Honoring

Marc & Chava Kurtz Jeremy & Alíza Davís Letters

RABBI CHAIM KRAUSE

In recognition of

Mr. & Mrs. Marc Kurtz

Well-deserving Honorees

Marc has been a stalwart at the Kollel Night Seder and Sunday Morning Seder for over a decade, virtually from its inception.

Remarkably, his enthusiasm with his wife's encouragement and support, has not waned over time but to the contrary he has increased his commitment and devotion.

Always with a smile and a laugh (and a cold peach Snapple) he is Ahuv Lakol. As caring and devoted participants of the Klal, the Kurtzes are always happy to help and do so with a smile.

May Hakodesh Boruch Hu bentch you and your family with the ability to always give to others in good health, cheer and spirit.

May you have much Yiddishe Nachas from your family and may we always share in Simchos.

Mazel toy to

Rabbi Glasser &

Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton

May the Shul continue to be a place of Aliyah in Ruchniyos.

Mr. Ammiel Bachrach, President Young Israel of Passaic/Clifton 200 Brook Avenue Passaic, NJ 07055

Dear Mr. Bachrach,

It is with great pleasure and Hakoras Hatov that I take this opportunity to acknowledge the outstanding work of the Young Israel and its deserving honorees on this occasion. The JFS feels very blessed to have your Rabbi as a member of our Board of Directors and has for many years been closely allied with your synagogue membership. Whether it is discussing a communal need, reaching out to families with children with special needs, honoring our esteemed survivors of the Holocaust or simply sharing in joint projects, we feel a true partnership with you and your congregants.

We particularly want to join in wishing your honorees, Marc and Chava Kurtz and Jeremy and Aliza Davis continued hatzlacha in their devotion to the community. We are each pieces of an enormous puzzle of relationships and connections. These connections sustain us in times of trouble and support us in times of joy. Thank you for continuing your connection with JFS and for giving us the chance to honor our bond.

Continued success in all your endeavors.

Sincerely, Esther East Esther East

Mr. Ammiel Bachrach, YIPC President Young Israel of Passaic/Clifton 200 Brook Avenue Passaic, New Jersey 07055

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to send you my warm regards on your Dinner of Tribute of the Young Israel of Passaic/Clifton. The Young Israel of Passaic/Clifton synagogue has been an integral part of the Passaic-Clifton community for over 40 years. The synagogue's daily offerings of Minyanim, Shiurim, and various youth and family programs continues to strengthen the Jewish community.

I would like to express my admiration to Mr. and Mrs. Chava and Marc Kurtz and Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy and Aliza Davis for their exceptional leadership. Your giving characters and constant investments of time have been nothing less than spectacular. I am sure your guidance, volunteering, and programming are appreciated by those in the Jewish community. The work ethic, ambition, and perseverance you have are certainly traits that shine through and exemplify Jewish values. It truly is a privilege for me to be able to participate in the celebration of your life and accomplishments.

Once again, congratulations on being honored by the Young Israel of Passaic/Clifton. As your friend in Congress, if you ever need my assistance, you know that I am there for you.

Sincerely,

June 16, 2019

Mr. and Mrs. Marc and Chava Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy and Aliza Davis, Congratulations!

Please accept my best wishes as you are recognized during this year's Young Israel Passaic- Clifton Benefit Dinner. It brings me great joy to join the YIPC community in recognizing the accomplishments of your respective families and your tireless work and acts of volunteerism.

The Kurtz family's dedication and participation in creating a more engaging Friday night Minyan has allowed for individuals to not only have a more uplifting Tefillah experience but expanded their spiritual awareness. The Kurtz sponsorship of the annual scholar in residence program has elevated the overall educational programs within the shul. This family's selfless contributions have allowed the YIPC family to grow more unified and spiritually as a community.

The Davis family has graciously spent their time and energy devoted to integral aspects to the YIPC community. Their work over the course of many years, including embracing a leadership role during YIPC move into its newest home and participation in a number of learning programs, including Minyanim, have set the standard for service in your community.

