SAJ Membership Dues

Synagogue membership is required after the first year of your child's enrollment in the Makom Program. Special introductory synagogue membership rate is $1,400 for the first year with your application. Rate increases to $1,700 for the second year of membership, and to the full family dues the third year of membership (depends on your family particulars, with the maximum of $1950 for the 2017 calendar year).

If you are applying for synagogue membership this year, make sure to include your synagogue membership application. We cannot give members' tuition rates to families who have not sent in a membership application and deposit.
