

Congregation Ahavath Torah RABBI EMERITUS

Rabbi Shmuel Goldin

January 20th

Rabbi Shmuel Goldin has served as spiritual leader of Congregation Ahavath Torah in Englewood, New Jersey, for 33 years. Prior to assuming his role at Ahavath Torah, he served as Rabbi of Beth Sholom Congregation, Potomac, Maryland, and Assistant Rabbi, Beth Jacob Congregation, Beverly Hills, California. Rabbi Goldin's recently published five volume set of studies on the weekly parsha, "Unlocking the Torah Text," is based on his numerous years of lecturing in school and synagogue settings and has earned wide popular and critical acclaim in the broader Jewish Community. This is Rabbi Goldin's first official visit back to CAT as Rabbi Emeritus. Since he left Englewood, he has visited numerous communities in his new role as Senior Scholar for Nefesh B'Nefesh.
