Please email svajksyouth@gmail.com if you have any questions!

Back by popular demand! You asked, we listened! We are having another laid-back Shabbat dinner on April 29! There are two dinner time slot options available—sign up for the option that best fits you and your family.
Families with young children are invited to welcome Shabbat together with a Family Shabbat Circle in the Berger Beit Midrash at 5:30 pm. Children are also welcome to join the rest of the shul for Mincha, Kabbalat Shabbat, and Maariv which will begin at 6:30 pm.

RSVP at svaj.org/family-dinner-4-29 Please email svajksyouth@gmail.com if you have any questions!
Thank you to the Community Committee and the 83 members who participated in Host or Be Hosted Shabbat! We'll be running this program monthly, so you will have another opportunity to participate and deepen your communal connections! To get involved in the Community Committee, please reach out to Ari Berkowitz ariberk@gmail.com or Tzvi Robinson tzvi21@gmail.com.

Book Giveaway! There is a table with books in the lobby near the TV monitor. If you are interested in any of these books, please take them after Yom Tov or during the week.

Legacy Members: Did you have a brass nameplate on the back of one of the shul’s chairs? Before our renovation, we removed and saved all of these nameplates and will be happy to return to the family members. Please call or email the office to claim your plate!

Lost & Found! If you lost it, we might have found it! Please check the lost and found on the northernmost coat rack in the basement. Everything that remains by next week will be donated.

Tuesday, April 26, 2022 at 6:30 pm @ Temple Sholom Chicago. 3480 N Lake Shore Dr, Chicago: Annual Yom Hashoah program: Illinois Holocaust Museum, Temple Sholom, Sheerit Hapleitah of Metropolitan Chicago, Jewish United Fund, Jewish Federation of Chicago, and CJE SeniorLife Holocaust Community Services present “WE ARE HERE,” a concert of songs written in the ghettos and concentration camps of occupied-Europe. The concert will honor the memory of those who were murdered and highlight the artists and writers who, in the worst of times, continued to create. With a 25-piece choir and performances and readings from some of Chicago’s top artists, cantors, and leaders, this powerful concert will include a candle-lighting ceremony and memorial prayers. This program is free to the public. Proof of vaccination is required at the door. Doors open at 6:30 pm. Program begins at 7:00 pm. Virtual option also available. Registration: https://www.wearehereconcert.com/