As your Senior United States Senator, I would like to express my deepest gratitude for your hard work and dedication in being role models and expanding the YIPC family. Again, please accept my best wishes for a successful and memorable benefit dinner.

Sincerely,

Robert Menendez

United States Senator

Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton 200 Brook Avenue Passaic, New Jersey 07055

Dear Friends,

It is a pleasure to extend my warmest greetings as you celebrate Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton's Benefit Dinner. I am especially delighted to congratulate tonight's honorees—Marc and Chava Kurtz, and Jeremy and Aliza Davis—on being recognized for their outstanding commitment to serving the community.

For over four decades, Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton (YIPC) has served as a source of spiritual enrichment for countless individuals and families. Your wide variety of religious, cultural, educational, and social programming provides a network of support for Passaic County's Jewish community, strengthening your members' faith and their ties to one another. I am grateful for all that you have done and continue to do.

Again, mazel tov! I wish you a memorable event, and I look forward to celebrating your continued success.

Best Wishes,

Mr. Ammiel Bachrach, President Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton 224 Spring Street Passaic, New Jersey 07055

Dear Ammiel,

For over fifty years, Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton has been at the forefront of our community's growth and expansion. It is my pleasure to join with YIPC's families and friends to celebrate and welcome our community. Tonight we are gathered to honor those who continue to serve our synagogue. This event is a tribute to the commitment put forth by our synagogue, and the relationships built upon Torah, Tefillah, and Chesed. This occasion is a yearly recognition that we have created a Kehilla that is inspiring each and every day.

It is my privilege to congratulate tonight's honorees: Mr. and Mrs. Marc and Chava Kurtz, and Mr. and Mrs. Jeremy and Aliza Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz reflect a deep love of this community, expressed in their continual enthusiasm to lend a helping hand. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are dedicated to participating in dynamic learning opportunities for both young and old. Both of these couples continue to provide vision and leadership for the community, uplifting every life they touch.

As a proud member of YIPC, I join with you in celebrating these esteemed members of our congregation. Rabbi Glasser continues to provide us all with his inspiring spiritual leadership, through his rigorous Torah scholarship. Through his leadership, our congregation provides the greater Passaic-Clifton community with unrivaled compassion and grace, with a commitment to volunteerism and selflessness. I am honored to be among you.

Dear YIPC,

It is with great pleasure and pride that we announce this year's Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton Dinner honorees, Marc and Chava Kurtz, and Aliza and Jeremy Davis. These two extraordinary couples personify the values of our Shul in their tireless devotion to so many dimensions of our community.

Chava and Marc have been members of the YIPC family for many years, and have contributed extensively to the broader atmosphere of spirituality and growth that permeates our Shul. We are fortunate to benefit from the annual scholar in residence program that is sponsored by the Kurtz family and provides the Kehila with an inspirational weekend of engaging Shiurim from prominent rabbinic leaders. Moreover, Chava invests significant time and energy into the vision and coordination of the broader educational programs within the shul. Marc is a passionate presence within the YIPC minyanim and Shiurim. Recently, he spearheaded an effort to establish a more spiritually engaging Friday night Minyan, which has gained popularity as a unique opportunity for an uplifting Tefilah experience. Together, Marc and Chava have worked to expand and uplift the Torah and Tefilah of our Shul.

Jeremy and Aliza Davis have invested themselves in one of the most central elements of the YIPC experience, our renowned youth programming. Aliza served as the youth department chair beginning with our move into the new building. She established much of the foundation for our flourishing youth department through volunteering her time and expertise related to youth. As a beloved community educator, Aliza brings a rare combination of passion, substantive, and creativity to the Shiurim and programs that she helped develop for our shul. Jeremy is a committed and engaged member of YIPC. From volunteering for the kidush cleanup crew, to his participation in a myriad of Minyanim and learning programs, he stands as a constant role model for the consistency of commitment that defines a leader within our shul. Together, Jeremy and Aliza bring a youthful vitality, and passion of spirit, to the YIPC family, and have given much of themselves to help build our Kehila.

