❖ From Our President's Desk

Chris Spellman

Hello Family and Friends,

We are at a time in our valley where we are finding a plethora of choices to keep us busy in our daily lives. It is exciting that our Temple Isaiah calendar is filling up with plenty of incredible and amazing things to experience. Look no further then next week's upcoming lecture with NY Times best selling author and Coachella Valley resident Tod Goldberg, or down the road to our own Chanukah Bazaar, Jews Do the Blues Too, and so much more. We are just getting warmed up.

If you had a smile on your face while hanging at the Temple that must mean you attended the ice cream social on October 19th. How fantastic of the Membership Committee to bring our members together for an afternoon of creamery and conversation. I hope the next one happens sooner than later, don't you? Please let Larry Fechter and the Membership Committee know that you would like to attend another ice cream social ... and it would be great if you could offer to help with the next one. Any suggestions for other member events? No idea is too silly; that's why Baskin Robbins made 31 flavors!

It is very important to put the Temple Isaiah Annual Meeting {Tuesday, December 19th at 6:00 pm in the Bochner} on your calendars and plan to attend. If you are interested in running for the Board, please send a message to the office, attention Gary Miller.

Both the "Stay" and "Move" committees will have more information that they will present that evening. They continue to work with a unified approach and we thank them for their diligence and focused efforts.

I invite you to contact me at cspellman126@aol.com or Doug Morton at dmorton@templeisaihps.com if you would like to volunteer for our new Rental Committee. I will be chairing this committee, which will focus on identifying and reaching out to organizations or individuals who might want to use the one or more locations within our facility for their programs and/or celebrations.

Please know you do not need to be on the committee to share your ideas. I would love to hear from you! Your support is important ... both in spirit and body.

And, finally, please attend services when you can. Bring a friend to experience the joy of Shabbat that our Rabbi Lazar brings to our weekly services.

Sincerely,

Chris Spellman, President

❖ From the Executive Director Douglas Morton

With the High Holidays behind us, we have put our energies into calendaring for "the season" and we have an exciting year planned. With our diverse programming, there will surely be something for everyone. Take the time to really read all the flyers in this month's Chai Lights and choose which resonate with you ... then RSVP!

We offer two ongoing classes, ExplozaTorah and 2BaJew. ExplozaTorah has a devoted core of 18-24 regular attendees. In October a year ago the group decided that rather than discuss the week's torah portion each week, the class would start with the beginning of Genesis and slowly study the torah. I checked this week, and after over a year, they are still in Genesis! ... but loving the in-depth discussions and the breadth of knowledge that Rabbi brings to the class. Sound intriguing? Attend a class and check it out for yourself. ExplozaTorah meets Wednesdays from 3-4:15 pm in the library on the lower level.

Our other ongoing class is 2BaJew, for those exploring conversion to Judaism, as well as those who want to learn more about their Judaism. There is a fee for this course. Call the office for more information.

Our very special upcoming program is "Jews Do the Blues Too" on Sunday afternoon December 3rd. The first concert was last November, and celebrated Rabbi Lazar's installation as our Rabbi. The afternoon was so much fun that we decided we absolutely had to do it again! Go on line at www.templeisaiahps.com and purchase your ticket.

Our Interfaith Pride Kabbalat Shabbat is Friday, November 3rd at 6:30 pm and, as last year, we anticipate a huge turnout as we celebrate with our friends and neighbors during Palm Springs Pride Week.

Our first Short Family Lecture will be Thursday, November 9th at 7:00 P.M. in the Liberman Chapel. Tod Goldberg is the New York Times best-selling author of over a dozen books, including the novels "The House of Secret", "Gangsterland" and the recently published "Gangster Nation." He'll talk about how his Jewish identity is reflected in his writing and will be available to sign copies of his new book immediately following the lecture. Please join us!

Time for the movies! In good Jewish tradition, we are offering a "forshpeis" of our fabulous March 18-21, 2018

Fifth Annual Palm Springs Jewish Film Festival. We are offering a 'season opener' on Tuesday, November 14th at 7:00 pm at the Camelot Theatre. For only $5 you can see the charming Israeli comedy "A Matter of Size." After losing his job at a salad bar because of his weight, morbidly obese Herzi finds employment in a Japanese restaurant. When Herzi's coworkers and new boss introduce him to sumo wrestling, he finds his calling. A comedy about overweight people learning to accept themselves. Space is limited so go online and buy your ticket now (or call the office 760-325-2281). This should be a sell out!

Our Temple Isaiah Auxiliary is busy planning an incredible Hanukkah Bazaar on Sunday, November 19th from 1-4 PM, here at the Temple. Included will be beautiful Judaica from our Jewel of the Desert Gift Shop, plus exciting vendors with designer labels from faux to fabulous. A great place to buy your Hanukkah presents for family, friends ... and yourself!

Kudos to our Membership Committee for their wonderful Ice Cream Social last month, which included a speaker from the Historical Society, who brought back memories to those who have made Palm Springs their home for many years. It was exciting to see that among the attendees were several of our senior members who aren't always able to access the Temple.

Our Stay Committee is working extremely hard and it is my hope that the hard work is about to pay off! Everything from fundraising to a Legacy Society here at the Temple is being discussed. Our Modernism Committee is kicking into full gear, planning tours of the Temple next February during Modernism Week. Twice Blessed has exciting programs in the works. And kudos to our Finance Committee, which is busy updating our financial figures to make sure everything is accurate, realistic and ready to go for the future.

Reminder to everyone: Put our Temple Annual Meeting & Hanukkah celebration on your calendars now: Tuesday, December 19 at 6:00 pm. This is an important opportunity to learn about and impact our future.

As you can see, there is so much going on. The Temple is ours. Participate! I look forward to seeing you at services and at our exciting variety of programs and events!

Shalom,

Douglas

ABOUT THE LECTURES

Join us for these fascinating lectures presented by Temple Isaiah with the support of the Jewish Federation of the Desert.

Judaism, both cultural and spiritual, has always developed and adapted throughout the ages and our time is no different. While tradition has always been important to our people, models of thinking, believing and practicing from the past should constantly be assessed and reexamined in light of new realities.

These lectures will focus on the intellectual, spiritual and practical aspects of being Jewish in our own time and place.

ABOUT TEMPLE ISAIAH

Founded in 1940's, Temple Isaiah and Jewish Community Center of Palm Springs, is a non-denominational synagogue community. We constantly endeavor to keep ourselves attuned to the three pillars of Jewish Life: Torah (intellectual growth), Avodah (spiritual practice), and Gemilut Hasadim (fixing the world).
