Dvar Torah:

Parshat Beshalach has a second name, Shabbat Shira, because in the story, the Jewish people sang Oz Yashir, a prayer we say every day in davening. The Jewish people had just escaped Egypt and traveled through the desert; a pillar of cloud led them during the day and a pillar of fire led them at night. When they approached a place called Bal Tefon, Pharaoh decided to chase after them and saddled 600 special chariots. When the Jewish people saw the Egyptian army approaching behind them and the Red Sea in front of them, they were trapped and questioned Moshe: "Did you bring us out here to be killed?" HaShem told Moshe to stretch his hand out on the sea, and the sea split into two, with dry land in between. While the Jewish people crossed, the Egyptian army pursued. But as soon as the Jewish people reached the other side of the sea, the waters crashed down on the Egyptian army. In seeing this miracle, the Jewish people sang Oz Yashir; Miriam took a tambourine and led the women in singing.

While traveling further, the Jews arrived at a place called Marah. In Marah, they couldn't drink the bitter water, so HaShem instructed Moshe to dip a certain tree into the water, which sweetened and purified the water. When the people became hungry, HaShem rained bread down. The people asked, "Maan Hu" (What is this?), which is how this bread got the name Maan. The Maan had a magical property in that it tasted like whatever the person wanted it to. Each day, the people were allowed a single portion of Maan, except on Friday, Erev Shabbat, when they gathered a double portion. This story is how we got the name Lechem Mishna for the two challas or breads we bless at Shabbat meals, in remembrance of the double portion.

The parsha ends when the Jewish people are attacked by the Amalekites in a place called Rifidim. In response, Moshe appointed Yehoshua to take an army and fight them. HaShem told Moshe to remember this day and to remember what the Amalekites had done.