The dinner is an opportunity for us to pay tribute to the many contributions and accomplishments of our honorees, and recognize the larger growth of our Kehila and its impact upon the broader community. Please join us as we celebrate our worthy honorees.

Rabbi Yaakov Glasser

Jeremy & Aliza Davis

Jeremy stands lean in build and intellectually curious. Aliza is vivacious, ready with a smile and quick in pace.

The couple, and their five children, are part of the new generation of Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton, yet blend comfortably with people of all ages.

"What really appealed to us about Young Israel was the welcoming and inspiring atmosphere for davening, and programming for children," said Aliza, noting how the couple joined the shul 4 years ago. "We also appreciate Rabbi and Rebbetzin Glasser's hashkafic approach that emphasizes the advantages and unique challenges of being a committed Torah Jew in a complex modern world."

"We loved how the shul focused on the whole family with learning and programming for men, women and children," Jeremy added.

Jeremy and Aliza married and moved to Passaic in 2006, attracted by the community's warmth and passionate commitment to religious growth.

Shortly after joining YIPC, Aliza chaired the Youth Committee for the first two years Young Israel was in its new building. There, she oversaw programing and training of the group leaders and helped set the standards of the department. Aliza continues to play an active role in youth, teen, and adult programming in the shul, including its dynamic Shavuos all-night learning, and programming for the Yomim Nora'im (High Holidays).

Meanwhile, Jeremy is a founding member of the Kiddush Cleanup Crew and participates in many of the shul's learning opportunities, including its daf hashavua.

For Aliza, Young Israel represents a continuation of her connection with the broader Orthodox community. She grew up in Hewlett, NY, graduating from Hebrew Academy of Long Beach (HALB) and Stella K. Abraham High School for Girls, before spending 1 ½ years in Israel at Michlalah. From there, she earned her BA in psychology at Stern College and, after stints at NCSY's summer programs and national office, she went into formal education, teaching limudei kodesh at The Moriah School, Yeshiva Beis Hillel (YBH), then Bruriah High School and Bais Yaakov Machon Ora. Aliza is currently in the process of getting her MA in Jewish Studies from Touro's Graduate School of Jewish Studies and this fall, Aliza will be joining the limudei kodesh faculty at Naaleh High School for girls in Ridgewood, NJ.

"I owe much of my passion for Jewish communal work to my grandparents, who were Holocaust survivors and lost so much, yet remained extremely committed to Yiddishkeit and rebuilding the Jewish community. And also to my parents, Dr. Norman Blumenthal and Haidee Blumenthal," she said.

"I've always enjoyed working with children and teens, whether at camp or volunteering at great organizations like NCSY, Chai Lifeline, Yachad and OHEL. And I continue finding rewards working with pre-adolescent and teen girls in the yeshiva system."

Jeremy grew up in a small hamlet in upstate New York, between Manhattan and Albany., NY. He enjoys challenging new acquaintances to play Jewish geography using his hometown.

Jeremy was raised in a home with a strong Jewish identity and his parents, Rich and Susan Levine, were active in their synagogue and in communal organizations. He attended public schools and was involved in Jewish youth organizations. Jeremy's interest in Judaism surged during a group trip to Israel, after which he began taking on new observances, including being the only kippah-wearing student in a high school of 1,600 students.

From a young age, Jeremy was drawn to words and the power of language. This appreciation has influenced both his professional and religious life.

Jeremy attended Rutgers University, earning an undergraduate degree in English Literature and embarking on a journalism career that included editorial roles at the Financial Times Group's Mergermarket.com, Mergers & Acquisitions Journal, and SC Magazine. Jeremy is currently vice president and senior content editor at the Global Association of Risk Professionals (GARP).

