SELICHOT AND ROSH HASHANAH

Selichot Service and Short Study
Saturday, September 12
8pm
Our High Holy Day season begins with the serene and beautiful Selichot Service, live-streamed from our sanctuary. Rabbi Litwak will lead a brief study in the middle.

Erev Rosh Hashanah Service
Friday, September 18
5:00pm & then You Choose the Time
We will begin the Ten Days of Repentance live from the sanctuary at 5:00pm with a few thoughts and songs, kiddush, motzi, and sheheheyanu and our High Holy Day Greeting Video. Then, you can enjoy a fully prerecorded one hour service at a time that works for you (before or after dinner). Rabbi Kingsley will teach.

Rosh Hashanah Zoom Dinner
Friday, September 18
6:00pm - 7:00pm
Join Rabbi Litwak, Rosalie Borg, Lynn and Marty Mendelssohn, Renee Yeslow and others. You cook; We all converse. On the Temple Sinai Zoom account.

Would you like to wish your Temple Sinai Family a Shana Tova? We are putting together a very special High Holy Days Greeting video.

First Day Rosh Hashanah Family Service
Saturday, September 19
9:30am
Join Rabbi David, Rabbi Litwak and Cantor Norman for a brief online service with singing and storytelling.

First Day Rosh Hashanah Service
Saturday, September 19
10:30am
We are intentionally creating something different. Our live stream service will focus on a few of the key prayers with a combination of music, liturgy, graphics, and teaching. Shofar will happen in the afternoon. Rabbi Litwak will teach: ‘Judaism 5.0 - Our Yavneh Moment”

First Day Rosh Hashanah On-Campus Experiences
Saturday, September 19
2:00pm - 5:00pm
Our sanctuary will be open throughout the afternoon. Family and Adult Friendly Rosh Hashanah Scavenger Hunt. Come before the shofar service or stay afterwards. Work your way around the campus through a series of Rosh Hashanah related activities

3:00pm - Shofar Chauffeur and Tashlich: Join us in the parking lot for our community wide drive-in Shofar Service.
“Cast away your sins” into the Oleta River with the ritual of tashlich.

For all programs, masks and physical distancing are required.

Second Day Rosh Hashanah Service
Sunday, September 20
10:00am
If you are looking for what you always remember about Rosh Hashanah, this slightly longer “traditional” service with a sermon is for you. We will use the Gates of Repentance machzor (prayer book). If you need to borrow a copy, please call the front office.
Rabbi Litwak will teach: ‘Why Can’t We All Just Get Along?!’

YOM KIPPUR

Erev Yom Kippur/Kol Nidre
Sunday, September 27
8:00pm
This will be similar in feel to previous years, although shorter in length. Rabbi Litwak will teach: “As long as the candle is burning…” We will use Gates of Repentance.

Yom Kippur Family Service
Monday, September 28
9:30am
Join Rabbi David, Rabbi Litwak and Cantor Norman for a brief online service with singing and storytelling.

Yom Kippur Morning
Monday, September 28
10:30am
Like First Day Rosh Hashanah, this will be more experimental in feel and focus. Rabbi Litwak will teach: “#JewishPrivilege”

Yom Kippur Afternoon Study
1:00pm - 3:00pm
Rather than doing a service, we are hosting Zoom based study sessions on topics of current interest (race, voter suppression, and loss.)

Yom Kippur On-Campus Experiences
1:00pm - 4:00pm
Our sanctuary will be open for quiet meditation during the afternoon. Masks and physical distancing are required.

Family Program: 2pm-4pm “Yom Kippur - The Power of Words”
Travel through four stories and activities focused on the themes of Yom Kippur. In the ECE parking lot.

Yizkor
5:00pm

Would you like to honor and remember your loved one? In place of our annual printed Book of Memory, we are creating an “In Memoriam” video with both photos and names of our loved ones!

Neilah
6:00pm
The gates of repentance are closing. With a shift in service and musical mode, we have one more opportunity to change our ways. We are live streaming this via Zoom so that we are truly able to see each other and share the light of Havdalah together. Get your Havdalah candle and glowsticks ready.

Post Neilah “Communal” Breaking of the Fast
Following the final tekiah gedolah, our Zoom room will remain open for people to greet each other and share their respective break fasts.

Join us for a journey through the Ten Days of Repentance beginning on Rosh Hashanah and ending on Yom Kippur. Each day there is a different theme and some inspiration for you. Most importantly, each day, there is something for you to do - something to act on as you travel through these sacred days.
