BDJ GALA

If you have yet to sign up or submit a journal ad, please do so by Tuesday! In addition to honoring those who have given so much to our community - Shana and Mordechai, Rabbanit Alissa, and Joanne and Robby - our banquet raises essential funds for the ongoing operation of our shul and our programs. About 1/4 of our budget comes from the fundraising leading up to this evening. And in light of the many extra security measures we have needed to implement in recent weeks and months, these funds are more necessary than ever to enable us to keep our shul safe and our community thriving. Anyone who cannot afford a full-priced ticket but would like to attend and/or show their support, please be in touch with the office.

A tremendous thank you to our fundraising chairs - Jeff Fishman and Gail Katz - who are working tirelessly to help us reach our goal. Without their diligence, none of this would be possible.

BDJ FOOD INCLUSION & ACCOMODATIONS GUIDELINES

As part of our general inclusion work and mission to be welcoming to all, we have crafted the following BDJ event guidelines for those with food allergies and other dietary restrictions. Thank you to Tzvi Wolf who spearheaded this project!

- ◆ We will continue to adhere to our allergy policy guidelines which state that we will try to keep all shul events free of serious airborne allergens and will label food that contain general major allergens.
- ◆ We will try to offer vegetarian, vegan, and gluten free options when possible for catered meals.
- ◆ When asking for RSVPs, we will ask for special dietary requirements and try to offer reasonable accommodations when possible. If not possible, we may (a) contact the individual to direct us to a separate locale where we can order appropriate food for him/her or (b) ask the individual bring his/her own meal and we will reimburse the cost of the event registration, depending on the nature of the event and the dietary request.

Though we will do our best to adhere to these guidelines, we cannot guarantee a fully allergen-free or special ingredient friendly environment due to the nature of working with an outside caterer. If you have serious allergies or dietary restrictions, please be in touch with the office to discuss.

BUY THE BOOK TONIGHT!!!

Join A Dynamic Discussion!

Everyone is invited to take part in the reading and discussing of Micah Goodman's recent book Catch-67, which is now available in English. (I had the privilege of hearing Micah talk about his book when it first came out in Hebrew, back in my Hartman days.) The book is an analysis of the deep debate that has divided Israeli political opinion for decades over the what the ultimate future of the West Bank / Yehuda V'Shomron should be.

The book was widely read in Israel, won high critical acclaim, and managed to aggravate both right and left. You can inexpensively purchase a copy at <https://www.amazon.com/Catch-67-Left-Right-Legacy-Six-Day/dp/0300236743>

We will be sharing our thoughts and responses to “Part One” at 7:30 PM on Wednesday evening, February 26th, and to “Part Two” on Wednesday evening, April 22nd (and then decide if we want to schedule one more session to discuss “Part Three”). Please RSVP by Feb 16 at:

DAILY MINYAN: BDJ'S BEATING HEART

“Why is Daily Minyan important to you?” Robby Helperin:

The Rabbis carefully constructed Judaism with a specific built-in rhythm. You can't really join in the song if you don't feel that beat.

Pardon the extended metaphor, but daily minyan is the kick drum that sets the tempo. Without it, the momentum stops. That's how it feels on a personal level, and how I see it on a world-wide Jewish level, but there's also a historical/political side: BDJ could be the rockin' Beatles of Judaism for this age—but not if we can't keep the song going.

Sign up to the Minyan WhatsApp group here: <https://chat.whatsapp.com/Hmk9ETRcafi8PolDQ1db9B>

SECURITY ANNOUNCEMENT

- ◆ In the event of an emergency, our temporary point will be the alley between Livonia and Crest (south of Pico).