Religiously, Jeremy was active during his college years at both Hillel and Chabad. He subsequently spent time learning at Sh'or Yoshuv Yeshiva in Far Rockaway, NY, and

YOUNG ISRAEL OF PASSAIC-CLIFTON DINNER OF TRIBUTE

Shapell's Darché Noam in Israel. In shul, it is not uncommon to find Jeremy among the last to complete the Amida. He finds solace and connection to God through prayer, and the very notion that through speech we can create a positive or negative change in the world.

Jeremy and Aliza are the proud parents of five children: Shmuel (12), Avigail (10), Elisha (8), Yechiel (6), and Orly (4), all of whom attend YBH of Passaic.

YOUNG ISRAEL OF PASSAIC-CLIFTON DINNER OF TRIBUTE

Marc & Chava Kurtz

Marc and Chava Kurtz will never be mistaken for wallflowers.

Whether it's boosting a new learning opportunity, initiating a monthly Carlebach Friday night service or helping with kiddush cleanup, the Kurtzes are much more comfortable giving than receiving.

Which is why it may be ironic – though entirely fitting – that Marc and Chava are finally on the receiving end as honorees at the Young Israel of Passaic-Clifton's annual dinner, which takes place on Sunday, June 16 at the shul. Joining them as honorees are Jeremy and Aliza Davis, a dynamic couple with five children.

"We appreciated the diversity of the membership," Marc said, sharing why the couple joined YIPC in 1994, just two years after relocating from Washington Heights to Passaic.

"It was a place where our children were welcome and comfortable. We felt a sense of community and belonging."

Chava added, "Then came Rabbi and Rebbetzin Glasser (in 2005). They have been inspirational role models to us and our three children. We became more involved to feel a greater sense of connection to the shul and to help make it a place where we not only go once weekly on Shabbos, but for other opportunities to learn as well as to have fun."

Chava did her undergraduate studies at Michlala in Jerusalem and at Stern College. She received her Master's degree in Physical Therapy from Columbia University and currently practices in subacute rehab settings working primarily with a geriatric population.

The couple brings a midwestern warmth to the shul. Raised primarily in Chicago, Chava grew up in a traditional Orthodox home where both her parents were very active in the Jewish community. Her father, Rabbi Marvin Pachino, started out as a pulpit rabbi, before switching to chinuch, serving as principal of Judaic Studies at the widely-recognized Ida Crown Jewish Academy in Chicago and then as headmaster of CHAT (Community Hebrew Academy of Toronto).

Her mother, Judy Pachino, taught at the local day schools and was national president of Emunah Canada. "My parents have always been involved in Jewish community life through their work and affiliations with other organizations," said Chava. "My parents were proud religious Zionists." Not surprisingly, her parents made aliya nearly 12 years ago.

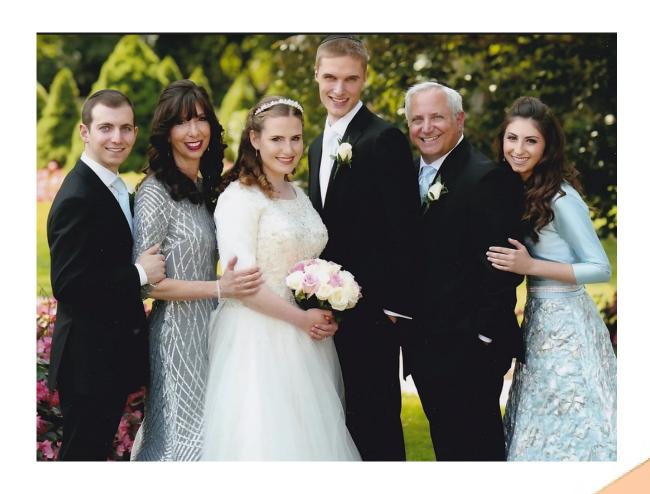

Raised in St. Louis, Marc earned a BA at Yeshiva University and a Masters in biochemistry at St. Louis University. He has spent the past 29 years working at Merck, one of the nation's largest pharmaceutical companies, in research and development of pre-clinical therapeutics.

