Ten Commandments of Rechov Yeladim

1. Stay and Pray. A parent/guardian must be in the building at all times.
2. No wandering Jews. Children must be either in Rechov Yeladim or with their parents the entire time they are in shul.
3. Notify Director of any allergies or medical needs.
4. Have Special Needs? Let us know and we will do our best to accommodate you and your child.
5. Fever? Cough? Cold? We look forward to seeing sick kids when they are better, but they are not allowed in groups until then.
6. It's the rule: Shots before Shul. Vaccinations must be up-to-date to join groups.
7. No Nuts, No Buts. We are nut-sensitive. Do not bring snacks with any nuts to groups or services.
8. Drop Off—No Parking Needed. Your kids are in good hands, no need to stay, let them play!
9. In Case of an Emergency, DO NOT come up to Rechov Yeladim to pick up your child(ren). Our counselors and designated security volunteers will evacuate them.
10. Questions? Ask our Youth Director or a counselor.

Teens

Teens in grades 6—12 are encouraged to be in the Main Sanctuary or Beit Midrash, with their parents, for davening. Teens in grades 9—12 can take breaks in the office.

This year, there will be optional supplemental programming for middle schoolers (grades 6—8). Middle Schoolers can participate in all or some of the programming, as needed.
