story. One sentence from a long speech can sound outrageous, but makes perfectly good sense when read in context. Photo editors often choose the most unflattering pictures of public figures. We have to ask ourselves, “What conclusion does the reporter want us to come to?”
MEMORIAL DAY is the unofficial start of summer. It’s my favorite time of year.

But this Memorial Day, let’s commemorate the holiday in its truest sense remembering those who gave their lives so we can live in freedom. We owe them and their families our eternal gratitude. Freedom isn’t free.

On Memorial Day I will be thinking of Michael Crescenz, who lived around the block from me when I was a little kid in Philadelphia.

Mike was one of six brothers, and they were well known in our neighborhood for being good guys who were great baseball players. They were a lively and boisterous band of brothers, and you were bound to run into at least one of them just about every day at the candy store or schoolyard across the street from my house.

I am still close friends with Mike’s brother Joe, the one closest to my age. Thanks to the wonder of email, I hear from him just about every day.

One of the childhood memories seared in my soul is the shock and sadness that swept over our neighborhood when Mike was killed in Vietnam many years ago. Every time I walked by the Crescenz home, I could feel the immense sadness and pain coming from their house.

As I delivered my paper route every morning in the predawn darkness, I would see Mike’s mother headed to church for daily Mass. Sometimes our eyes would meet and I would very respectfully say, “Good morning, Mrs. Crescenz.”

That was all I could say to my friend’s Mom. What could a young boy say to a grieving mother whose son died in war? But all these years later, I can never forget.

Neither can the people of Philadelphia or the Vietnam vets all across America. Mike was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for his heroic actions on the battlefield and there is a statue of him in downtown Philadelphia at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial. I was there last year and I placed a stone there, my own way of following the Jewish custom of placing stones at the graves of those who live on in our hearts.

Just a few years ago, the Veterans Administration Hospital in Philadelphia was renamed The Corporal Michael J Crescenz VA Medical Center.

So it’s not just on Memorial Day that I think of Mike Crescenz. I think of him quite often, and I know that I’m very lucky that I never had to go to war like he did. Like most guys my age, I never served in the armed forces. But I have enormous respect for those who did.

My Dad fought in World War II and hardly ever talked about it. But he used to lecture me and my brothers: “Thank God you were born in this country!” He gave us that speech a few times, and it made such an impression on me that I can recite the rest of it by heart.

“Do you know where my mother was born? Do you know what they did to Jews there? Thank God you were born in America!”

So on this Memorial Day, let’s commemorate the holiday in its truest sense, by remembering the fallen soldiers and giving thanks for the blessing of living in the USA. We are blessed to live in freedom.

Let’s work for the day when the words of the prophet Isaiah come true.

“Lo yisa goi el goi cherev, v’lo yilm’du od milchama.

“Nation shall not take up sword against nation; they shall never again study war.”

Summer is around the corner and here at Camp Keshet we are going to have a wide range of exciting activities in a warm and safe environment. The campers can look forward to riding the camp train and playing tennis, soccer, water play and many others fun activities. The summer will not be the same if YOU don't’ attend. Looking forward to having a memorable fun-filled summer with the kids at Camp Keshet

As our school year comes to a close, I would like to briefly reflect on the events that made the 2018-2019 school year a success. The babies in our Caterpillar class are now crawling and beginning to walk around! Our tot classes have been learning their numbers, colors, shapes and words. They’ve been smiling, laughing and making lifelong friends. Our Pre-Ks’ have been learning how to put words together, form sentences, write the alphabet and get prepared for Kindergarten!

This past year has been a joyous one, with our Friday morning Shabbat with Rabbi Tuffs and Evening Tot Shabbats. We have been giving your children a sense of Jewish tradition through arts & crafts, song & dance! Our Hanukkah show had everyone grabbing for their cameras. We have had two successful book fairs, Breakfast with Minnie, Mickey Mouse, Spiderman and a few Disney Princesses. We learned how to make Matzah and have had bake sales with tasty treats! The Purim Carnival was a blast, as was the Parade and Show!

Knowing our Pre-K kids will be graduating this June is as bittersweet as the Passover herbs, but I know our amazing teachers have prepared them for incredible years to come. Hope to see you all for the upcoming 2019-2020 year. Thank you for entrusting us with your child’s education. We are building futures together.

DAVID SMITH

David is a 7th grade honor student at Aventura City of Excellence School. He was chosen to present his Science Fair Projects in 2018 and 2019 at the Regional Fair. He is having his Bar Mitzvah on May 4, 2019. David has tremendously enjoyed learning from Cantor Manny and having lengthy conversations with Rabbi Tuffs. He loves playing Ultimate Frisbee, Flag Football, Fishing, Snow Skiing and all water sports. He also loves traveling with his family and spending quality time with his friends. David chose tutoring a less fortunate boy for his Mitzvah project. He is so excited for all of his friends and family to celebrate his Bar Mitzvah with him.

TOBI MARGOLIS

Tobi is a 10th grade student at NSU University School where she is a member of the National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society and Tri M Music Honor Society. She began her Jewish education at Temple Beth El when she was 18 months old. She has progressed through the preschool, religious school, becoming a Bat Mitzvah, volunteering as a Madrichim and now Confirmation. Tobi plays violin, piano and ukulele. She also plays tennis, has a passion for taking pictures and is a Girl Scout. Tobi is grateful for the guidance of Rabbi, Cantor, Ms. Barbara and all her other Temple Beth El teachers.

CONFIRMATION CLASS

One afternoon we were sitting after a Sisterhood meeting and talked about reaffirming our Jewish roots. Hinda Smith said she would discuss with Rabbi Tuffs the possibility of conducting a class “lunch and learn” to study for Confirmation. We started our studies in November and will be Confirmed during Shabbat services on Friday, June 14, at 7:30 in the evening. We have been studying Pirkei Avot, which translates in English as the Chapters of the Fathers – which is a compilation of the ethical teachings and maxims passed down to the Rabbis beginning with Moses. Avot is unique as it the only discussion in the Mishnah dealing with ethical and moral principles. Our weekly sessions are philosophical and deal with the worldly issues we face in our lives as Jewish women. The Confirmation class consists of Marilyn Adani, Harriet Bial, Helene Firestone, Bonnie Goner, Myrna Greenberg, Dee Levine, and Hinda Smith. Please join with us to celebrate this joyous occasion.

Who Has TIME to Add a Bar or Bat Mitzvah to the List?

With school work and extracurricular activities, kids don’t have much time for religious school. Don’t let your busy life and temple membership fees get in the way of your child becoming a Bar or Bat Mitzvah in a beautiful Shabbat service with our Rabbi and Cantor. Temple Beth El's Accelerated Prep Program offers private lessons to fit your schedule without the commitment of joining a temple. Temple Beth El's APP Program offers personal tutoring with our Cantor -- either in person or via Skype -- with classes to fit your schedule.
