UPCOMING PROGRAMS

NOSH N' DROSH...THE SUMMER SERIES BEGINS!

Shabbat, June 15 | 5:00 PM | Home of Dorit Naftalin & Harry Nelson | 1538 S. Canfield Ave.

Is "Kosher Enough" Kosher Enough?

How we keep kosher can either exclude people from - or welcome people into - our homes. But Kashrut is not only a social ticket in our community, it is also a spiritual value that communicates our credibility as Orthodox Jews. Where are the practical, halachic lines below which it's just not "kosher enough"? How and why do our personal decisions about what we eat impact each other? Join Rav Yosef and Rabbanit Alissa in this highly practical and reflective conversation to enhance our observance of this mitzvah as well as our sense of community! Visit www.bnaidavid.com/noshndrosh for more info. Childcare provided.

ISRAEL COMMITTEE

"Combatting the New Anti-Semitism: Re-asserting the Legitimacy of Israel and Zionism" with Aryeh Green, Director Emeritus, MediaCentral

Shabbat, June 22 | 6:00 PM | BDJ

Understanding how to distinguish between reasonable criticism of Israel policies and the new anti-Semitism, in a compelling and simple fashion, helps us all to cope with today's environment of fractious debate, whether on campus, in the media, with our elected representatives, or around the dining room table. Aryeh will explore a number of fundamental myths which underlie the unfortunate hostility toward Israel in public discourse today, and will offer tools to use in our discussions with others, based on Natan Shtronsky's "3D" analysis of modern anti-Semitism, which Aryeh helped create.

BDJ BLOOD DRIVE