"Most of my career I worked on cholesterol lowering by small molecule inhibitors," said Marc. "Part of the excitement is working on medical therapies that can really make a difference in people's lives."

That sense of "making a difference" played out decades ago in Marc's religious life, where he followed his older brother, Rabbi Shmuel Kurtz, to embrace an Orthodox way of life. Marc and his siblings grew in their religious passion.

"The transition to orthodox living was a result of a summer program in Israel, living with a family on an orthodox Moshav," Marc recalled. "This incredible experience and lifestyle inspired us to 'convert' our parents to living a more orthodox style of Judaism."

Today, the Kurtz's love of Judaism and community is reflected in their children: Eitan (who is married to Brittany and lives in Massachusetts), Dani, and Aliza.

We admire the amount of time and commitment that you invest in our shul (even if that means that we are the very last ones at kiddush some weeks), and we are proud to be the children of parents who have spearheaded many contributions to the shul.

The role models that you are through giving to our community serve as a model for us as we all grow up and begin finding our own communities.

On a more personal note, we could not ask for more caring and devoted parents, and we are forever grateful for all that you have done and continue to do for us.

We love you!!!

The Jewish Memorial Chapelhas been serving the local Jewish community for over 95 years

We have the distinction of being the first non-profit, communityowned funeral home in the United States. The Jewish Memorial Chapel upholds the highest standards of Jewish law pertaining to funerals. We are a Shomer Shabbos facility and have a Kohanim building on the premises. Our state-of-the-art chapel in Clifton is near local cemeteries. The Jewish Memorial Chapel also makes other state and world-wide arrangements.

We can also help you with your pre-planning needs. Pre-planning allows families the time needed to make decisions regarding funeral options without the emotional stress related to the loss.

The Jewish Memorial Chapel funeral directors will lead you through the pre-planning process and be attentive to your every need. They will answer all your questions and never pressure you into making uncomfortable decisions.

YOUNG ISRAEL OF PASSAIC-CLIFTON DINNER OF TRIBUTE

IN HONOR OF OUR DEAR CHILDREN

Each of you, a very special gift to us!

EITAN and BRITTANY: Your individual talents in technology and special education respectively, as well as your growth in your careers and the respect that you have gained in your places of work are impressive. But even more impressive is the selfless giving of your time as a couple, and your dedication to YACHAD and helping special-needs children. May you be blessed to keep giving, and in return be the recipients of Hashem's many blessings.

DANI: Your dedication to Talmud Torah and your Avodas Hashem in and of itself is inspiring. Devoting so much of your time to this and juggling a rigorous pre-Med curriculum at the same time seemed nearly impossible. Your self-discipline and perseverance is remarkable. As you begin your pursuit of a medical degree and career, may Hashem grant you the ability to maintain a balance of both worlds successfully. AND never lose your unique sense of humor and fun!

ALIZA: Our baby, our princess (who never really was a princess because you were too busy keeping up with your brothers). Where has the time gone? We are proud of your many accomplishments, but more so of your desire to keep learning and growing. Your love of Torah and striving to live a Torahtrue life is admirable. You are never one to compromise on your values. With Hashem's help may you be matzliach as you begin the next phase of your life, and in all your future endeavors.

With much love, Mommy and Abba "Who is honored?

He who honors".

In Honor of Rabbi & Rebbetzin Glasser

With you as the Mora D'Asra of the YIPC, our shul has grown tremendously, not only in numbers but in Avodas HaShem.

Because of you both, YIPC is now on the Passaic map. We appreciate your leadership, your dedication and commitment to our kehila.

We value your friendship and guidance to us personally through various life milestones and challenges.

We are particularly grateful that our children have felt comfortable to build a kesher with Rabbi Glasser.

It is reassuring to know that they have a place to turn and will be given the best guidance possible.

