BDJ BROADCASTS

- ◆ Notice: Rabbanit Alissa is currently on maternity leave. She will not be checking email or phone messages regularly for the time being. If you have halachic or pastoral questions, please contact ravyosef@bnaidavid.com.
- ◆ Condolences: To Abby Yasgur, Joey Lipner, and family on the passing of Abby's beloved mother, Jeanette (Kate) Yasgur, z"l. Please note, all BDJ Minyanim from Sunday morning, 7/21 (the fast of 17 Tammuz) through Tuesday morning, 7/30 will be held at the Yasgur Shiva Home at 9607 Bolton Road. Please allow the family privacy between 11:30 AM and 5:30 PM, and no visits after 9:30 PM.
- ◆ Shiva Asar B'Tammuz: See inside for details.

A note from Neal Shapiro who has just completed saying kaddish for his father: "Thank you to the regular attendees of the evening and Sunday AM minyanim and to those who made sure there always was a minyan so that I could say kaddish for my father. Your presence gave me the opportunity to give honor to my father's memory without concern of missing a morning, afternoon or evening kaddish. I hope that should the sad need arise that I will be able to return the favor. In your honor, a contribution has been made to BDJ. May we share in smachot."

"Opioids, Suicide, & America's Spiritual Crisis: Jewish Questions, Answers, & Imperatives"

The opioid crisis and rising suicide rates are shining a light on unprecedented levels of despair, isolation, and pain across the country. What's going on? What can we do to keep our families, ourselves, and our communities safe? What can we do to alleviate the suffering around us? Rav Yosef will share Jewish sources and Harry Nelson will share ideas from his recent book, The United States of Opioids: A Prescription for Liberating a Nation in Pain.

THIS WEEKEND- SHIVA ASAR B'TAMMUZ

Shiva Asar B'Tammuz (Sunday, July 21) begins the period known as "the three weeks," during which we commemorate the sieges of Jerusalem which culminated in the destruction of the city and the exiling of its inhabitants (in 586 BCE and 70 CE). During these three weeks, we refrain from having our hair cut and from attending and participating in joyous gatherings and most kinds of celebrations.

On the Shabbatot during the three weeks, we will read Haftarah selections שלש דפורענותא which give the prophets' perspectives on the circumstances surrounding the destruction of the first Temple. This year, Shiva Asar B'Tammuz is on Shabbat, so it will be observed on Sunday, the 18th of Tammuz.

Sunday, July 21 Schedule

NOSH N' DROSH- SUNDAY MORNING EDITION

Sunday, July 28 | 10:30-11:45 AM | BDJ

"The Dollars & Cents of the future of the Los Angeles Orthodox Community. Does It Add Up?"

Raising a family is hard anywhere, but in Los Angeles it is especially difficult. Housing costs, day school tuition and even the premium we pay for kosher food outpaces most incomes. If you are just starting out – or even if you are a little more established – will you be able to live "your parents' Orthodox lives"? What steps can we take to create financially viable Orthodox lives for ourselves in this wonderful community in which we live? Join us to talk tachlis about our financial pressures in ways we wouldn't speak about them on a Shabbat. Panelists include real estate expert Naomi Selick, Shalhevet Head of School Rabbi Ari Segal, Jewish Communal Professional Zach Morrow, and survivor-of-the-financial-battles Mark Rothman. Moderated by Benny Smith.

UPCOMING

NEW PROGRAM: SHIUR B'IVRIT! שיעור בעברית

Would you like to improve your spoken Hebrew? Your moment has arrived!

At BDJ we're going to start "talking the talk" as we inaugurate a regular D'var Torah in Hebrew (with the opportunity to ask what certain words mean!) We invite YOU to "walk the walk" and join us as a participant!

Here are the details:

- WHAT: A Dvar Torah given in the Hebrew language.
WHEN: Shabbat morning, ten minutes SHARP after Adon Olam.
WHERE: Usually in the Beit Midrash, elsewhere in the building if a particular week requires it.
HOW LONG: It will last for not more than ten minutes, so everyone can still make their lunch on time!
HOW OFTEN: Most Shabbat mornings, with exceptions when necessitated by BDJ programmatic conflicts.
REASON: אם אתה שואל, זה הכרחי לך להשתתף.

Our exciting opening lineup:

August 3 – Gil Melmed · August 10 – Sharon Merkin · August 17 – Rabbi Yitz Etshalom ·
August 24 – Yaron Elad · August 31 – Gal Ben Naim

B'NAI DAVID-JUDEA

NOSH N' DROSH 2019

LOCATIONS TBD • CHILDCARE PROVIDED

JUNE 15

IS "KOSHER ENOUGH" KOSHER ENOUGH? How we keep kosher can either exclude people from - or welcome people into - our homes. But Kashrut isn't only a social ticket in our community— it's a spiritual value that communicates our credibility as Orthodox Jews. Where are the practical, halachic lines below which it's just not "kosher enough"? Why do our personal decisions about food impact each other? In this highly practical and reflective conversation, Rav Yosef and Rabbanit Alissa will enhance our observance of this mitzvah as well as our sense of community!

JULY 6

THE P'SUKIM THEY SKIP IN DAY SCHOOL: RAPE IN THE TANACH How do we grapple with the tough texts in our tradition around rape and questionable sexual encounters? In this text-based Nosh N' Drosh, Rabbanit Alissa will help us wrestle with our traditional texts and explore how the Orthodox community can better address these stories—especially, God forbid, when they become personal in a post-#metoo world.

JULY 20

OPIOIDS, SUICIDE, AND AMERICA'S SPIRITUAL CRISIS: JEWISH QUESTIONS, ANSWERS, AND IMPERATIVES The opioid crisis and rising suicide rates are shining a light on unprecedented levels of despair, isolation, and pain across the country. What's going on? What can we do to keep our families, ourselves, and our communities safe? What can we do to alleviate the suffering? Rav Yosef will share Jewish sources and Harry Nelson will share ideas from his recent book, The United States of Opioids: A Prescription for Liberating a Nation in Pain. Location: BDJ

AUG 17

MAKING SPACE FOR DIFFERENCE: CIVIL DISCOURSE IN A CHARGED POLITICAL CLIMATE Today it is more important than ever to learn to communicate civilly across the political divide. How can we come together to discuss our differences in politics and culture in a way that's both courteous and productive? Is it possible to open our hearts and minds to people with whom we disagree on fundamental truths? Join NewGround Executive Director Aziza Hasan and NewGround Change-Makers for an afternoon of diving into disagreement with deep listening.

AUG 24

PARALLEL LIVES: ARMENIANS AND JEWS, WITH SALPI GHAZARIAN AND RAV YOSEF Beyond our shared experiences of 20th century genocide and facing our genocide-deniers, the Armenian and Jewish communities share much else as well, including the struggle over maintaining religious and cultural identity in diaspora. Dr. Salpi Ghazarian, Director of the USC Institute of Armenian Studies, will describe the experiences of the contemporary Armenian community (who number 160,000+ in greater LA!), and open doors of relationship between our communities. Location: BDJ

AUG 31

WHAT'S THE VALUE OF COLLEGE, ANYWAY? Our community clearly values college education. Join UCLA Hillel Executive Director Rabbi Aaron Lemer and College Consultant Rebecca Stuart-Orlowski as we ask several disruptive -- if not heretical -- questions. How should we be educating our children beyond secondary school? What effect does college have on our children's Jewish identity? What are the competing/conflicting values in sending them to college in a time of rising campus antisemitism? What is the true value of college, anyway?
