COVID Protocols

Thank you in advance for your cooperation as we work to keep all of our children safe over the coming holidays.

- ◆ COVID Symptoms—Please keep your child at home if he/she is exhibiting any possible COVID symptoms or if he/she is feeling unwell in general.
- ◆ Masking—Children ages 2 and older must wear a mask at all times, except those with special needs or when eating snacks and lunch. Kids will be socially distanced when eating.

Ten Commandments of Rechov Yeladim

1. Stay and Pray. A parent/guardian must be in the building at all times.
2. Notify Director of any allergies or medical needs.
3. Have Special Needs? Let us know and we will do our best to accommodate you and your child.
4. Fever? Cough? Cold? We look forward to seeing sick kids when they are better, but they are not allowed in groups until then.
5. It's the rule: Shots before Shul. Vaccinations must be up-to-date to join groups.
6. No Nuts, No Buts. We are nut-sensitive. Do not bring snacks with any nuts to groups.
7. Drop Off—No Parking Needed. Your kids are in good hands, no need to stay, let them play!
8. In Case of an Emergency, DO NOT come up to Rechov Yeladim to pick up your child(ren). Our counselors and designated security volunteers will evacuate them.
9. Questions? Ask our Youth Director or a counselor.
10. New to the street? Join us! Contact youth@bnaidavid.com.