With gratitude, Chava & Marc

To the YIPC board

Thank you for your many contributions and your tireless service to the shul and the community.

Chava Kurtz & Aliza Davis

Mazal Tov on this incredible honor, which represents just a small token of appreciation that so many people have to both of you, and your families. You consistently devote an inordinate amount of time to the Shul, which inspires others to do the same as well.

Chava - it is a privilege to learn from you, and to work with you on so many programs throughout the year. So much of what is accomplished is because of your efforts and insight - and I look forward to continuing working together.

Aliza - it was a privilege working with you on behalf of the YIPC youth. Our Youth Department is flourishing (thanks to the tremendous leadership of Sara Younger), but you set-up the infrastructure and systems for this to happen. Although you are officially retired, thank you for always being willing to offer advice and to help when needed.

YIPC Education/Programming Committee

Leslie Morrison, Adina Mermelstein, Bentzion Gelfand, Chava Kurtz, Dani Goldberg, David Adler, Erez Naftali, Esti Bresler, Marcy Guttman, Zisi Wachsberg

This was was a great and inspiring year! From trying to attract larger audiences to our Shiurim, or figuring out ways to make people feel more part of the community, you have helped create a stronger and more vibrant sense of community at the YIPC - which benefits all of us.

Mazel Tov To Our Dear Friends Chava and Marc On This Well Deserved Honor

It all started in 1990 as two young couples, meeting in Washington Heights. Instant friends! We followed you to Passaic and ultimately to the Young Israel.

We have shared so many wonderful life moments together and we are so happy to be here at the Young Israel dinner while you receive this tremendous honor.

We are grateful for all that you do for our shul, community and your friends. May you continue to help the Young Israel be that special place that it is.

Thank you to Aliza and Jeremy Davis for all that you do for our shul and ensuring the spiritual growth of our children. The Young Israel is lucky to have you as part of its membership!

Mazal tov to all the honorees on your well-deserved honor!

Marc & Chava – thanks for your quiet and unassuming leadership. You both serve as role models for us and have contributed so much to our shul. We enjoy & appreciate your friendship. We are especially thankful for your efforts in starting our non-Carlebach Carlebach minyan. It is a highlight of the month and adds a nice, extra lebadik dimension to our shul. Looking forward to more dancing!

Jeremy & Aliza – we are so thankful that our children have a wonderful youth program to attend. Thanks for all you have done to enhance our youth programming. Also, thanks for making sure that our simcha hall is always clean!

We appreciate your friendship.

Rabbi & Rebbetzin – We are very lucky to have such a wonderful couple as role models to lead and guide us! Your care and concern for each member of your Kehila is much appreciated. A special thank you to Rabbi Glasser for his inspirational & humorous drashos. Your guidance and insights have been essential in helping us live meaningful lives!

Dearest Aliza,

What an incredible honor it is to be your friend. I know that myself and so many others have learnt so much from you and we have all benefited from your incredible wisdom and sensitive advice. You are so intelligent, sincere, growth oriented, generous and kind and if I tried to go on there would not be enough paper in the entire world. You have a heart made of gold that is truly bigger than the world and this honor to you and Jeremy is truly a testament to that.

Thank you for all that you have done for myself and so many others and may

Hashem only continue to give you and Jeremy the strength you need to continue having such a tremendous hashpaa on the world ad meah viesrim shana.

With endless admiration,
Talia Kronenberg

Mazel tov Aliza and Jeremy on this well-deserved honor (we hope you get a good gift out of it). (Although we have no idea what you do), we are sure that your commitment to community involvement and work on behalf of the Young Israel youth department continue to inspire all those around you (but not us, because we live too far from you). May Hashem continue to give you many opportunities to work on behalf of klal Yisroel (preferably on a broader scale so we can benefit also for many years to come)!

Your friends, Rabbi Yitzy and Ronit Haber & Rabbi Philip and Arielle Moskowitz Congratulations to
